Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously unadvertised employment openings at the university. You may access full information about these and other previously advertised positions at www.admissions.calpoly.edu/rosecobb/career/homepage.html.

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2344). Candidates are asked to contact the appropriate department at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head, unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

493826: Lecturer(s), Statistics Department (765-7709). Two lecturer positions, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year, with possible renewal. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Primary responsibility: teaching undergraduate courses. M.S. in statistics or equivalent graduate-level training required. Demonstrate excellence in teaching and/or industrial experience involving statistics. Contact Jay Devore, chair, Statistics Department, or e-mail jdevore@calpoly.edu. Reference recruitment code #03026 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 15.

493828: Lecturer, Landscape Architecture Department (756-1139). One full-time lecturer position (leave replacement). A one- or two-year position beginning Sept. 1, 2000, for the 2000-01 academic year. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Applicants should identify and demonstrate evidence of expertise in history of landscape architecture and one or more related areas in which they are especially qualified to teach: a) fundamentals of design; b) professional practice; c) landscape architecture project design; d) computer applications; e) site construction; f) site analysis; g) at least one degree in landscape architecture and teaching/practice experience required. Contact Search Committee, Landscape Architecture Department. Reference recruitment code #03028 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 15.

493831: Lecturer, Physics Department (756-2448). Lecturer position, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year. Salary range $48,483-54,488. Primary duties and responsibilities are to teach undergraduate physics (and possibly astronomy) courses. Ph.D. in physics or astronomy, or closely related field with strong physics background required by Sept. 15, 2000. The successful applicant must provide evidence of (or potential for) excellence in teaching, including an application, a letter of recommendation, resume, statement of professional goals, and three letters of recommendation supplied directly by reference. Chair, Appointment Committee, Physics Department.

Reference recruitment code #03031 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 9.

493830: Lecturer, Modern Languages and Literatures Department (756-1205). Lecturer position, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Native or near-native fluency in French and English required. Ph.D. or ABD preferred. M.A. required. Preference given to candidates with experience in teaching lower-division Spanish language classes. Evidence of outstanding teaching and experience with computer-assisted instruction required. Contact Blanca Rosenthal, chair, Modern Languages and Literatures Department at e-mail brosene@calpoly.edu. Reference recruitment code #03030 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 11.

... DATELINE...

Monday, January 17 (continued)

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (5) Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMann (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Tuesday and Jan. 19.

Saturday, January 20

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (5) Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMann (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Jan. 17.

Wednesday, January 19

Books at High Noon: Frank Owen (Mechanical Engineering) and David Braun (Electrical Engineering), "Depicting on the Right Side of the Brain" by Betty Edwards, Versals Cafe, noon.

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (5) Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMann (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Monday and Jan. 19.

Tuesday, January 18

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (5) Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMann (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Tuesday and Jan. 19.

... YORK...

York

Continued from page 1

During the memorial service, candid photos of York were displayed. Anyone who has pictures of him is asked to bring them to the International Education and Programs Department, Room 106 in the Mathematics and Science Building. Those who would like to speak at the memorial service should call Barbara Andre at ext. 6-5387.

Contributions in York's memory may be made to the Marilyn York Endowment Fund for International Students. Checks should be made payable to the Marilyn York Endowment Fund and sent to Planned Giving and Endowments, Heron Hall 113.

A college scholarship fund has also been set up at Mid-State Bank on behalf of her two daughters. Checks should be made payable to the Britanny and Allie York Memorial Fund and mailed to 1356 Ironback St., San Luis Obispo, CA 93407.

... servatius ...

Servatius

Continued from page 1

Servatius served as Management Department head for 19 years and as acting dean of the College of Business for more than a year.

After retiring in 1984, he remained an active supporter of the Alumni Association, which awarded him its Distinguished Service Award in 1999. "Owen was one of a small group of people who early on helped to develop a curriculum specifically geared for students at Cal Poly," said President Baker. "His insightful, humorous and sensitive interactions with students are remembered with great fondness by thousands of Cal Poly alumni."

It was his wish that his life and contributions be remembered through a scholarship program named for him in 1998. Send donations for the Owen Servatius College of Business Scholarship Fund to the Dean's Office, College of Business.

... D A T E L I N E ...

Monday, January 24

Music: "Dance of the Dragon," Cal Poly Community Band, 7 p.m. (5)

Saturday, January 22

... ov en Servatius...

Owen Servatius, 78; served more than 50 years

Owen Servatius, management professor emeritus and the first recipient of the Cal Poly Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award, died Dec. 30.

A memorial service is planned in Feb.

Saturday, January 15

Wrestling: BYU, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (5)

Saturday, January 15

Swimming & Diving: Cal State Northridge, Mott Pool, 1 p.m.

Women's Basketball: Idaho, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (5)

Lecture: Keatly; Terrie Manzo (Moorhead State University), "Red-White-Blues: A Celebration of Americans in the 1940s," Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, January 15

Wrestling: BYU, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (5)

Sunday, January 16

Women's Basketball: Boise State, Mott Gym, 2 p.m. (5)

Monday, January 17

Holiday: Martin Luther King Jr. birthday observed. Campus closed except for emergency services.

Women's Swimming & Diving: Pepperdine, Mott Pool noon.

Continued on page 4

Ticket Information

Tickets to performances on campus are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office weekdays 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. and evenings 6 - 10 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

PAGE 4
Library continues to expand its services to remote users

Because of overwhelming demand, the Kennedy Library has implemented the use of a "proxy server," allowing all Cal Poly computer users to access the library's subscribed databases regardless of which Internet provider is used.

In the past, those using AOL or TheGrid or any other non-Cal Poly service were denied access.

The process will be seamless for the user coming in from the Cal Poly modem pool. However, when users from other services attempt to use a subscribed database, they will be prompted for their last name and 14-digit barcode number found at the bottom of campus ID cards.

That's the good news. The bad news is that making links and bookmarks within the subscribed databases is a tricky business.

Call the library's Reference Room staff members for help at ext. 6-2649. Instructions are also available at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu proxy/linking.html. The instructions are also located under the Faculty Services section of the library's Home Page at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu.

Critique of U.S. policy in Central America to speak

A Maryknoll priest and outspoken critic of U.S. foreign policy in Central America will speak Thursday (Jan. 13) about his campaign to close a school where the United States trains Latin American military personnel.

Father Roy Bourgeois will talk on the School of the Americas at 7 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium.

Bourgeois founded School of the Americas Watch, an organization that focuses its attention on the U.S. Army training program based at Fort Benning, Ga. According to School of the Americas Watch literature, over the years the school has taught more than 60,000 Latin American soldiers and military personnel combat skills, command tactics, military intelligence procedures, anti-narcotics operations and torture techniques.

The school spends approximately $20 million of U.S. taxpayers' dollars each year to train 900-2,000 soldiers.

Bourgeois, the so-called "priest-prisoner," spent seven years in prison for civil disobedience. He has protested the School of the Americas since 1990. At the first protest, about 10 friends joined him. More than 10,000 participated in a November 1999 protest.

For more information, call Sister Mary Pat White at the Newman Center at 543-4103.

New deadlines for CPR

Public Affairs reminds campus offices that the Cal Poly Report deadline has been moved up by one day — from Thursday to Wednesday. Information may be sent to polynews@polymail, faxed to ext. 6-5633, or mailed to Public Affairs in Heron Hall.

Remember we need to have your article by 10 a.m. the Wednesday before you'd like it to appear.

For more information, call Public Affairs at ext. 6-1511.

Oblivious

Dorothea Clay, former secretary in the Admissions office, died Dec. 29.

Clay was hired as a clerk-typist in 1962 and retired as secretary to the head of the Admissions office in 1975. During her 13 years, she earned three promotions.

Rollings, 78

New topic for Jan. 20

Physics Colloquium

The Jan. 20 program in the Physics Colloquium series has been changed:

• Feb. 10: Steven Marx (English), "A Terrible Beauty." Marx won the second annual People's Choice Award from the School of the Humanities at the University of Cal Poly. He is a frequent guest contributor to "This American Life" on National Public Radio.

• March 1: Barbara Morningstar (Spanish), "Cesáreo: A Slice of the Revolution." Morningstar is a professor of Spanish at the University of Wisconsin and the author of "César: A Slice of Revolution: The Life of Cesar Chavez." She will discuss the life of Chavez, a labor leader of Mexican origin, who started the United Farm Workers to gain rights for migrant farm workers.

For more information, contact Diane Ryan Scholarship is

The Status of Women Committee is seeking nominations for five scholarships, all designed to recognize students who have demonstrated a commitment to the rights of women.

• The James Ryan Scholarship is given to a student who has demonstrated commitment to the rights of women and is considering a career as an investigative reporter.

• The L. Diane Ryan Scholarship is given to a student who has demonstrated commitment to the rights of women and has identified as having the potential to provide moral leadership in the workplace of the future.

• The Shirley H. Walker Scholarship is given to a student with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 and who has been identified by a faculty mentor to provide leadership on projects that promote women's rights.

• Only nominations submitted by faculty and staff may be considered. Eligible students must be enrolled through fall of the year they are nominated.

For more information, contact Carolyn L. Stefancic, History Department. For more information, call Stefancic at ext. 6-2670.

Foundation Board to meet

The Foundation Board of Directors will meet at 11 a.m. Jan. 21 in the Foundation Administration Conference Room 124. This is a public meeting. For more information, call Sister Mary Pat White at the Newman Center at 543-4103.

For more information, call Sister Mary Pat White at the Newman Center at 543-4103.

‘King and the millennium’ topic of Jan. 20 talk

Sankofa: Martin Luther King and the New Millennium is the topic of a lecture scheduled in observance of Martin Luther King’s birthday.

Keynote speaker Dwight Webster, director of the Center for African and African-American Studies at Howard University at New Orleans, will speak at 11 a.m. in the Theatre.

Also appearing is Cecile Lytle, concert pianist and professor of the Thurgood Marshall College at UC San Diego. Lytle will present a preview of his "Rags to Other Riches," a collection of works written by founders of the music programs at historically black colleges and universities.

Lytle will give the complete recital at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 20 at Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church. (See related story, left.)

Attention faculty members to discuss research, funding

David Braum, the Electrical Engineer Department and Kevin Kingsbury in Chemistry and Biochemistry will discuss their polymer LED (light-emitting diode) research. The presentation is part of a new series of four brown-bag lunches.

Sponsored by the Research and Graduate Programs and Grants Development offices, the talks by faculty members will discuss research and programs developed with external support.

The presentations, set for noon in the Veranda Cafe at noon, are aimed at non-experts and are intended to help the academic community's awareness of the scholarly activities of colleagues and the various sources of funding that have found to support their activities.

Other programs are scheduled on Feb. 10: Mathematics and Statistics.

Attendance should bring their own lunch.

For more information, call the Research and Graduate Programs office at 6-1508.

Books at High Noon to continue Jan. 19

Frank Owen, a professor in the Mechanical Engineering Department, and David Braun, professor in Electrical Engineering, will moderate "Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain" as the first winter quarter Books at High Noon presentation Jan. 19.

The book, by Betty Edwards, claims that drawing is natural and easy if what is seen by the right brain can be recorded without intervention by the left brain.

Six additional book reviews are scheduled winter quarter, all in the Veranda Cafe at noon:

• Jan. 24: Mary Kay Harrington (Writing Skills), "Blindness" by Jose Saramago. The tale of redemption and love — and the tenousness of both — takes place in an unnamed country where by one, you can not go blind.

• Feb. 3: Carl Lutrin (Political Science), "Paradise Lost" by Peter Schrag. The book discusses the rise and decline of California at the end of the century.

• Feb. 10: Steven Marx (English), "Anthropology and Environmental Imagination" by Laurence Baeu. A leading example of "ecocriticism," the book explores the human relationship to nature and the environment, placing Thoreau at the center of an American tradition.

• Feb. 17: Harry Hallenbrand (Cal Poly Arts), "The Shape of the River: Long-Term Consequences of Considering Race in American Higher Education: Admissions" by William Bowen and Derek Bok and "The Big Test: The Secret History of the American Meritocracy" by Nicholas Lemann. These books describe how America’s select institutions “have defined and perpetuated their own racial and social superiority.”

• Feb. 24: Richard Kranzdorf (Political Science), "Race and the American Meritocracy" by Nicholas Lemann. The book discusses the rise and decline of California at the end of the century.

• March 1: Barbara Morningstar (English), "The Bloody Chamber" by Angela Carter. This 1979 collection of short stories is a "quicky retelling of old tales."

For more information on Books at High Noon, call political science Professor Phyl Fetzer at ext. 6-6147.
Obituaries
Clay, 91
Dorothea Clay, former secretary in the Admissions office, died Dec. 29. Clay was hired as a clerk-typist in 1962 and retired as secretary to the head of the Admissions office in 1975. During her 13 years, she earned three promotions.

Rollings, 78

Critic of U.S. policy in Central America to speak
A Maryknoll priest and outspoken critic of U.S. foreign policy in Central America will speak Thursday. Jan. 13 about his campaign to close a school where the United States trains Latin American military personnel.

Father Roy Bourgeois will talk on the School of the Americas at 7 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium.

Bourgeois founded School of the Americas Watch, an organization that focuses its attention on the U.S. Army training program based at Fort Benning, Ga. According to School of the Americas Watch literature, over the years the school has taught more than 60,000 Latin American soldiers and military personnel combat skills, command tactics, military intelligence procedures, anti-narcotics operations and torture techniques.

The school spends approximately $20 million of U.S. taxpayers' dollars each year to train 900-2,000 soldiers.

Bourgeois, the so-called "prisoner priest," spent seven years in prison for civil disobedience. He has protested the School of the Americas since 1990. At the first protest, about 10 friends joined him. More than 10,000 participated in a November 1999 protest.

For more information, call Sister Mary Pat White at the Newman Center at 543-4103.

Nominations sought
The Statue of Woman Committee is seeking nominations for five scholarships, all designed to recognize students who have demonstrated a commitment to the right of women and who is considering a career as a feminist attorney. Preference will be given to a liberal arts major.

The Vicki and Darel Farrer Scholarship is for a student with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 and who is enrolled in the College of Engineering or the chemistry, physics, or statistics major in the College of Science and Mathematics. In addition, the student must have served as a leader in organizations that have the primary purpose of promoting women's rights.

The Robert S. Harmon Scholarship is for a student who has demonstrated commitment to the rights of women and is considering a career as an investigative reporter.

The Jane Ryan Scholarship is given to a student who has demonstrated commitment to the rights of women and has been identified as having the potential to provide moral leadership in the workplace of the future.

The Dr. Shirley H. Walker Scholar¬ship is given to a student with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 and who has been identified as having provided leadership on projects that promote women's rights.

Only nominations submitted by faculty and staff members will be considered. Eligible students must be enrolled through fall 2000, when the awards will be disbursed.

Nominations are due Jan. 21, should include the student's name and an explanation of why the student is being nominated.

Send nominations to Carolyn L. Stefanco, History Department. For more information, call Stefanco at ext. 6-2670.

Foundation Board to meet
The Foundation Board of Directors will be in session Jan. 21 in Federa¬tion Administration Conference Room 124. This is a public meeting. For more information, call Sister Mary Pat White at the Newman Center at 543-4103.

Board of Governors
President Robert Anderson announced that the Board of Governors meeting March 24-25 in the University Union will be open to the public.

Books at High Noon to continue Jan. 19
Frank Owen, a professor in the Me¬chanical Engineering Department, and David Braun, professor in Electrical Engi¬neering, will continue their "Dining on the Right Side of the Brain" as the first winter quarter Books at High Noon presentation Jan. 19.

The book, by Betty Edwards, claims that drawing is natural and easy if it is seen by the right brain can be recorded without intervention by the left brain.

Six additional book reviews are scheduled winter quarter, all in the Veranda Cafe.

• Jan. 24: Mary Kay Harrington (Writing Skills), "Blindness" by Jose Saramago. The tale of redemption and love — and the tenousness both — takes place in an unnamed country where, by one, political culture is blind.

• Feb. 3: Carl Lutwin (Political Science), "Paradise Lost" by Peter Schrag. The book discusses the rise and decline of California at the end of the century.

• Feb. 10: Steven Marx (English), "The Culture of Environmental Imagination" by Laurence Baeu. A leading example of "ecocriticism," the book explores the hu¬man relation to nature and the environment, placing Thoreau at the cen¬ter of an American tradition.

• Feb. 17: Harry Hellenbrand (College of Liberal Arts), "The Shape of the River: Long-Term Consequences of Considering Race a Social Construct" by William Bowen and Derek C. Bob and "The Big Test: The Secret History of the American Meritocracy" by Nicholas Lemann. These books describe how America's select institutions "have defined and maintained the meritocracy.

• Feb. 24: Richard Kranzler (Political Science), "We wish to inform you that tomorrow we will be killed" by Philip Gourevitch. The book provides an ac¬count of the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and its aftermath.

• March 1: Barbora Morris (English) "The Bloody Chamber" by Angela Carter. The book is about the rise and decline of old tales.

For more information on Books at High Noon, call political science profes¬ sor Phil Fetzer at ext. 6-6147.
Position vacancies

Below are the new, previously unadvertised employment openings at the university.

San Luis Obispo, CA 93407

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844). Candidates are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

493026: Lecturer(s), Statistics Department (756-2709). Two lecturer positions, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year, with possible renewal. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Primary responsibilities: teaching undergraduate courses. M.S. in statistics or equivalent grades-level teaching required. Prefer demonstrated excellence in teaching and/or industrial experience involving statistics. Contact Jay Devore, chair, Statistics Department, or e-mail jdevore@calpoly.edu. Reference recruitment code #03026 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 15.

493028: Lecturer, Landscape Architecture Department (756-1179). One full-time lecturer position (leave replacement). A one- or two-year position beginning Sept. 1, 2000, for the 2000-01 academic year. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Applicants should identify and indicate evidence of expertise in history of landscape architecture and one or more subject areas in which they are especially qualified to teach: a) fundamentals of design; b) professional practice; c) landscape architecture project design; d) computer applications; e) site construction; f) site analysis; g) landscape planning; h) at least one degree in landscape architecture and teaching/practice experience required. Contact Search Committee, Landscape Architecture Department. Reference recruitment code #03028 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 15.

493031: Lecturer, Physics Department (756-2448). Lecturer position, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year. Salary range $40,483-448,000. Primary duties and responsibilities are to teach undergraduate physics (and possibly astronomy) courses. Ph.D. in physics or astronomy, or closely related field with strong physics backgrounds required by Sept. 15, 2000. The successful applicant must provide evidence of (or potential for) excellence in teaching, an application, letter of reference, letter of application, resume, statement of professional goals, and three letters of recommendation supplied directly by reference to Chair, Appointments Committee, Physics Department.

Reference recruitment code #03031 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 9.

493030: Lecturer, Modern Languages and Literatures Department (756-1205). Lecturer position, full-time, for 2000-01 academic year. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Native or near-native fluency in French and English required. Ph.D. or ABD preferred. M.A. required. Preference given to candidates with experience in teaching lower-division Spanish language classes. Evidence of outstanding teaching and experience with comprehensively instructed instruction required. Contact Blanca Rosenthal, chair, Modern Languages and Literatures Department or e-mail bronetzki@calpoly.edu. Reference recruitment code #03030 on all materials. Closing date: Feb. 11.

SERVATIUS

Continued from page 1

York

Continued from page 1

DATELINE

Continued from page 1

Monday, January 17 (continued)

Monday, January 17

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMurrey (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Thursday and Jan. 19.

Tuesday, January 18

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMurrey (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Jan. 17.

Wednesday, January 19

Books at High Noon: Frank Owen (Mechanical Engineering) and David Braun (Electrical Engineering), "Deposing on the Right Side of the Brain" by Betty Edwards, Vermold Cafe, noon.

Music: "Show Boat," Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (Pre-concert lecture, Alyson McMurrey (Music), Philips Hall, 7 p.m. Also Jan. 17.

Thursday, January 20

Physics Colloquium: Dave Hofmanton (Physics), "Tray Economics, Science E-45, 11 a.m.

Speaker, Music: Dwight Webster (Southern University) "Salsa-a Mataro Luther King and the New Catholism." Also pianist Cecil Lytle (UC San Diego), "Rags to Other Riches." Theatre, 11 a.m. Lytle also to perform at Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church, San Luis Obispo, 7:30 p.m.

Speaker: David Braun (Electrical Engineering) and Kevin Kingsbury (Chemistry and Biochemistry), "Polymer LED (light-emitting diode) Research," Vermold Cafe, noon.

Music: Basketball, Nebraska, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (Il)

Student Friday, January 14

Swimming & Diving: Cal State Northridge, Mott Pool, 1 p.m.

Women's Basketball: Idaho, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (Il)

Lecture: Katherine: Terri Manu (Moorehead State University), "Red-White-Blues: A Celebration of Americans in the 1940s," Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, January 15

Tickets to performances on campus are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, 10 a.m. weekdays and 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

Ticket Information

Servatius

Continued from page 1

Servatius served as Management Department head for 19 years and as acting dean of the College of Business for more than a year. After retiring in 1984, he remained an active supporter of the Alumni Association, which awarded him its first Distinguished Service Award in 1999.

"Owen was one of a small group of people who early on helped to develop a curriculum for students at Cal Poly," said President Baker. "His insightful, humorous and sensitive interactions with students are remembered with great fondness by thousands of Cal Poly alumni."

It was his wish that his life and contributions be remembered through a scholarship program named for him in 1998. Send donations for the Owen Servatius College of Business Scholarship Fund to the Dean's Office, College of Business.

DARLING

Continued from page 1

Exhibits

ASFI Fine Arts Club 221 (UE): "Default Settings," an installation/student show. Through March 10. Exhibit: Monday, Friday, 9 a.m.-9 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, 1-5 p.m.

University Art Gallery (Dexter Building): William Morris Olan Art Exhibit. Through Feb. Reception: Feb. 4. Exhibit: 11 a.m.-4 p.m. daily; Wednesday, 7-9 p.m.

Wednesday, January 12

Music: John Bankston, BackStage, noon.

Music: Miami String Quartet with pianist Jon Nakamatsu, Harman Hall, 8 p.m. (Il)

Thursday, January 13

Physics Colloquium: David Braun (Electrical Engineering), "Polymer LEDs (light-emitting diodes)," Science E-45, 11 a.m.

Speaker: Father Roy Bourgeois, "Close the School of the Americas," Chumash, 7 p.m.

Wrestling: Boise State, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (Il)

Friday, January 14

Swimming & Diving: Cal State Northridge, Mott Pool, 1 p.m.

Women's Basketball: Idaho, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (Il)

Lecture: Katherine: Terri Manu (Moorehead State University), "Red-White-Blues: A Celebration of Americans in the 1940s," Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, January 15

Tickets to performances on campus are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, 10 a.m. weekdays and 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

PAGE 4

Owen Servatius, 78; served more than 50 years

Owen Servatius, management professor emeritus and the first recipient of the Cal Poly Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award, died Dec. 30.

A memorial service is planned in February. When finalized, details will be published in the Cal Poly Report.