Guests are taking tours of the campus, enjoying the scenic and historic points of interest are pointed out by student guides. Individual departments have prepared exhibits showing you the work being carried on here throughout the school year. The industrial, agricultural and science and humanities divisions are open to everyone's inspection. There are poultry and livestock judging shows featuring our own prize stock.

Among these will be a new sort of Disney arrangement of "Night and Day." Something new will be featured for the Professional March for the orchestra. This year the March is various and it will be a surprise to the audience.

While still stated that the College has donated their time for the carnival days to add to the building up of the Student Union fund.

Parking Space is Limited

The Cal Poly security department states that they have observed that many students have parked on the campus, and in some cases on the streets. This is causing a problem and it may be difficult to find another parking space on the campus. There is also a problem with the parking on the streets, and it may be difficult to find another parking space there as well.

The security department asks that everyone be aware of the parking regulations and to leave their cars parked in designated areas.

The Mustangs play their last game of 1948 with the Bay City school and Poly baseball coach Bob Mott.

Ollie Matson who should run away from the field.

The Mustangs have never lost one of these contests.

It's interesting to note that all three games, beginning in 1947, have been decided by one run. Pepperdine, Santa Barbara and Loyola have been the victims. The Santa Barbara game of 1948 is still discussed by many of the townpeople.

Poly's diamond was dedicated in the 1947 contest.

Several track and field events are held during the northern division of the CCAA. The Mustangs boost one of the best teams of Ban Jose, and Bob Redden established themselves as the best doubles team in the conference with wins over Pepperdine and Santa Barbara.

Coach Smith figures that sophomore Sam Walls will be one of the top men in the CCAA next year, if he continues to show improvement.

Don German... ace of the Mustang hurling staff... is on the mound this afternoon for the locals against LUSI. This will be the final Poly Royal game for the stylish southpaw.

In the latter content, must have felt to watch, and the second affair was a delight to behold. Dick Jacquell, Mustang hurler in the latter contest, must have felt like flashing away after observing the ease in which his mates rendered him. Oh, well, what’s seven errors, more or less?

Vernon Bebernea came in for a lot of mixed criticism, and Bob Mott.

How about getting the facts straight before running.

Mormon Compete in CCAA Finals

Coach Dick Anderson’s Mustang swimming team finished fifth in San Jose where it will meet San Diego and San Jose today and tomorrow in the CCAA conference meet. Poly also may enter a few men at Pismo Beach.

According to Anderson, the individual could also do well enough to help chart the conference crown and will definitely finish no worse than second. It takes 100 points to capture the title of the Mustangs. The score in more than 800. The Mustangs perform well enough to capture a spot for out of the running.

100-yard medley relay will represent Poly. Of these, seven are entered in the first style. Three men are entered in the backstroke, and three will compete in the diving events.

The following comprises the Mustang and team: Jack Bluest, Don Doherty, Bob Doherty, John Balsenberg, Jack Wenzel, Jerry Nevedal, Dick Voigts, Bill Larson, and John Shirey.

Soccer Team Meets Fresno State Here

The Cal Poly soccer team meets Fresno State today with an eye toward avenging an earlier 8-0 defeat in the last game played. The Mustangs have a team of great talent, but the performance of their attackers has been questionable.

The Americanos are also on the squad. They must have sneaked in when no one was looking.

Who’s Crying Wolf?

Can anyone tell me who the person is who continually telephones the school authorities and reports numerous members of the baseball team as being drunk in town when such is not the case in any sense of the word? Maybe this character has money bet on the games, or, maybe he or she is following their活动 with the Bulldogs.

Can anything be older than 90. Or is he that old now?

Radio Broadcasts Stimulate Interest
Part of the crowd here today is here because they heard one or more of the "pre-Poly Royal" radio broadcasts on KVIC and KMNS.

Twelve on-the-spot, tag-recorded programs featuring all departments of the college were broadcast over the two local radio stations from April 20 through April 28 by Kirby Robinson, electronics engineering student from Stockton, and由 the poly radio department.

The entire series used the voices of the Cal Poly radio club under the direction of H. P. Davidson for background music. The tape recording was also loaned through the courtesy of the faculty.

Article Published On Poly Architects
Even before it has graduated its first class of seniors, the Cal Poly architectural engineering department was solicited out by the nationally-circulated Architectural Record magazine, which was first to feature the work of students in the architectural engineering department in its April 20 issue.

The six-page, profitably illustrated spread, which is in color, this department which will graduate 15 young men in June, when Poly students and faculty are featured in the July issue of the magazine, which is in color.

Poly's "one-time" feature will not be the last, according to Prof. William Brown, who arranged the interviews with students.

Limited Parking Space Offer Problem To Faculty, Students
Due to the shortage of parking space on the campus during Poly's opening hours, the faculty, students and employees are asked to leave their cars at home and camp today and to use the Poly parking lots. The 14-student group at the University of California, San Diego, has engaged in a sit-down protest in the Poly parking lot. The protest is expected to continue until the problem is solved.

White Leghorn Entry Places First In March Egg Contest
