STRATEGIC PLAN OPEN FORUM HELD YESTERDAY

 Provost William W. Durgin yesterday convened an open forum on Cal Poly’s Strategic Plan entitled New Strategic Directions. The strategic plan will guide the university’s development for the next ten years. Members from five working groups gave updates, reported information and gave recommendation on five key areas, including Interface Disciplines, Global Perspectives, Project Based Learning, Information Technology and Graduate Education. Students, faculty and staff attended the two-hour session in Chumash Auditorium. For more information about the Strategic Planning process, call academic affairs at ext. 2186 or visit http://www.academicaffairs.calpoly.edu/provost/strategic.html

CAMPUS HOSTS LIVE FEED OF MARS LANDING MAY 25
-------------------------------------
Come witness a momentous event at Cal Poly this month, when the Phoenix Mars Lander touches down on the Martian arctic to investigate water ice. Everyone is invited to watch a live broadcast of the landing, scheduled at 4:36 p.m., Sunday, May 25, in the Cal Poly Orfalea College of Business Rotunda Building, Room 213. Cal Poly Physics Professor John Keller will give a public talk on the mission prior to the landing. Keller is a planetary scientist who worked with the Mars Odyssey spacecraft, which discovered buried water ice on Mars. His talk is scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. For more information, visit http://calpolynews.calpoly.edu/news_releases/2008/May/mars-landing.html.

CHANGE IN CLASS SCHEDULE ON TUESDAY, MAY 27
-------------------------------------

Academic holidays are observed on two Mondays during Spring Quarter 2008—Cesar Chavez' birthday on March 31 and Memorial Day on May 26. In accordance with Academic Senate Resolution AS-635-05, in order to ensure that the quarter consists of a minimum of nine offerings of Monday schedules, we will observe a Monday schedule on Tuesday, May 27. The Tuesday schedule will not be offered on that day. Monday, May 26 is an Academic Holiday. On Tuesday May 27, Cal Poly will follow a Monday class schedule. The normal schedule will resume on Wednesday, May 28 with a regular Wednesday schedule.

Those offering instruction on Mondays or Tuesdays should pay special attention to this change and alert their students accordingly. For more information, visit http://www.calpoly.edu/~acadprog/acad_cal/2007_08cal.htm or contact Academic Programs at acadprog@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2246.

UU ADVISORY BOARD MEMBER APPLICATIONS DUE MAY 28
---------------------------------------------
The ASI University Union Advisory Board is seeking representatives from the College of Science and Mathematics and the College of Agriculture, Food and Environmental Sciences. The UUAB is the official advisory board to the University President and ASI Executive Director regarding UU fee funded facilities, programs, and services. Membership on the UUAB provides a “front row seat” for experiencing issues involved with the University Union, Recreation Center and Sports Complex operations.

If faculty and staff know of students interested in learning problem solving skills, multi-million dollar budgeting, and facility master planning, direct them to the ASI Student Government Office, University Union, Room 202, for an application. A letter of recommendation from faculty or staff is recommended, but not required. Applications are due to the ASI Student Government Office by Wednesday, May 28, 5 p.m.
