Rose Float Contest to Seek Ideas for 2010
The Rose Float Program is holding a contest to gather design ideas for its 2010 Rose Parade float entry. The theme of the next Tournament of Roses Parade is “2010: A Cut Above the Rest.” The concept contest is open to everyone and the winning entry will be used for the 2010 Cal Poly float. The contest winner will receive $1,000, or two tickets to the 2010 Rose Bowl Game in Pasadena and four tickets to the Rose Parade.

In the event of multiple winners, the cash value will be split equally. Concepts must be submitted as a sketch or design, and should include the name, phone number and e-mail address of the person entering the concept, written neatly on the back of the entry. Entries with identifying marks on the front cannot be accepted. The maximum entry size is 18 x 24 inches. Entries are due by 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 6, and should be submitted to the University Union Epicenter. All entries become the property of the Cal Poly Rose Float Program and will not be returned. For more information, call ext. 6-1182 or visit www.asi.calpoly.edu/rosefloat.
