Cal Poly Music Department to Present Open House Recital April 18

SAN LUIS OBISPO — The Cal Poly Music Department will present an Open House Student Recital at 2:10 p.m. Saturday, April 18, in the Davidson Music Center (Building 45), Room 218, on campus.

The recital is one of many events scheduled for Cal Poly's 22nd annual Open House.

Student performers include Mario Ojeda on violin; Shaina Levin, Leah Ginsky and Alexis Rubell, voice; Andrew Arensman, French horn; Kelsey Beisecker, flute; and Danial Diaz, marimba.

The repertoire will be varied, illustrating different genres and styles. Several of the performers will present works that will also be on their upcoming senior recitals.

The recital is free and open to the public. It is sponsored by Cal Poly's College of Liberal Arts and the Music Department. For more information, call the Music Department at 805-756-2406.
