Empower Poly Coalition to Host Earth Day Sustainability Fair April 22 at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO — The Empower Poly Coalition is pleased to announce that it will host its first Earth Day Sustainability Fair from 4 to 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 22, at Cal Poly.

The free event is open to the public and will showcase many of the sustainability-related initiatives happening on campus and in the San Luis Obispo community.

Featured activities will include educational booths, interactive demonstrations and discussions led by Cal Poly student groups and community organizations, live entertainment from local band Perch, and fair-trade certified refreshments.

The event will take place at the Multi-Activity Center, located behind the Recreation Center. The Cal Poly Center for Sustainability is collaborating with Empower Poly to coordinate the event.

More information is available on the Earth Day Sustainability Fair's Facebook event page: facebook.com/empower.poly.coalition; the Empower Poly Coalition website: empowerpoly.org/events/earth-day-flyer-and-information/; and the Center for Sustainability website: cfs.calpoly.edu/earth_day.html.

About Empower Poly Coalition

Empower Poly Coalition is an alliance of Cal Poly's sustainability-related organizations and student-run clubs with interest in environmental justice, human rights, and a healthy lifestyle. The organization works directly with Associated Students Inc. and Cal Poly facilities to make positive change in the community.
