Cal Poly ASI President Wins Award of Distinction from Interfraternity Conference

SAN LUIS OBISPO — Cal Poly Associated Students Inc. President Jason Colombini won an Undergraduate Award of Distinction from the North-American Interfraternity Conference for outstanding contributions.

Colombini was one of seven undergraduates from throughout the U.S. to win an Award of Distinction, given to acknowledge the hard work of individuals and chapters to improve the Greek experience across the nation.

"It is truly humbling to receive this award," said Colombini, who is from Linden, Calif. "I'm proud to be a member of the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity and am appreciative to it and the NIC for believing I deserve this award. I never do the work I do for the recognition, but it's nice to know when your hard work is appreciated. I hope that my service continues to benefit both the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity and the entire fraternity system."

The awards was presented at the organization's annual meeting April 6 in Atlanta. The North-American Interfraternity Conference is the trade association representing 75 national and international men's fraternities. This year the organization received a record number of nominations.

"We are proud to honor these individuals and chapters for their accomplishments," said Pete Smithhisler, NIC president and CEO. "These awards allow the NIC to recognize outstanding achievement, and this year we were fortunate to have so many nominations of students, alumni and chapters exemplifying the true purpose of fraternity."
