Another Type of Groove Celebrates Latino Heritage Month Oct. 1 at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO — The Cal Poly MultiCultural Center's Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry will celebrate Latino Heritage Month with poet David Romero at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 1, in Chumash Auditorium in the University Union.

Romero is a Mexican-American spoken word artist from Diamond Bar, Calif. His poetry deals with family, identity, social justice issues, and Latino culture. Romero has won the Uptown Poetry Slam tournament at the historic Green Mill in Chicago, the birthplace of slam poetry.

Another Type of Groove is a spoken-word poetry event held the first Wednesday of each month throughout the Cal Poly academic year. Each event includes a featured poet and an open mic opportunity for interested community members and students. The event is free and open to the public.
