Directory

The Directory Section is a continuing feature of E&A. It is a source of information on groups and periodicals concerned with ethical questions about treatment of non-humans. The groups and periodicals themselves provide the information, subject to space limitations and minor editing by the E&A staff. The policy of the Directory is one of maximum inclusiveness, i.e., a submitted listing for a group or periodical will be included unless it is wholly irrelevant, manifestly libellous, or clearly pornographic. It is hoped that local, state, provincial, regional, national and international groups of all sorts will submit listings. To obtain a listing form for your organization, or to recommend that another group be listed, contact the SSEA office.

Periodicals

THE BEAST
2 Blenheim Crescent
London W11 1MY
ENGLAND

THE BEAST is a magazine designed for the 1980s providing news and feature coverage of three major movements: animal liberation, anti-nuclear, ecopolitics. We feature hard-hitting journalism from a mixture of professional writers and activists, plus interviews, book extracts, reviews of books, films, plays and TV programs. Every issue carries our international NETWORK listing of active groups, updated every issue. Past issues have had contributions from Peter Singer, Henry Spira, Brigid Brophy, Maureen Duffy, Lyall Watson, William R. Curtsinger, James Mason, E.P. Thompson and many more. Founded without capital, THE BEAST grew from the sales of a single badge and survives on its mail order business, its advertising and the support of its readers. It is an independent magazine, owned and published by the group of writers and artists who produce it.

Quarterly: $9p. USA subscriptions: $10 (surface mail), $15 (Air Mail).

MARINE MAMMAL NEWS
Nautilus Press
1056 National Press Building
Washington, DC 20045

MARINE MAMMAL NEWS is published monthly by Nautilus Press, Inc. It offers timely coverage of efforts by the federal, international and private sectors to manage, conserve and protect marine mammal species. Subscription: $47.50 a year.

COMPASSION
234 Fifth Avenue
New York, NY 10001

COMPASSION is an independent newsletter, unconnected with any group or movement but dedicated to the advocacy of animal rights in the fullest sense and to the reporting of developments related to that goal. Principal objectives are (1) to bring the word of animal rights to the multitudes "out there" who are only dimly if at all, aware of the issue; (2) to encourage unity of viewpoint and action among animal rights groups. Tax-exempt status has not been sought in order to retain fullest freedom of expression. The editor-publisher, Mortimer Frankel, is a veteran journalist, medical writer and animal rights advocate.

Published 13 times a year: 12 monthly 4-page issues plus three 2-page Special Bulletin issues. $10 a year, seniors and students, $7.50.
