Today’s "Healthy Lifestyles" health and wellness fair will be held in UU 220. Last week’s Cal Poly Poll article about the fair said the event would be held. We apologize for the omission.

Chicano dance company perform March 9 & 10

The Chicago-based River North Dance Company will combine popular music and popular dance in the form of hip hop, tap and ballroom in two shows at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, March 9-10, in the Theatre.

Led by artistic director Sherry Zunker Dow and co-director Frank Chavez, the River North Dance Company has earned wide critical praise for its innovative, diverse and entertaining repertoires.

"River North is attracting big, wildly appreciative audiences," said the Chicago Sun-Times. "With energetic, marvelously trained performers and a gaye, entertaining program, River North has what it takes to survive in a tough arts market... Populistically sets the stage on fire ... Unashamedly, unashamedly entertaining." The Arizona Republic said, "River North Dance Company has earned wide critical praise for its innovative, diverse and entertaining repertoires."

Beatie, 74

Music faculty emeritus George Beatie lived at his home in Atascadero on Feb. 15.

A celebration of his life, including a performance by the Valley of Information Technology Band, is planned for 2 pm Sunday, Feb. 28, at the Atascadero Lake Pavilion. Beatie, 74, a former music teacher in the Atascadero School District and in Alhambra, Calif., was raised on his family’s farm there. He joined the Navy in 1942 and played in a band of soldiers during his tour of duty. He earned a degree in music from UCSB in 1949, taught music at Arroyo Grande High School from 1949 to 1959, earned an advanced degree from Cal Poly in 1956, then joined the university's faculty as band director in 1959.

He served as associate dean for special programs at Cal Poly from 1963-1971 and returned to the Music Department faculty until his retirement, which was planned to occur in spring 1994. Beatie was named Atascadero’s 1992 Citizen of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce.

Wilderness medicine to be taught on campus

A nine-day course in wilderness medicine for students, faculty and members of the public will be held beginning at 3 pm Saturday, March 20.

Sponsored by the Wilderness Medicine Institute, the course is a national recognized program that trains people to respond to emergencies in remote situations. The Wilderness First Responder training will cover such topics as managing wounds and infections, recognizing fractures and dislocations, improvising splinting techniques, monitoring patients, and managing long-term problems. The course also offers information on environmental emergencies and advice on drug therapy.

The 80-hour class includes standards for urban and extended care situations with an emphasis on prevention and decision-making.

The cost is $420 for students and $450 for the public. A $200 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve space, with the balance due the first day of the course. For more information, call the Cal Poly Escape Business Office at ext. 2473.

Campus Express Club announces winners

Two students and a staff member were winners in a recent contest among customers who deposited money in their Campus Express Club accounts.

Chris Stavros, Information Technology Resources Management, will provide seed grants to two winners in a recent drawing among customers who deposited money in their Campus Express Club accounts.

Holly Zeiger, a local architect in private practice, "Microcosm of Feng Shui," April 13, Architecture Gallery (Room 105).

The lecture series is sponsored by the UU Galerie, the ASI and the College of Architecture and Environmental Design. For details, call Lob at ext. 6-2015.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Poll are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. Call 5-ARTS (ext. 6-2787) or come to the office by fax or disk, ext. 6-6088.

S.A.F.E.R. Program seeks 'Real men, Real women'

The S.A.F.E.R. (Sexual Assault-Free Environment Resource) Program is sponsoring a university-wide search for the 20 “best” men and women to give sexual assault and educational presentations to men’s and women’s groups on campus.

"Real Men" and "Real Women" are those who demonstrate a respect for the fact that sex should be "shared, not taken," and those who have an understanding that everyone deserves to be treated with consideration without regard to sex or sexual orientation.

Those chosen will be trained and a poster with the winners’ photos and personal quotes will be printed and displayed throughout campus.

Students and faculty staff members are encouraged to enter the contest. For an application, stop by the Peer Health Education office downstairs in the UC building, or call ext. 6-2826.

Applications are due to the Peer Health Education office by Thursday, March 4.

Chicago dance company to perform March 9 & 10

The Chicago-based River North Dance Company will combine popular music and popular dance in the form of hip hop, tap and ballroom in four shows at 3 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 9-10, in the Theatre. Led by artistic director Sherry Zinker Dow and co-director Frank Chaves, the River North Dance Company has earned wide critical praise for its innovative, diverse and entertaining repertory.

"River North is attracting big, wildly trained performers and a gutsy, entertaining mar­ket, River North has what it take to survive in a tough arts market ... Possibly sets the stage on fire ... Unabashedly, unashamedly entertaining," said the Chicago Sun-Times. "With energetic, marvelously trained performers and a gutsy, entertaining mar­ket, River North has what it take to survive in a tough arts market ... Possibly sets the stage on fire ... Unabashedly, unashamedly entertaining," said the Chicago Sun-Times.

For tickets to the pre-opera party, call ext. 6-1731 or Wesells at 541-2212. Concert tickets are available at the Performing Arts Ticket Office.
Troxel to speak on British theater feature

English Department faculty member Patricia Troxel will present "A Dramaturge? What's That? Helping American Actors Bring British Theater to the Stage" at the next "What Else WE Do" English Department Faculty Forum from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, Feb. 25, in Fisher Science 287.

Troxel's background in modern theatre is a professional director and dramaturge (a literary adviser to a theater) who has worked locally, elsewhere in the United States, and in England.

Locally, she has worked with Arness: "For the Last Few Feet," with the Fremont Shakespeare Festival in 1998, "An Enemy of the People" and "As You Like It" with PST and "Romeo and Juliet" with the Madonna Theatre, 1999. Additionally, she has worked with the Central Coast Actors Theatre in " appellate work." She was also the associate artistic director of the Peninsula Community Players in Santa Maria. Last fall, she directed David Hare's "Skylight" as a PCPA in Santa Maria.

Troxel's experience in her field includes teaching, directing, production, and counseling at the collegiate level and as a professional artistic director.

The forum series was used to promote proposals:

- Proposals that directly affect students and enhance the international education opportunities on their behalf will be given the highest priority.
- Proposals will be given to those proposals that carry up to 50 percent match from another source, such as a faculty member's department or college.
- Proposals will be given to those faculty members who have never received a funding opportunity to International Education and Program Seed grant.
- Recipients of awards last year must submit their Post-Activity Report before applying this year.
- Proposals must directly benefit Cal Poly students, the faculty and the university.
- Proposals involving countries in the Pacific Basin (Tuvalu, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, and those who live on or close to the Pacific Ocean) and the position for which applying. A full application will be submitted if all application materials to the department head/chief otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timeframes where applicable, unless otherwise stated.
