

Admissions & Aid	Majors & Colleges	Research	Alumni Community	Campus Life	Athletics	About	>
------------------	-------------------	----------	------------------	-------------	-----------	-------	---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Jan. 16, 2014

Contact: Brandon Takahashi
714-907-7589; calpolycsa@gmail.com

Cal Poly Chinese Student Association to Host 57th Annual Chinese New Year Banquet

SAN LUIS OBISPO — The Cal Poly Chinese Student Association will host its 57th annual Chinese New Year Banquet at 5:45 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 1, in Chumash Auditorium on campus.

The evening will include a student-produced play, dance performances, and a demonstration from the Wushu Taichi Center.

The student play, “No Place Like Home,” centers on a typical adolescent boy who gets sucked into the magical land of television during the Chinese New Year. During his journey, he meets an array of characters, including a girl named Nora, an exercise guru, and a Pokemon trainer. The boy’s courage will be tested as he attempts to find his way home.

Food will be catered by Mandarin Gourmet. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

The annual event strives to showcase the campus club and Chinese culture to the Cal Poly and local communities.

The cost is $12 for general admission; $10 for children; and $5 for entertainment only. For tickets and more details, contact Brandon Takahashi at 714-907-7589 or calpolycsa@gmail.com.

Links

- Chinese Student Association: <https://www.facebook.com/calpoly.csa>

About Cal Poly’s Chinese Student Association

The Cal Poly Chinese Student Association (CSA) is one of many cultural clubs on campus. CSA strives to create a home away from home for people with diverse interests by providing various social opportunities for growth and community. Among the association’s efforts are Take Out Kidz, a non-audition hip-hop dance group comprised of participants who love to dance; and CSA’s Lion Dance Team, an affiliated group that teaches Chinese tradition.

#

