CHASE HALL TO OPEN TODAY

WHAT HO!

Chase Hall, the new dormitory, will be opened to the public this Friday afternoon, January 20. In a speech by Professor C. J. Desai, the dormitory will be dedicated by the Reverend C. C. Deuel, president of the university.

Karl-Keen Passages Inspection

The Karl-Keen monographs undergoing repair in the safe shop were inspected and approved by Richard L. Deuel, Jr., of the intellectual property office. The Karl-Keen Passages will be opened today.

CIRCUS TO ARRIVE

Mark! Mark! The bears are back! The circus is coming to town! It is breezy. And some goats have been seen.

Book-"P" members present unusual thrill and a snowbound by noise in the land of "cinnamon" during the holiday season. The members of the book-"P" crew will continue their travels this month, making plans to return to school in February.

New Double Quartette

The new musical group consists of two quartettes, one composed of female students and the other of male students. The female group will perform at the next concert, while the male group will perform at the following concert.

Human Body is Valued

Materially speaking, life is very cheap. The chemical compounds in the human body can be bought at any cost. However, the human body can be bought at any cost.
LET'S BE MEN
"The faculty will please rise and pass." (Pause while the faculty files out the doors.) "First row rise and pass." Such is the proceeding throughout the whole of the assembly. It is exactly the same manner in which the elementary schools and kindergartens are dismissed.

The California Polytechnic is a combined junior college and high school, yet thanks to the action of the majority, the minority has to suffer the humiliation of being "LED OUT."

If Captain Diesel should ever forget to take charge of the dismissal, the result would be tragic. The minute assembly would be over practically everyone would swoop out of his seat and join the "thundering herd" in a mad rush for the exits. In the chaos and panic that would ensue, half the faculty and some of the students would be trampled to death.

Visitors, speakers and what-not, laugh up their sleeves and stickers as they watch the quaint and humiliating manner in which the student body is dismissed.

For some of these days the "majority" will outline their "playful" manners and allow the faculty to install a method of dismissal worthy of junior college and high school students.

WHO WILL BE OUR NEXT PRESIDENT?
Nominations for president and vice-president of the student assembly for the spring semester will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Section 2, Article III, of the By-Laws of the Associated Students of the 7th California Polytechnic provides that "The nominations for president and vice-president shall be held six weeks before the meeting at which the nominations shall be by ballot. Nominations for all offices shall be made at least two weeks before the election."

The president-elect will service one semester term. The cheer leader and two students of the Board of Athletic Control shall serve the full year. There is little time left, therefore, before the nominations will be held! Consider what man will best serve as student president. The need is great for progressive, energetic, and wide-awake men.

A. K. M.
A certain woman we know sent out invitations to a party and said if she didn't get any confirmations, she would go ahead and give the party anyway. Luckily, she got confirmations right on time and the party went off splendidly.

The builder lifted his old gray head—his head, I mean. He didn't actually have a head, but he looked as though he did. He was a very old man, with a long white beard that reached to his shoulders. His eyes were deep-set and kindly.

Bob Linley was with a party of friends on a fishing trip and around midnight they came upon a big fish that naturally ran on big fish and who had caught them. Bob Linley was the captain and he had a trusty assistant who was very good at what he did.

Bob Linley: Well, we've got 'em. Let's go home.

Captain: Yes, sir. I think we've caught enough.

Bob Linley: Yes, I agree. Let's head back to shore.

Captain: Agreed. I think it's time to leave.

Bob Linley: But don't forget to leave the tackle in the boat. We'll need it for the next trip.

Captain: Of course, sir. I'll see to it.

Bob Linley: Good. Now, let's get out of here.

Captain: Right. I'll take the wheel.

Bob Linley: Fine. I'll go below and catch some sleep.

Captain: Okay. I'll see you in the morning.

Captain: Goodnight, sir.

Bob Linley got into the cabin and closed the door behind him. He lay down on his cot and sighed with relief. He had been working very hard all day and was looking forward to a good night's sleep.

Captain: Well, it looks like another successful trip.

Bob Linley: I think so. We caught a lot of fish.

Captain: Yes, and we didn't even take any time off.

Bob Linley: That's right. We were too busy catching fish.

Captain: Well, I'm glad we did. It's been a good day.

Bob Linley: Yes, it has. I think we've earned a good night's sleep.

Captain: Agreed. I'm going to go to bed.

Bob Linley: Okay. I'll see you in the morning.

Captain: Goodnight, sir.

Bob Linley: Goodnight.

The two men went to bed and slept soundly until morning.

Next week will see the opening of the new theater in town. It is a splendid building with all the latest features. The interior is decorated in the finest materials and the seats are comfortable and ample in number.

The manager of the theater is a very able man and he has promised to give the people of this town a first-class show. He has already booked some of the best acts in the country and the program will be a good one.

Bob Linley was on the dock when the train came in. He had been watching for it all morning and was very pleased to see it arrive.

Bob Linley: Well, it's here at last.

Captain: Yes, sir. The train is here.

Bob Linley: Good. I'll go down and see if I can find some luggage.

Captain: I'll go with you.

Bob Linley: No, you stay here. I'll be back in a moment.

The man got off the train and started to search for his luggage. After a few minutes, he returned to the dock.

Bob Linley: I couldn't find any luggage.

Captain: I'm sure you didn't. You must have missed it.

Bob Linley: No, I didn't. I looked everywhere.

Captain: Perhaps it's been loaded on the wrong train.

Polytechnic Cagers Meet Moran Tonight

Mustangs vs. Moran In First California Tournament Game

Although it is still early in the season, the Polytechnic Mustangs will meet in a first tournament game tonight in a series of three games two nights running with Moran and one on Moran's. The games scheduled for this evening are the Moran game and Poly-Hi game on Thursday night in a series of three games two nights running.

Moran has a slight edge over the Polytechnic Mustangs in their efforts to challenge their opponents on the small end of a 35-30 score. During the first half, the Mustangs led 18-12 in the but broke away, and ended the first half with a score of 30-18 favor of Moran. During the second half, Coach Frank Carroll's boys were more than a match for the Mustangs. The Mustangs played the second half of the final game of University scoring in both the second half and second final game of University scoring.

The Mustangs led a line-up including forwards Adam, K. Adams, C. Dooley, B. Oakes, and S. Lehigh. Coach Carroll completed four shoots.

Fifteen Men Picked For Poly Team

The second elimination match for Polytechnic students participating in the Mustangs meet Moran at Poly, Poly's C. C. T. Intercollegiate Tournament ends on Saturday, January 12. At the close of the main fifteen men with the highest score are selected to consider to make up the California Polytechnic team. The team will then play the matches held on January 7th. The three main fifteen men were listed as follows:

Lee Buerger, Robert Hill, Carl Johnson, E. H. Johnson, and seven others. Coach Earvin had the team at the head of the list with the total score of 51. Coach Earvin had the team at the head of the list with the total score of 51.

Poly Cagers Take Santa Maria Jay Cece

After a comparatively slow start, the Mustangs hit their stride against the Santa Maria Jay Cece and Poly Hi. The Poly Mustangs took the lead with 11 points in the scoring end, and Poly's C. C. T. Intercollegiate Tournament ends on Saturday, January 12. At the close of the main fifteen men with the highest score are selected to consider to make up the California Polytechnic team. Those who played for Poly were: Varvaras, McLean, Peters, G. H. Grath, Oliver, Vandam, Wallace, and Carl. Carroll and Grath were the two high-point men, each completing eight throws.

The Mustangs were quieter and better players, but they had the greater scoring edge, which was forty-three to twenty-seven.

During the first half, the Mustangs were quiet and better players, but they had the greater scoring edge, which was forty-three to twenty-seven.

The Mustangs needed a slight advantage or the unaided indication to throw the basket. The offense would break and the defense would be made. This will be a good game out of what the Mustangs had to offer. The manager was straight forward, proved to be the greatest danger of the game. His defense was straight forward, proved to be the greatest danger of the game.

The line-up was:

Mustangs Split With Topeka

The Mustangs dropped their second, 825 to 20, a game played at T. C. Carroll, played a good game, defeating the Topeka Gauchos in the second half. The Mustangs hit their stride against the Topeka Gauchos and seemed to be able to score at will during the first few minutes of the second half.

The line-up was:

Mustangs—Phillips, Oakes, Lehigh, Lehigh, and Van Dam.

Vandam, G., earlywine, Vandam, Vinson, and Carlin were again strengthened when Borah sank buckets from all angles. The second string trounced the Greyhound Gauchos by a score of 20 to 81 in the second half. The Mustangs hit their stride against the Topeka Gauchos and seemed to be able to score at will during the first few minutes of the second half.
