STUDENT BODY MOURNS LOST MEMBER

Donald Manual House, a member of the Class of 1926, was killed in an automobile accident at his home, February 18, 1926. Donald was liked by all the students here and many mourn his sudden loss.

The funeral was held at the Catholic Church Saturday morning, with Father Chasen officiating. The bearers were Patrick Hughes, Arthur Lima, Charles Lamas, Harvey Lutzius, Joseph Gillig. These boys were all classmates and close friends of Donald.

Donald was an active member in his class and took a great interest in the school. He was buried in his Polytechnic uniform which speaks will of his love for his school. The student body wishes to express their greatest sympathy to his parents and relatives.

Valentine Party

Aren't we got fun! That's the Polytechnic thought on February 12 when the Sophomores and Seniors gave a Valentine Dance.

Valentine motif was carried out to the 7 and everyone had a good time. The decoration committee was headed by Fred Louis who with his usual artfulness did his job well. Brown's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

Refreshments were served consisting of fancy sandwiches and punch.

Dexter Maxwell and Jerrine Simpson were the official host and hostess of the evening, which were enjoyed by all who were present.

George Costa carried a portly shushing and walked with a very dignified air, but then he is the type of a man who lets you know he is not wealthy.

Orvis Hotchkiss was attired as a Chinese native but his face was his downfall. Many wondered what it was that Orvis had on the back of his shirt. A number of guesses but it still remains a mystery. His derby and his costume was slightly chilly though.

Thornton would have made a good actor, he was dressed as they dressed many years ago in Rome. Anyone would have taken him for Julius Caesar. He was dressed as a rip roaring westerner and everything. The thing that caught the greatest amount of attention was the horse. He was dressed as a humorous half horse in front of the auditorium.

The next one was Elmer Harper. He was dressed as a rip roaring westerner and everything. The thing that caught the greatest amount of attention was the horse. He was dressed as a humorous half horse in front of the auditorium.

Fred Graves, the little rosy cheeked tightwad, was1 was attired as a US Army Packer. He even said he could sell five dollar gold pieces for five cents, but he wasn't doing it right then. He reports that the number Is limited.

THE POLYGRAM

DID YOU JUST PASS?
The first semester is over and you all have your grades to show what you have done. Many of you thought you should have higher grades, while some of you few thought you were surprised at the high grade you received.

In the next page you see two columns. One is marked "The polygram." If you are working or not. If you are books, clothes, pay for your board plotted, and are often late to classes, you change. This is not a grade column. This other column is marked "The Polygraph." If you have your real grade, but it is not a transcript of your "effort." If you put the effort into a column of facts what is reported unless it is entirely over your head; but you can't write it down as there is the case.

In history you get a three in effort and a four in accomplishment. This shows that you put forth a great deal of effort. Using the same ratio, if you get a three here, you might reduce your four to a six.

POTTY CHATTER
Look out, shucks, you will be cut out if you don't. We have a new shiek blossoming in our midst. He is in the person of Al Hedstrom. I suppose all of you saw how he had a pull with all the girls at the Valentine's dance. And then when he showed the marks across the hall his girls lit up and he dashed madly across to find out that the couple he was chasing was now on the other side. Al was finally successful, but he surely did need more traveling before he was.

Chester Davis was said as soon as he was out of dances he would announce a tag dance. Gee, Chester, you sure must have a hard time getting a dance.

Chester Davis is a regular tight wad; he won't give you a slice of candy when she wants it.

It isn't amazing how they study hall gets as soon as Captain Diesel steps outside. Students, you are there to work and if you don't want to work, either keep out or get outside. Some of those there want to work and they can't get anything done with a lot of noise going on around them.

Jack came awfully near being successful in operetta practice the other night. Ruth just saved her voice in time. Aaw, Brut, why be so bashful! the rest of us will turn our heads.

Jack Rollins has been to San Francisco for a few days and he seems to be all smashed about some business. We wonder what it is; but Jack is a married man, isn't he.

Bob Bitterman is developing an iron man. He has got up several nervous moments and he put his arm around Shirley in operetta practice. Keep it up Bob, you will learn how to make a man follow you all to day.

We have all noticed a change in Thorpe since he has dropped his blonde and is going with some other Hi School Co-ed. Watch your step love; this new Co-ed is somestepper.

Thorpe, Damarest, and this new "Navy Kid" Charles, certainly keep the mud hot between here and Pismo and Poly.

Jimmie Simpson says that somebody knows anything about him and that he doesn't know why his name is in the Broad Sheet; but just ask him if his girl in Pismo and what his teacher friend in the Brown Joe knows why he has never seen her.

Charlie Darielton is another young chap that the Monday and Tuesday didn't get a whack at, but he will have to watch out from now on. There doesn't seem to be enough "attraction" in this town, or he makes a visit to Los Angeles every once in a while.

The girls in gardening are afraid they are going to lose those "whole" flowers because there was such a help to them. Hottest of the days and they took them out and did away with the heavy flower pots, and clean the dirt from the walks with water, getting real playfull at times and turning the water on the female.

DORM DOINGS
It isn't going to rain no more.

After a very close game for his home Saturday 13. Wat. is now looking for a room mate and a wrestling champ.

On account of the rainy days the pool table in the day room has been kept very busy.

Last week a person by the name of Janet made his presence in the dorm.

Baseball practice hasn't been resumed after rain.

A bunch of valentines made their appearance around the dorm last Sunday. Many were disappointed when they found no one. If we knew who, some one-sels would have the school is greatly improved.

But Purdy is now a member of the Creamery Gang.

One evening while in "Sparks' room Bill Lee said, "There is one girl in this school I believe I could learn to love," and immediately wanted to know who it was. Bill answered with a moment of hesitation, "May Hughes."

Bound Loves ended. Ask Luton for particulars.

It seems that only Poly students come all the way from Pismo. They go to see our game play and then go back in the cold. While some of the Dorm boys are too lazy to walk downtown to see the team play. Come out boys let's show a little school spirit.

Mary must like a mustache because White has been seen putting hair toni- on his upper lip. He has been seen with a mustache for about three years ago. He states that he is a gardener. But nevertheless we all feel that he will be terribly missed.

It doesn't seem as though Wilbur Miller faced very well in his new venture which was brought into light in the intake. Immediately wanted to know who it was. Bill answered with a moment of hesitation, "May Hughes."

Prescott Reed wrote to a college professor to ask, "Why does my girl class her eyes when I kiss her?" He received the following reply: "If you will send me your photograph I may be able to tell you.

Miss Jordan: If you don't keep quiet, some of you will get a glimpse of your card.

Captain Denver: Who gave you those black eyes, Davidson?
Davidson: Nobody gave them to me. I had to fight for them both.
Gredit: Yes Watson's an inveterate poker player.
Black: How about it?
Gredit: Didn't you ever notice how be shuffle when he walks?
Miller is a blockhead—naturally; he's a post-graduate.

Sherry Sterling is a B. V. D. girl.
Born Very Dumb.

Dexter: You know, I got drunk on water last summer.

"I shall now tackle the Ivories," said Thornton Lee, as he fingered a toothbrush.
Barbon: There's Jep.
Dex: No, "tain't.
Barbon: That's his shoes, hat and gloves.
Dex: Then it's Keeno, his roommate.
Thorpe: Is your girl really a shocking dancer?
Maxwell: She sure is a live wire.

"Isn't it strange, Jack that this beautiful garden should smell of ham?"
Maxwell: She's sure a live wire.

"John, do be careful of your language," said Louie Howley, "don't let me hear you say 'ain't again."

Bill: I have a cold or something in my head.
Mary: Undoubtedly a cold.

Arthur: My, but that candy smells good.
K. McHale: You bet it does: let's stop and smell it a while.
Orie: I love you.
Gracie: So do I.

Aren't it strange, Jack that this beautiful garden should smell of ham?
"You must remember, Ruth, that we are in the Sandwich Islands."
Mr. August: Why didn't you filter this?
Roy Bradley: I didn't think it would smell of ham.

"Oh gee!" said John Ivan, "ain't this a bee of a plane?"
"John, do be careful of your language," said Louie Howley, "don't let me hear you say 'ain't again."

Bill: I have a cold or something in my head.
Mary: Undoubtedly a cold.

Poly at Santa Maria

The Poly team went to Santa Maria last Saturday night for a return game with the Santa Maria Legion, and proceeded to win by the score of 27-17.

The Legion team showed more pot and fight in this game and we had to work comparatively hard to win.

The Legion team were only one point behind at the half, but the Poly team broke away in the second half and put the game out of reach.

The starting line-up included: Traver,

Spindola, Lee, Hughaton and Varian.

The starting lineup included: Traver,

Spindola, Lee, Hughaton and Varian.

The Poly Downs Legion

The Santa Maria Legion quintet

went down to defeat last Wednesday to the tune of 46-39. The Legion has been unable to find any real opposition anywhere around here, but they got more than enough when they met the Poly five.

Coach Agosti started Lumley, Trever, Lee, Hughaton and Varian. The game was kind of slow in the first half and the Poly supporters were beginning to look doubtful. But in the second half they started off with a bang and kept on steady in the lead. Santa Maria only scored two baskets in the second half which speaks well for the Poly defense.

Spindola went in for Traver and played a good game, shooting them in from anywhere. Miller went in for Hughaton.

There was a fair crowd out to the game, while the band was out in full strength. Mayor Anholm of the High School refereed the game.

Handball

The handball tournament is just about over with the Juniors as good as having it won. No matter if they lose the rest of the games they will win. The Juniors have been out every noon and have played some good handball. The other classes have quite a few games by not turning up when it was time to play. In the future let's play more hard spirit by turning out for these inter-class games.

Senior Rifle Shoot

The Senior will hold their preliminary rifle shoot on the campus tonight, providing weather permits.

It is expected that they will accept thePoly team and we should be proud of them for the part they have played in the school at the same time.

Interclass Basketball

The preliminary games of the inter-class basketball were held on Monday afternoon at the Winter Garden.

There was a large crowd present and everyone enjoyed the games. The Junior team had an easy win over the Sophomores down. The Sophs didn't even have enough out for a team, but they borrowed a player.

The Fresh played a good game under Sparks, their captain, and the crowd was on their side, which mainly

Consisted of Freshmen and other

Sophomores. Simpson provided a great deal of entertainment for the spectators.

The real game was between the Juniors and Seniors. The Seniors triumphed the Juniors to the tune of 30-16. The Juniors had a good team and the Seniors had to work for every point.

The Senior team was made up of

Lumley, Dave, Lee, Hughaton, Mc-

Kee and Montana. The Sophomores used quite a few men—Harper, Traver,

Spindola, Lee, Hughaton and Varian.

The Sophs' team was made up of

Harry, Bobbi, Sparrow, Bev, Willard,

Anna, B. Humphries and Bobbi.

Simpson provided a great deal of entertainment for the spectators.
