A veteran is not eligible for readjustment allowances for unemployment if he is receiving subsistence allowances for education or training under the act, or is not available for suitable work, Mr. Bryant said.

"This means," he explained, "that in between school terms and during vacation periods, veterans should make sure the other federal government subsistence allowance payments have been discontinued before claiming readjustment allowances.

"Further, the veteran who is planning merely to rest and play between school terms is not eligible for readjustment allowances. Among other things, he must be available for employment and willing to accept a suitable job during each period for which he claims a readjustment allowance.

The law provides that further rights to readjustment allowances shall be forfeited by a veteran who knowingly accepts an allowance to which he is not entitled. In addition, misrepresentation or misclassification by the veteran is punishable by fines and prison sentences.

The Cal Poly Mustangs closed the current season with a blaze of glory by taking Fresno to the cleaners, Saturday, 0-8, in Fresno. It was Don Crawford again, as he scattered 7 hitless through the nine innings.

Poly started the ball rolling by garnering a run in the first inning when Fraser got life, stole second, and was sacrificed to third by Frasier. Then "Pewee" stole the act again by pilfering home plate. The runner was safe and Fresno came right back in the second inning to tie up the ball game on a hit by Rogers and an error by Fisher. In the third inning Fresno scored 2 runs and came back again in the fourth with 3 more runs. This made the score 5-1 Poly.

Lorker held the Mustangs scoreless until the big eighth inning when they piled up 4 runs to go ahead 6-5, where they stayed the rest of the game. Crawford led off with a single, was forced out by Fraser, who stole second on the first pitch. Merv Neil singled infield and Haas got an "Annie Oakley" to load the bags. "Pinky" Bokker then came to bat and hit a line drive to left which brought in two more runs. The ball was labeled a home run, but hit an air pocket and dropped for a double. Big, bad Bob Bennett came to bat and singled sharply to left field bringing in Haas and Bokker to put the Mustangs ahead 8-1. After the fourth inning, Crawford held the boys from Fresno to hits and had complete control of the situation from then on. Bennett and all poly's batters failed to get a hit until the eighth. Crawford each got two hits at the plate for Poly.

In the first game of the series, played Friday afternoon, the "Mustangs" were edged out 15-14 in 11 innings, the game being brought to a "lymphonic" Big Kaff Fraud started on the mound for the Matcmen and pitched eight and one third innings, when Williams came in to relieve him in time to receive credit for the loss. Lack of support proved fatal to Poly as they went down to defeat before the slants of Fresno's star chucker, Smith, 10-6.

Of the two leagues formed, the Mustang and the Pony league, both games Monday featured the Mustang league. Crops took on the Poly boys and walked them by the score of 18-10.

FOOTBALL

By Joe Griffin

Football season is off to a successful start. The Mustangs will try to get on a table and finish the argument with the flat statement that as far as this college is concerned, we are in. Moving to the top of the list for the fall would certainly that come next year with the football team, boxing team, and the basketball team. We will find that Cal Poly will be a hard outfit to stop, in any conference.

On the surface I agree with these people. It all looks wonderful on paper. The only catch is this, to come out a winner you must have manpower, the individuals to perform. From experience, my opinion here at Poly things were really rough as far as grades went but I have a couple of letters I will send that next fall most of the fellows will be back and ready to play ball again. This is the maximum number of letter I will send to Fresno State but I feel that I came to Poly to do, get an education and get out of school. Between the two of us, isn't a man walking around this campus of Cal Poly that can't be much better. The college would benefit as far as prestige in the next year would have been one of the best on the coast.

I feel sure that if we could get a few of these problems settled once and for all, it would be reflected in the band of ball that is being played, we wouldn't lose good athletes unless we have a change of heart, and the grades would be much better. The college would benefit as far as prestige goes and if man himself would be able to cope with the occupation for which he was trained.

FORGOTTEN MAN ...

Whenever a group of students get together for a bull session, the conversation generally moves around to women, to the past week end, and finally to the prowess of Cal Poly in athletics. Before long the Mustangs will find that Cal Poly will be a hard outfit to stop, in any conference.

VOTE YES

Next Thursday the students of California State Polytechnic College will vote on an issue that is of great importance to them. The issue is the question of whether to ratify the newly proposed Constitution or to reject that document.

The editor of El Mustang has some very definite convictions as to what the students believe. The editor feels that the situation is different. El Mustang is very much in favor of this new Constitution. We feel that it would work out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other members of the student body card which are now my privilege to attend.

However, in the case of the new Constitution, your editor feels that the situation is different. El Mustang is very much in favor of this new Constitution. We feel that it would work out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other members of the student body card which are now my privilege to attend.

Anyone who has had any experience in trying to work with the present Constitution knows just how ambiguous and uncertain it is. There have been some students mentioning the "sign" in the front of the Administration building. At this meeting, any interested person may ask questions concerning the proposed Constitution. They are working hard and devoted to it, but it would not be fair to use the editorial column of your newspaper to plug for those men, no matter how able or efficient the editor believes them to be.

Dear John,

The committee did not rush into the job but carefully worked out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other students, parents, friends and faculty members a hand in producing this constitution. We think that they, too, deserve the thanks of the entire student body.

We want to thank Bick Wells, Art Gilstrap, Al Quiet, Leo Rodog, and Bill Troutner and Carl G. Beck, the advisors, for their help in the making of this committee, and a committee was appointed to see what could be done with it.

The committee did not rush into the job but carefully worked out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other students, parents, friends and faculty members.

We have printed the document and the accompanying by-laws in this issue of El Mustang. Study them carefully. We are sure that you will agree that the proposed constitution is an excellent piece of work. It has been worked on by many of the students and it has been altered easily if the need arises. The two, together, make an excellent plan which can easily expand with the growing needs of the college.

The committee has announced that they will hold an open meeting next Tuesday from 2 to 5 p.m. in room 211 of the Administration building. Any interested person may ask questions concerning the proposed Constitution. They are working hard and devoted to it, but it would not be fair to use the editorial column of your newspaper to plug for those men, no matter how able or efficient the editor believes them to be.

Our swimming team took a blow when the best swimmer was given his swimming papers because of low grades. Still, I have seen the day when some of the students were forced to stay in school. These so-called "wheels" have done nothing about outside activities to further the interests of Cal Poly. Our school has a scholastic committee here, certainly. But right about outside activities to further the interests of Cal Poly.

Dear John:

We need a scholastic committee here, certainly. But right about outside activities to further the interests of Cal Poly.

Dear John:

Don't be carried away by bright signs and loud talk. Pick the man who has the best opportunity to visit such a grand hotel. I'll only a minute.

Dear Joe:

"Dear John," the note that I am writing is just an attempt to try to explain the feelings of the students who are in favor of the new Constitution. We feel that it would work out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other students, parents, friends and faculty members.

Dear Joe:

We need a scholastic committee here, certainly. But right about outside activities to further the interests of Cal Poly.

Dear John:

The committee did not rush into the job but carefully worked out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other students, parents, friends and faculty members. The committee did not rush into the job but carefully worked out a schedule or plan of action. They wrote to other students, parents, friends and faculty members.

We have printed the document and the accompanying by-laws in this issue of El Mustang. Study them carefully. We are sure that you will agree that the proposed constitution is an excellent piece of work. It has been worked on by many of the students and it has been altered easily if the need arises. The two, together, make an excellent plan which can easily expand with the growing needs of the college.

The committee has announced that they will hold an open meeting next Tuesday from 2 to 5 p.m. in room 211 of the Administration building. Any interested person may ask questions concerning the proposed Constitution. They are working hard and devoted to it, but it would not be fair to use the editorial column of your newspaper to plug for those men, no matter how able or efficient the editor believes them to be.
