Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Information is also available online at the Cal Poly home page (www.calpoly.edu) or in print by calling (805) 756-2543.

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 21236; job line at ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 5 pm on the closing date or postmarked by the closing date (No faxes. Please.) For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently in Bargaining Units 2, 5, 7 and 9 will be given first consideration.

#09011: Sign Language Interpreter (Interpreter/Transliterlator I & II), Disability Resource Center (Unit 9)- Closing date: Open until filled ($12.00-$27.96/hr., hiring range dependent upon experience, full-time, temporary, on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal). For more information, call ext. 6-6188.

#09014: Accompanist II Pool, Music Department (Unit 9) - Closing date: Sept. 1 ($15.12-$19.96/hr., hiring range dependent upon the qualifications of the selected candidates plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining; temporary, intermittent/on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal).

#06185: Building Service Engineer, Facilities Services (60-16) - Closing date: Sept. 1 ($3,690-$4,425/mo.) Full-time, temporary, on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal.

#09025: Parent Program Coordinator (Public Affairs Assistant II), Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (Unit 9)- Closing date: Aug. 25 ($2,886-$3,470/mo. plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining). For more information, call ext. 6-3648.

#09021: Athletic Media Relations Intern (Helper Aid), Athletics - Closing date: Aug. 18 ($5.16-$12.30/hr., temporary, intermittent/on-call, variable work hours including evenings and weekends) to June 30, 2000, with renewal dependent upon funding.

#07022: Data Entry Operator, Student Academic Services (Unit 11) - Closing date: Aug. 18 ($10.64-$12.55/hr., full-time, temporary, on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal).

#07023: Administrative Support Coordinator I, College of Science & Math, Advancement (Unit 79)- Closing date: Aug. 18 ($2,352-$2,987/mo., plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining).

#03005: Tenure-track position in Mathematics Education, Mathematics Department (756-2206) - Closing date: Dec. 17. Tenure-track-tenure-year position beginning fall 2000 to teach methods courses for prospective K-12 teachers, supervise student teachers and senior projects, and teach mathematics courses. Requirements: Doctorate in mathematics education with equivalent of master's degree in mathematics, or graduate in mathematics with significant experience in teacher education. Pre¬college teaching experience and a background in educational technology and assessment are strongly desired. Submit application form, resume, statement of personal goals, three letters of refer¬ence, and transcripts to: Chair, Mathematics Department (refer to Recruitment Code #03005) in all correspondence.

#0009: Tenure-track position in Modern Eastern Asian History, History Department (756-2543) Closing date: Nov. 1. Tenure-track assistant professor in modern East Asian history beginning September 2000, teaching the entire sur¬vey of East Asia specialty courses (Chi¬nese and/or Japanese history preferred), and in addition general education courses. Ph.D. in history must be com¬pleted by the date of appointment. Candi¬dates must also have college teaching experience and a commitment to profes¬sional development. Reference Recruit¬ment Code #0009 and send C.V., three letters of recommendation, sample syllabi, and teaching evaluations (if available) to: Professor Carolyn J. Stefancic, chair, History Department.

FOUNDATION (Foundation Adm. Building, Job line at ext. 6-7107). All Foundation applications must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 pm of the closing date. (No faxes.)

MIS Specialist, Management Information Systems - Closing date: Aug. 13 (15.48-$20.14/hr.). Provide support services to PC and host system users in a networked environment. Requirements: High school or equivalent, preferably with courses in information technology and a year of experience in computer operation. Some college-level courses emphasizing com¬puting technology desired. Minimum three years' experience involving installation and support of PC hardware and software for multiple users, includ¬ing occasional work in a local network envi¬ronment. Must have good oral and written communication skills. Must be able to work effectively with other staff and collaborate on the completion of projects; analyze complex problems and develop effective solutions; work inde¬pendently with minimal direct supervision; and lift at least 50 pounds. Must be able to work occasional evening, weekend, and holiday hours to meet schedul¬ing objectives and resolve critical production problems. Must be willing to carry a pager in support of production processing and be able to travel occa¬sionally to attend technical conferences and training seminars.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, INC. is accepting applications for the following position(s). Complete position information and applications are available at the ASI Business Office, University Union, Room 1, M-F, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. (Continued on page 2)

South County to host ethnic fair, music festival

America's first all-female mariachi group, a salsa-making contest, the 5-K and 10-K Dune Run Run, and a health and citizenship fair are some of the highlights of the 6th annual Stone Soup Ethnic Street Fair and World Music Festival to be held Saturday and Sun¬day, Aug. 28-29, at Ramona Gardens Park in Grover Beach.

The event, sponsored by Cal Poly Arts and the Grover Beach Chamber of Commerce, will run from 9 a.m to 6 p.m and from Saturday to 5 p.m Sunday.

Linda Ronstadt, Emmylou Harris to play Sept. 8

Grammy-award winners Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris will perform in concert as part of the Cal Poly Arts Center Stage series at 8 p.m Wednesday, Sept. 8, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Cohen Center. Ronstadt has one of the longest careers in modern pop and has won nine Grammy awards. Harris is credited with being the "lightning rod" for the country rock explosion of the late 70s and the Americana germination of the 90s.

Tickets, $42 to $58, can be bought at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 a.m to 6 p.m weekdays and from 10 a.m to 4 p.m Saturdays. Call ext. 6-ARTS.

Kennedy Library adds on-line renewal feature

The Kennedy Library has a six-month pilot program that allows faculty and staff members to renew books on-line.

The new on-line feature, along with other on-line privileges such as "view your own library record," "place and hold books," "request books/ holds," and "request LINK+ items," which provides books from 11 CSU and other campus libraries, is available from the library's home Web page from home or office computers and from the Polycat catalog.

For details stop by the library or visit its home page at www.lib.calpoly.edu. Comments and suggestions about the new feature are welcome.

CalPERS proposes new retirement benefits

Recently the California Public Employees Retirement System (CalPERS) Board of Administration recommended to Gov. Davis and the Legislature that the benefits, including the retirement formula, of CalPERS' active and retired members be improved.

By law, CalPERS cannot establish im¬proved benefits until the Legislature approves. The CalPERS Board pledged to help finance the costs of these improvements through funding alternatives made avail¬able by the system’s excellent investment earnings. If the Legislature approves, the changes will go into effect Jan. 1, 2000.

If available to answer questions Monday through Friday, 7 a.m to 5:30 p.m and Saturdays from 9 a.m to 1 p.m at (800) 352-2238. Detailed in¬formation concerning the proposal is available at the CalPERS Website at www.calpers.ca.gov.

Darlene Slack, director, Communications Office, helps out at a recent breakfast for the Sheep Unit on campus.

The Kennedy Library has begun a six-month pilot program that allows faculty and staff members to renew books on line.

The on-line feature, along with other on-line privileges such as "view your own library record," "place and hold books," "request books/ holds," and "request LINK+ items," which provides books from 11 CSU and other campus libraries, is available from the library's home Web page from home or office computers and from the Polycat catalog.

For details stop by the library or visit its home page at www.lib.calpoly.edu. Comments and suggestions about the new feature are welcome.

The Kennedy Library has a six-month pilot program that allows faculty and staff members to renew books on-line.
Send items by Aug. 5 for summer Credit Report Monday, Aug. 9, the date to submit items for the summer quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments. If, like last year, only a few submissions are received in this summer edition, we will hold them to include in the fall printing. When submitting news, please keep in mind that items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related to — and in most cases that means directly related to — a faculty member’s teaching or a staff member’s job at Cal Poly. Please do not send brochures, ads, general information, or mail them to the Communications Office, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6333. Please be sure to indicate the number in case we have questions. For information, call ext. 6-5151.

The Grants Development office has scheduled a hands-on training session Wednesday, Aug. 11, for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources on line through the Web-based database service SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). Training materials will be available on the Web. The training is free and open to all. For more information, call ext. 6-4935. The session will be limited to 10 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jostye@calpoly.edu.

OBITUARY
J. Murray Smith, 80
J. Murray Smith, speech communica­tion professor emeritus, died July 17 in San Luis Obispo after a short illness. Smith began his university career in 1960 at Cal Poly, then transferred to The Tribune, Smith was referred to as “the heart and soul” of the Cal Poly theatre program. He is credited with producing and directing over 50 productions to make it technically complete.

Send items by Aug. 5 for summer Credit Report Monday, Aug. 9, the date to submit items for the summer quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments. If, like last year, only a few submissions are received in this summer edition, we will hold them to include in the fall printing. When submitting news, please keep in mind that items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related to — and in most cases that means directly related to — a faculty member’s teaching or a staff member’s job at Cal Poly. Please do not send brochures, ads, general information, or mail them to the Communications Office, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6333. Please be sure to indicate the number in case we have questions. For information, call ext. 6-5151.

The Grants Development office has scheduled a hands-on training session Wednesday, Aug. 11, for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources on line through the Web-based database service SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). Training materials will be available on the Web. The training is free and open to all. For more information, call ext. 6-4935. The session will be limited to 10 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jostye@calpoly.edu.

OBITUARY
J. Murray Smith, 80
J. Murray Smith, speech communica­tion professor emeritus, died July 17 in San Luis Obispo after a short illness. Smith began his university career in 1960 at Cal Poly, then transferred to The Tribune, Smith was referred to as “the heart and soul” of the Cal Poly theatre program. He is credited with producing and directing over 50 productions to make it technically complete.

Send items by Aug. 5 for summer Credit Report Monday, Aug. 9, the date to submit items for the summer quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments. If, like last year, only a few submissions are received in this summer edition, we will hold them to include in the fall printing. When submitting news, please keep in mind that items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related to — and in most cases that means directly related to — a faculty member’s teaching or a staff member’s job at Cal Poly. Please do not send brochures, ads, general information, or mail them to the Communications Office, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6333. Please be sure to indicate the number in case we have questions. For information, call ext. 6-5151.

The Grants Development office has scheduled a hands-on training session Wednesday, Aug. 11, for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources on line through the Web-based database service SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). Training materials will be available on the Web. The training is free and open to all. For more information, call ext. 6-4935. The session will be limited to 10 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jostye@calpoly.edu.

OBITUARY
J. Murray Smith, 80
J. Murray Smith, speech communica­tion professor emeritus, died July 17 in San Luis Obispo after a short illness. Smith began his university career in 1960 at Cal Poly, then transferred to The Tribune, Smith was referred to as “the heart and soul” of the Cal Poly theatre program. He is credited with producing and directing over 50 productions to make it technically complete.

Send items by Aug. 5 for summer Credit Report Monday, Aug. 9, the date to submit items for the summer quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments. If, like last year, only a few submissions are received in this summer edition, we will hold them to include in the fall printing. When submitting news, please keep in mind that items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related to — and in most cases that means directly related to — a faculty member’s teaching or a staff member’s job at Cal Poly. Please do not send brochures, ads, general information, or mail them to the Communications Office, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6333. Please be sure to indicate the number in case we have questions. For information, call ext. 6-5151.

The Grants Development office has scheduled a hands-on training session Wednesday, Aug. 11, for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources on line through the Web-based database service SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). Training materials will be available on the Web. The training is free and open to all. For more information, call ext. 6-4935. The session will be limited to 10 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jostye@calpoly.edu.

OBITUARY
J. Murray Smith, 80
J. Murray Smith, speech communica­tion professor emeritus, died July 17 in San Luis Obispo after a short illness. Smith began his university career in 1960 at Cal Poly, then transferred to The Tribune, Smith was referred to as “the heart and soul” of the Cal Poly theatre program. He is credited with producing and directing over 50 productions to make it technically complete.

Send items by Aug. 5 for summer Credit Report Monday, Aug. 9, the date to submit items for the summer quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments. If, like last year, only a few submissions are received in this summer edition, we will hold them to include in the fall printing. When submitting news, please keep in mind that items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related to — and in most cases that means directly related to — a faculty member’s teaching or a staff member’s job at Cal Poly. Please do not send brochures, ads, general information, or mail them to the Communications Office, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6333. Please be sure to indicate the number in case we have questions. For information, call ext. 6-5151.

The Grants Development office has scheduled a hands-on training session Wednesday, Aug. 11, for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources on line through the Web-based database service SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). Training materials will be available on the Web. The training is free and open to all. For more information, call ext. 6-4935. The session will be limited to 10 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jostye@calpoly.edu.
Ceskolesi to retire; Aug. 12 reception set

A retirement reception honoring Barbara Ceskolesi, coordinator of Tele­phone Administration at the Tele­phone Office, was planned from 2 to 4 pm Thursday, Aug. 12, at the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. Ceskolesi began her Cal Poly career 37 years ago as a stenographer in the General Office. During her tenure, she worked as a secretary in the Physical Plant and as a supervisor in the satellite, now-defunct General Office. Those who plan to attend are asked to call or email Mathews at ext. 6-5544.

Architects students win 4 of 6 scholarships
Cal Poly architecture seniors won 4 of the 6 scholarships awarded by the California Architectural Foundation. The Mel Ferris Scholarship recipients are chosen for academic achievement and financial need. The students honored were Duric McCormick, Diana Marquez, Matt Nohr, and Daniella Wilson. The six scholarship recipients were chosen for academic achievement and financial need. The students honored were Duric McCormick, Diana Marquez, Matt Nohr, and Daniella Wilson. The six scholarship recipients were chosen for academic achievement and financial need. The students honored were Duric McCormick, Diana Marquez, Matt Nohr, and Daniella Wilson.
Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the Human Resources office. Information is also available on the Cal Poly home page (www.calpoly.edu) or on "General Information".

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2256 or job line at ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or be postmarked by the closing date. (No faxes, please.) For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently in Bargaining Units 2, 5, and 7 will be given first consideration.

#0901: Sign Language Interpreter (Interpreter/Transliterator 1 & II), Disability Resource Center (Unit 9)* - Closing date: Open until filled ($12.06- $27.96/hr., hiring range dependent upon training and experience, plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining; temporary, intermittent/on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal. Occasional early morning, evening, and weekend hours.

#0901: Accompanist II Pool, Music Department (Unit 9) - Closing date: Sept. 1 ($15.12- $19.06/hr., hiring range dependent upon the qualifications of the selected candidates plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining; temporary, intermittent/on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal).

#0618: Building Service Engineer, Facility Services Division - Closing date: Sept. 1 ($3.690- $4.424/hr., plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining).

#0926: Parent/Program Coordinator (Public Affairs Assistant II), Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (Unit 9)* - Closing date: Aug. 25 ($2.886- $3.470/hr., plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining). For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently in Bargaining Units 2, 5, and 7 will be given first consideration.

#0702: Data Entry Operator, Student Academic Services Center (Unit 7) - Closing date: Aug. 18 ($10.64- $12.55/hr., hiring range dependent upon training and experience, plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining; positions, temporary, intermittent/on-call to June 30, 2000, with likely annual renewal).

#0703: Administrative Support Coordinator I, College of Science & Math, Advancement (Unit 7)* - Closing date: Aug. 18 ($2.352- $2.981/hr., plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining).

#0805: Tenure-track position in Mathematics Education, Mathematics Department (756-2206) - Closing date: Dec. 17. Tenure-track-acyear position beginning fall 2000 to teach methods courses for prospective K-12 teachers, supervise student teachers and senior projects, and teach mathematics courses. Requirements: Doctorate in mathematics education with equivalent of master's degree in mathematics, or bachelor's degree in mathematics with significant experience in teacher education. Pre-college teaching experience and a background in educational technology and assessment are strongly desired. Submit application form, resume, statement of research goals, three letters of reference, and transcripts to: Chair, Mathematics Department (reference to Recruitment Code #0905) in all correspondence.

#1000: Tenure-track position in Modern East Asian History, History Department (756-2543) Closing date: Nov. 1. Tenure-track assistant professor in modern East Asian history beginning September 2000, teaching the entire survey of East Asia specialty courses (Chinese and/or Japanese history preferred), and seminars in general education courses. Ph.D. in history must be completed by the date of appointment. Candidates must have college teaching experience and a commitment to professional development. Reference Recruitment Code #03009 and send CV, three letters of recommendation, sample syllabi, and teaching evaluations (if available) to: Professor Carolyn I. Stenfors, chair, History Department.

FOUNDATION (Foundation Adm. Building, job line at ext. 6-7107). All Foundation applications must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 pm of the closing date. (No faxes.)

MIS Specialist, Management Information Systems - Closing date: Aug. 13 (15.48- 20.14/hr.) Provide support services to PC and host system users in a networked environment. Requirements: High school or equivalent, preferably with courses in information technology plus one year's experience in systems management. Some college-level courses emphasizing computing technology desired. Minimum three years' experience involving system installation and support of PC hardware and software for multiple users, including coordination in a local area network environment. Must have good oral and written communication skills. Must be able to work effectively with other staff and collaborate on the completion of projects; analyze complex problems and develop effective solutions; work independently with minimal direct supervision; and lift at least 50 pounds. Must be able to work occasional evening, weekend and holiday hours to meet scheduling objectives and resolve critical production problems. Must be willing to carry a pager in support of production processing and be able to travel occasionally to attend technical conferences and training seminars.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC., is accepting applications for the following position(s).

Complete position descriptions and applications are available at the ASI Business Office, University Union, Room 212, M-F, 8 am-5 pm, ext. 6-1281. All applications must be received by 5 pm of the listed closing date. A.R.D.

Assistant Teacher, Children's Center - Closing date: Open until filled; review of applications begins Aug. 16 ($1,303- $1,619/hr., plus any salary increases negotiated through collective bargaining). Full-time, under the supervision of the head teacher, assists with the implementation of daily developmentally appropriate program. Helps supervise the activities of children, student staff, and volunteers. Participates in planning and implementing curriculum. Requirements: Minimum 12 semester units in early childhood education required. Minimum one year's experience working with children under age five. Must meet National Association for the Education of Young Children Developmental Education Incentive Program (DEIP) requirements. Must be willing to work occasional evening, weekend and holiday hours to meet scheduling objectives and resolve critical production problems. Must be willing to carry a pager in support of production processing and be able to travel occasionally to attend technical conferences and training seminars.

South County to host ethnic fair, music festival

America’s first all-female mariachi group, a salsa-making contest, the 5-K and 10-K Dune Run Run, and a health and citizenship fair are some of the highlights of the 6th annual Stone Soup Festival to be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 28-29, at Ramona Gardens Park in Grover Beach.

The event, sponsored by Cal Poly Arts and the Grover Beach Chamber of Commerce, will run from 9 am to 5 pm on Saturday and from 10 am to 5 pm Sunday.

One of the most popular acts at last year’s Mid-State Fair, Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles will close the fair and Festival on Sunday afternoon at 3 pm. The women musicians, staying true to the mariachi spirit, mix recognized maestros and women’s sounds with rock, reggae, and other genres.

In addition to the well-known groups, local bands playing include Run Run, Linda Ronstadt, Emmylou Harris to play Sept. 8

Linda Ronstadt, Emmylou Harris to play Sept. 8

Grammy-award winners Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris will perform in concert as part of the Cal Poly Arts Center Stage series at 8 pm Wednesday, Sept. 8, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohen Center.

Ronstadt has one of the longest careers in modern pop and has won nine Grammy awards. Harris is credited with being the “lightning rod” for the country rock explosion of the late ’70s and the Americana resurgence of the 1990s.

Tickets, $42 to $58, can be bought at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. Call ext. 6-ARTS.

Kennedy Library adds on-line renewal feature

The Kennedy Library has a six-month pilot program that allows faculty and staff members to renew books on line. The on-line renewal feature, along with other on-line privileges such as “view your own library record,” “place and hold books,” “request LINK+ items,” and “request LINK+ items,” is available from the library’s home Web page from home or office computers and from the Polycat computer terminals located throughout the library.

For details stop by the library or visit its home page at www.lib.calpoly.edu.