WHEREAS, Myron Hood has shown heroic dedication to the motto "learn by doing" by serving three terms as Chair of the Academic Senate; and

WHEREAS, He has hastened the Senate's discussions with an abbreviated set of governing procedures called Myron's Rules of Random Order; and

WHEREAS, He has proved that redeeming a lost argument is only a pertinent question away; that the answer can be intuited before the question has been asked; and that cats can be herded; and

WHEREAS, Myron gained national celebrity when he confronted the Chancellor's assailable statement regarding faculty work habits and commitment; and

WHEREAS, He has remained true to his convictions in the face of opposition and anger; and

WHEREAS, His quiet integrity has spoken volumes for the rights and respect of faculty; and

WHEREAS, His leadership style has been a sentient demonstration of "collegiality"; therefore,

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly express its enthusiastic thanks and commend Myron Hood for his loyal and dedicated service as Chair of the Academic Senate; and be it further

RESOLVED: That a plaque be presented to Myron Hood by the Academic Senate as a symbol of its sincere appreciation for a job well done; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this resolution be permanently recorded in the minutes of the Academic Senate.
