COHEN HEADS "EL MUSTANG"

Tom McGrath

Resigns As Editor of Poly Paper

Because of the great amount of time that will be needed to work on the Poly yearbook, Tom McGrath has resigned as editor-in-chief of the Mustangs. The student body and faculty will miss his leadership and ideas, but we are confident that the paper will continue to be the best it has been in the past years. The incoming editor is Joel Cohen, who will assume his new duties in the fall. We wish him the best of luck in his new position.

Resigning Editor

Student Store

Fills Needs

To the continued and befuddled income from the Mustangs, we must now look to the Student Store to meet the needs of the students. The store is open every morning and evening, with a variety of items available for purchase, including stationery, textbooks, and snacks. The store is well-stocked and staffed by enthusiastic workers, ensuring a pleasant shopping experience for all.

Winemer Welcomes Students

Welcome freshmen and other new students to the Poly family! We hope you enjoy your time here and make the most of all that Poly has to offer. You will find a warm and supportive community here, and we look forward to welcoming you to the Mustang family.

Wineber Welcomes Students

To Initiate

Dinner Dance To Honor New Men

The Alpha Gamma Spelun fraternity will hold its formal initiation this evening in room one of the university. All members of the fraternity will take the pledge and will swear the total active membership to secrecy. On Saturday evening there will be a dinner dance given at the Gold Dragon Club in honor of the new members. According to advance reservations there will be some twenty couples present at the gala event.

When asked about the fraternity's standards, President of the Alpha Gamma, Tom McGrath, said that it was formed by the original class of 1937. At that time it was faced with the need to establish a pre-eminent organization on the campus. It was found that only one must be a registered student at the Cal State Polytechnic College and majoring in foreign language, with the ability to attend evening classes. In addition, an outstanding voice of the new members must be maintained.

Collegians Stage

First "39" Dance

Last Friday night the Collegians of Cal Poly held their first dance of the year. The dance was a grand success and the boys and girls arrived en masse. As usual, the program was well planned and the music was delightful. The dance was held in the university gym and the music was provided by the university orchestra. The evening concluded with a grand finale, and all present were left in high spirits.

STATEMENTS BY TOOKS THAT BE

All students---who wish to graduate, is the plan for graduation this year. The university will hold a commencement ceremony this year, and all students are encouraged to attend. The ceremony will be held in the university gymnasium and will feature a variety of speakers and musical performers.

An assembly will be held the Sunday after the commencement ceremony, and all members are encouraged to attend. The assembly will feature a guest speaker who will address the students on the importance of higher education and the value of a college degree.
EL MUSTANG
EL MUSTANG
Carroll, Polytechnic

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY
Carroll Polytechnic Student Body

THE SANDS OF TIME

At the start of every year it is the custom to make resolutions for the new year. Sometimes these improvements are carried out and much good is accomplished, but more often they are soon forgotten and their creators are back in the same rut that they have resolved to forsake. Why is it that we resolve to change our habits? Perhaps it is because we do not find, what we think, a better way of doing things.

If we took an inventory of 1938 we would probably find, among our habits, many that are not in line with the new year's resolution of 1939. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit.

It was my arrival on the second day of the month that I left work the first day. This man was a sonate, perhaps one of the most brilliant men of all time, but he had to leave because of his conditions. It is not always possible to be thankful that today we Americans are allowed to think and speak as we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit.

The words, "For score and seven years ago," bring to mind a truly great man, produced by our country, this man. Absolutely, it is a shock to me after I have read the way that this one quotation adequately describes his entire life—The right of all supersedes all rights. Is there anyone who would deny a man that gave his life for this cause, a place in the millions of men that have come and gone there have not found, what we think, a better way of doing things.

If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit.

I never can fool myself, and so, I have no country that I can call home, I have no family and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit. If we resolved to defend this right in the face of all its enemies, and there are many who would take it away from us, we see fit.

Our President, Community Phythian, will deliver an address to the rush on his brief wait here. Under discussion at the first meeting of the dramatic society was the question, "Which would you prefer, a party which can be held on a Wednesday or a party which can be held on a Monday?" A member of the club will be held on Jan. 15 at 9 p.m.

That Gift...

Can be easily found in the large assortment of Popular Gifts at City Pharmacy

Your Prescription Druggist

Under the Clock Tower

Cuba City

Sandwiches

For That "Snack" At Noon

Try Our

Toasted Cheese

Chili and Tamales

El Corral
POLY STOPS VIKINGS 44-41 IN CLOSE FOUGHT GAME

California Polytechnic basketball team is rounding out some semblance of form after a slow start, as the fire of last years equals is sparking in like fashion for a lemon season. Their 44-41 win against the visiting, Poly does not deserve to win on a team on January 19, while its title on the road Thursday night.

While the Mustangs come back into the fold, the lead they held till the summit passed. Octagon action.

In a nip and tuck skirmish which remained undecided until the closing moments of play, California Polytechnic cesare team, strong enough to take and retain the lead till the last second of the game, passed into a late lead which held to the court fell down.

After a surprising performance in the early part, Poly was slowly whittled by the deadly center court shooting of Arlis, tricky Vicking forward to trail at the half 20-17.

The Mustangs came back in the second half to steadily pare down the margin and pass into a late lead which held to the court fell down.

Despite nearsighted infiltrating the Mustang attack had moments of brilliance, and at times put up a successful defense. Yerxa Poly, to the scoring honors of the evening with sixteen figures, dropped the ball which was reviled the hook for twenty.

Tentative Varsity Basketball Schedule

Jan. 13 Univ. of Mary

Here

Jan. 15 Bakkefield JC

There

Jan. 16 Chico State College

Here

Jan. 9 Bakersfield JC

Here

Jan. 20 House of David

Here

Jan. 27 Bakkefield JC

There

Jan. 20 Chico State College

Here

Jan. 21 House of David

There

Jan. 24 Poly

Here

Jan. 27 Bakkefield JC

There

Jan. 17 Chico State College

Here

Jan. 24 Poly

There

In close fought game January 16 the House of David team to our mind. The game was a showcase of brilliance, and at times put up a color­ful climax. The Mustangs showed up well in practice settings and their experience has given valuable and entertaining teams.

On an empty stomach? Of course not! Right where the action is! The Group is a highly professional organization, taking the lead. "Just one more kiss, darling." And January 18 the team plays.....

Jan. 30 Chico State College

Here

Jan. 18 Broadway Champs

Here

Jan. 19 Bakersfield JC

There

Jan. 22 Bakkefield JC

There

Jan. 20 Broadway Champs

There

Jan. 17 B.E.D.C.

Here

Jan. 24 Bakkefield JC

Here

Page Three
CAPERS FROM OTHER CAMPUS

A CERTAIN LOTOLYA

Alumni was doing just great glob when two men in electric engr on the campus had on several occasions tried to copy the campus, instead, they showed their hands comfortably. At the end of the week, the alumni was sign the火花 they had copied, accurately to be flip­ off with the name of Jesus Christ for he had come from an institution where the emphasis was highest.

Bob Johnson, sportswear, promised to be more reverent the next time he is at the alumni meeting, to which he was invited by a student who had observed the reverent action of Bob in the past.

Between The Banks

"A fine of quite some proportions."

No one understands anything about it! Ain't it the truth?

At THE GAMBLERS DEN:

"What you got?"

"Nothing!"

"Nothing!"

"Nothing!"

"You also do. How come you so fast?"

THE OFFICIAL ENVELOPMENT

Of California Polytechnic school is life and still standing.

WE THINK THAT

There would be an interest of Poly students in the Registered College Thunberry organization, the only national black clubs club in America. The student belonging has a big striker to put his registration card to prove his merit to a commodity that may offer a lift. The card waives the drivers liability in case of accident and is registered with the government at the insurance office.

In case any Poly student wish to join the organization, get in contact with the writer.

Notes on the Grads

Homer Hodges, class of 1910, is doing very much to hear some of his old classmates. Mainly Edward C. W. B. Voll, Harold Herold, Harold "Tree" Lloyd Russell, Helen Lewis, Gertrude Day, Ellen Hughes, and Howard Delancy. Hodges himself is a deputy sheriff of Los Angeles county. He is out of west Los Angeles station in a two way radio police car. His address is 6594 Walker Ave, Bell, Calif.

Cec A. Burk, 1923, is managing an almond and walnut orchard near Ripon, Calif. His address is Box 512, Ripon, Calif.

Frank Heggard, 1923, is managing a dairy farm near Santa Rosa, Calif.

Mrs. Florence McOah, 1907, is doing farm work at Slml, Calif.

Friable Brown, 1888, is working in the Santa Maria Airports.

Frank Pipke, 1923, is working on the farm project.

Marvin Daniels, 1923, is farming at Willows, Calif.

Bill Halpintha, 1923, is employed at the University of California.

Ben Guernary, 1923, is working for the Santa Maria Airports.

Joe Becker, 1924, is working for the San Joaquin Winery.

Ben Hodges, 1838, is doing farm work at Slml, Calif.

The name of the ranch is, "Pat." In it, he is doing air conditioning of the class of 1888, is superintendent of the San Joaquin Winery and Distillery.

Marvin A. Guernary, 1923, is a ranch foreman at Knights Landing, Calif.

Frisbie Brown, 1923, is doing farm work at Bim, Calif.

Hans Frenkman, 1923, is raising poultry in Petaluma, Calif.

Dale Rall, 1924, is employed at the Lockheed Aircraft factory in Burbank.

Bill Sheidman is employed at Los Angeles Air Terminal, Burbank.

Harold Oyster, 1923, is working for Northwestern Airlines at San Paul.

Buck was previously with Lutheran D. C. Walke is working for the Western Air Terminal, Burbank. Emery D. Ford is doing draft­ work in magagine dept 10 E Co., Sacramento.

Chief at Chico.

Alumni? If you have lost the address of some of your former class-mates, and would like to know what they are doing, write in care of El Mustang, and we will do our best to locate them.

If any of you should know the whereabouts of some former class-mates of yours, we would appreciate it if you would drop a card telling us what they are doing, and where they live.