Freshmen Year Block Scheduling

- Has been expanded to winter & spring terms of freshmen year.
- Winter & spring terms:
  - Includes only the courses listed under the freshmen year in the flowcharts.
  - Major and support classes (unless the department requests more).
  - A1 and A2 classes (Goal: Complete Area A during the first year).
- About 67% decline in numbers of freshmen in 0-11 units after the first round of registration.

Registration Changes to Waitlists & "Add/Drop Period"

RATIONALE

- "Crashing" phenomenon getting worse each quarter
- Large numbers of advising appointments around class availability concerns
- Lack of standard protocol for students to follow
- Students "shopping" for permission numbers. Some hold on to them.
- Some freshmen give up altogether
- "Crashing" concern comes up during recruitment events

Registration Changes to Waitlists & "Add/Drop Period"

NEW LIMIT - Waitlist unit limit will be reduced to 16 as of Fall 2018 registration (current limit is 99)

Waitlisted Units - End of Registration Appointments

Waitlisted Units - End of Open Enrollment

NEW PROCESS

- "Enroll from waitlist" process will run until the 4th day of classes
  - Waitlists will run twice a day – at noon and in the evening
  - If the class has waitlist – students cannot self-enroll. Vacated seats will be filled through the waitlist
  - If the class has no waitlist – students can self-enroll during the first 4 days; no permission number needed!
  - As of 5th day, permission number is required to enroll for every class
- Departments can still produce to permission numbers to
  - Override enrollment capacity
  - Override requisites
  - Caution: Permission numbers (that override enrollment capacity) given to a student to fill a vacated seat in class, if used after the waitlist run, might create unintended enrollment increase in your class
- As of 5th day, faculty will be provided with permission numbers
