Cal Poly's Annual Student Exhibition Opens at University Art Gallery May 28

SAN LUIS OBISPO — Cal Poly's University Art Gallery will kick off an exhibit of diverse works by graduating art students with an opening reception at 5 p.m. Thursday, May 28. The exhibit, appropriately titled "Exit," runs through June 13.

Graduating seniors from studio, graphic design and photography concentrations will display their most accomplished and current work.

"This show allows gallery patrons to witness the culmination and refinement of the great variety of skills that are taught in the Cal Poly Art & Design Department," said University Art Gallery coordinator Garet Zook.

The University Art Gallery is open to the public from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. Admission is free. The gallery is located on the ground floor of the Dexter Building (No. 34) at Cal Poly.

About the Cal Poly University Art Gallery

The University Art Gallery is a venue for helping to nurture creativity, empathy, innovation, design skills, storytelling, and big-picture thinking by bringing bold thinkers, emerging and established artists, and creative professionals to campus. A venue for five exhibitions each academic year, the University Art Gallery serves Cal Poly and the surrounding area. The gallery showcases nationally and internationally known artists, as well as student, alumni and faculty artwork.
