

ABSTRACT
INVENTORY TRACKING SOFTWARE IMPROVEMENT PROJECT
Jacky Leung

Abstract

FanimeCon's Convention Operations department required standardized processes and controls for their inventory tracking software. On top of the current web application, new controls were put into place for checkout limitations. To allow for a continuous improvement effort, processes became standardized with a new graphical user interface where user input is recorded. These will provide processing times for further study in proposing redesigned layouts and more efficient processes.