Cal Poly's Annual CultureFest Set for Oct. 18

SAN LUIS OBISPO — Cal Poly's MultiCultural Center (MCC) will host CultureFest, an annual event showcasing the university's and San Luis Obispo community's cultural diversity, from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 18, on the Dexter Lawn on campus.

The annual festival celebrates and advocates cultural diversity through student displays, cultural performances, live music, food and more. This year's theme is "CultureLand: It's A Cultural World After All."

This free, family-friendly event will also feature a children's area with a petting zoo, bouncy house, and arts and crafts.

In honor of CultureFest, Cal Poly Arts is offering discounted $10 tickets to Cirque Zuma Zuma, an African Cirque de Soleil at the Performing Arts Center on Friday, Oct. 17. When buying tickets online, be sure to enter the discount code Culturefest.

Cal Poly's MCC supports and advocates for underrepresented students by honoring cultural expression, building community, and creating cross-cultural connections. The MCC provides a welcoming space for the Cal Poly community to promote diversity and work toward social justice.
