Cal Poly Student Film Released as DVD Nov. 21

SAN LUIS OBISPO – A feature-length romantic comedy created by a team of Cal Poly students and alumni will be released on DVD Nov. 21.

The film, “Leave it to Chance,” which began as a senior project, was shot in and around San Luis Obispo in 2004-05 and premiered on campus in spring 2005. The crew – comprised primarily of Filipino-American students – wrote, produced, directed, acted in and promoted the independent film. It was screened at the 2006 Santa Barbara International Film Festival and last year’s Chicago Filipino American Film Festival.

The DVD is a special edition with bonus features that include a cast and crew audio commentary, bloopers from the film, and a pair of behind-the-scenes documentaries. It may be pre-ordered online from www.amazon.com and www.kidheroes.net, as well as from the film’s Web site, www.leaveittochance.info.
