Position vacancies

Below are the new, previously unadvertised employment opportunities at the university. Access full information about these and other previously advertised positions at www.calpoly.edu (scroll down and select "employment opportunities").

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2350 to Job line at ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 5 p.m. on the closing date or postmarked by the closing date. (No faxed/e-mail applications or resumes are accepted.)

For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants in Bargaining Units 2, 5, 7 and 9 will be given first consideration.

FACULTY (Adm. 313, ext. 6-2844). Candidates are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone numbers provided, then review information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/office chair unless otherwise noted. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timeframe where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

#03037: Dean-Visiting Assistant Professor(s), Electrical Engineering Department (756-2781). Full-time appointment beginning fall 2000 to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in the areas of digital and analog systems and communications. Candidates must have a strong commitment to teaching excellence and student learning, dedication to professional development and student advisor role, and a broad-based knowledge of undergraduate, electrical engineering fundamentals. A doctorate in electrical or computer engineering is required, with industrial experience desirable. Demonstrated ability and use of English language required. Submit resume electronically to dvonw@calpoly.edu. Closing: March 15.

#03038: Assistant/Associate Professor(s), Architectural Design Department (756-1316). Positions available beginning with the 2000-01 academic year. Positions available in digital, environmental control systems, and computer applications in architecture. Minimum qualifications: PH. in professional degree in architecture; master's degree in architecture or allied discipline (MArch, first professional degree more this requirement), experience in the profession, architectural registration and/or Ph.D. or doctorate; and related college-level teaching experience. Contact department at 756-1316 or by e-mail at architect@calpoly.edu for additional qualifications or information. Closing: March 14.

MATH: Full-Time Lecturer(s), Architecture Department (756-1316). Positions available for the 2000-01 academic year with possibility of extension for an additional year. Positions available in design, environmental control systems, and computer applications in architecture. Minimum qualifications: Ph.D. in professional degree in architecture; experience in the profession; architectural registration and/or Ph.D. - doctorate; and related college-level teaching experience. Contact department at 756-1316 or by e-mail at archmnths@calpoly.edu for additional qualifications or information. Closing: March 14.

FOUNDATION (Foundation Adm. Building, job line at ext. 6-7107). All Foundation positions must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 p.m. of the closing date. (No faxes.)

Self-defense for women to be taught Feb. 24-26

Public Safety will be offering a RAD (Rape Aggression Defense) course for faculty, staff members and students Feb. 24-26. RAD is an international program designed to teach women the options of self-defense in the event they are attacked. It includes lecture, hands-on training and dynamic simulation. During summer quarters, RAD will be offered exclusively to staff and faculty members. The 12-hour course is given once a quarter. RAD is taught by Cal Poly police officers with the help of other CSU police officers.

Public Safety is seeking donations to help with grant operating costs. For information on how to enroll in RAD or make a contribution, call Sergeant Lori Hashim at ext. 6-6656.

Extreme sports films to be shown Feb. 15

A festival of four films, each featuring a different "extreme" sport, will be shown at 7 and again at 10 p.m. on Feb. 15 in Chumash Auditorium.

"KAVU Big Festival of Outdoor Films" will include movies on back-country skiing in Russia, extreme kayaking in the Pacific Northwest and Mexico, mountain biking across the United States, and extreme skiing in Wyoming. (KAVU stands for Klear Audio Video United, an outdoor apparel company.)

Advance tickets cost $4 for students and $6 for the public. Tickets will cost $1 more at the door. Advance tickets are on sale 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday at the Poly Esoces office, UU 112.

The festival is sponsored by ASI and Poly Esoces. For more information, call ext. 6-1287.

Chancellor Reed approves degree in earth sciences

Chancellor Reed has approved Cal Poly's proposal for a new bachelor's degree program in earth sciences, effective spring quarter.

The program will appear in the 2000-2001 Catalog.

The program is multidisciplinary and will be administered by faculty members from the colleges of Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Science and Mathematics, with continued on page 4.

Ticket information

Tickets to the programs listed in today's Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

Information on Cal Poly Arts events can be found at www.calpolyarts.org.
Cal Poly Women of Year nominations due Monday

The Women’s Center is asking students to nominate women faculty and staff members for the title of Cal Poly Women of the Year. Nominations forms must be received by Monday (Feb. 7).

Nomination forms can be found at the Kennedy Library, College of Business, Campus Market, Rec Center and Women’s Center, and can be dropped off at those locations.

The program is part of “Celebrating Women,” a month-long women’s history event.

The Women of the Year will be announced at a luncheon and silent auction March 7. All women nominated will receive a certificate from Women’s Programs.

For additional information call Susanne Kelley or Rachel Raymond at the Women’s Center, ext. 6-2600.

---

Annual Pops Concert to be Feb. 26

The world of professional, classical performance will merge with the youthful exuberance of 125 student musicians in the “Magical Musical Millennium Celebration,” the Pops Concert 2000, at 8 p.m. Feb. 26 in Harman Hall.

Kevin Stewart, a member of San Francisco’s Saxophone Quintet and Wind Orchestra by Michael Kamien. Wind Orchestra I will play “Olympic Fanfare & Theme” by John Williams, “Man of the World” by Philip Sparke, “Riverrdance” by Bill Whelan, and “Freckles Bag” by Larry Buck.

Both Wind Orchestras, with more than 100 musicians combined, will play the “1812 Overture” by Tchaikovsky.

The University Jazz Band, directed by music faculty member Paul Rinzel, will play “Fly-By-Blackbird” by Ray Henderson, “Makin’ Whoopee” by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn, and “Route 66” by Bobby Troup.

Saxophone Virtuoso Stewart performed at last year’s Pops Concert and for the last two years at the San Luis Obispo Mozart Festival. He has also performed with the Detroit Symphony and the New American Chamber orchestras.

Complimentary refreshments will be served in the lobby during intermission.

Tickets are $11 to $19.

Music lovers can save 15 percent this season by buying tickets to at least three Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band concerts. Patrons can save 25 percent if buying tickets to five or more events. Remaining season concerts include "Jazz For Jazz" on March 11, two "Festival Concerts" April 15-16, "Jazz Night" May 13, and the "Spring Concert" June 3. For season ticket information and a brochure, call the Music Department at 756-2607.

---

Women and weights: topic of fitness class

Is one of your New Year’s resolutions to get into shape? Lose weight? Tone up?

Are you coming into the gym but not sure if you’re doing the right things to achieve your fitness goals?

If so, plan to join members of the Peer Health Education Team and personal trainer, will join Cal Poly Wind Orchestras I and II and the University Jazz Band in what music professor and Wind Orchestra director William Johnson describes as “an extraordinary evening of musical entertainment and social interaction.”

Program highlights include Stewart playing Concerto for Saxophone and Wind Orchestra by Michael Kamien. Wind Orchestra I will play “Olympic Fanfare & Theme” by John Williams, “Man of the World” by Philip Sparke, “Riverrdance” by Bill Whelan, and “Freckles Bag” by Larry Buck.

Both Wind Orchestras, with more than 100 musicians combined, will play the “1812 Overture” by Tchaikovsky.

The University Jazz Band, directed by music faculty member Paul Rinzel, will play “Fly-By-Blackbird” by Ray Henderson, “Makin’ Whoopee” by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn, and “Route 66” by Bobby Troup.

Saxophone Virtuoso Stewart performed at last year’s Pops Concert and for the last two years at the San Luis Obispo Mozart Festival. He has also performed with the Detroit Symphony and the New American Chamber orchestras.

Complimentary refreshments will be served in the lobby during intermission.

Tickets are $11 to $19.

Music lovers can save 15 percent this season by buying tickets to at least three Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band concerts. Patrons can save 25 percent if buying tickets to five or more events. Remaining season concerts include "Jazz For Jazz" on March 11, two "Festival Concerts" April 15-16, "Jazz Night" May 13, and the "Spring Concert" June 3. For season ticket information and a brochure, call the Music Department at 756-2607.

---

Retirement reception set for Edna Hjerrild

The Kennedy Library is hosting a retirement reception for Edna Hjerrild 2-4 p.m. Feb. 9 in Room 511 in the library.

Hjerrild started working at Cal Poly 27 years ago as a clerical assistant in the Foundation. She joined the library staff as an account clerk in 1975.

---

Recruitment on for resident advisors

The Housing and Residential Life Department asks faculty and staff members to let students know that approximately 60 resident advisors (R.A.s) will be needed for the 2000-2001 academic year.

The R.A. position provides students with an opportunity to learn about themselves, help others, and develop leadership skills. Compensation is room and board for the academic year.

Applications may be picked up at any residence hall front desk and at the Housing and Residential Life Office.

Interested students may call Diane LeGree at ext. 6-5680 for information.

---

Ag Ambassadors unite

Delegates from more than 30 colleges and universities from across the country attended the annual National Conference of Agriculture Ambassadors held on campus Jan. 21-22.

The conference included workshops on recruitment and leadership methods, a panel of industry experts who discussed the future of agriculture, and a banquet.

---

Our Staff Award correction notice

Please note these corrections to the Jan. 19 Cal Poly Report article announcing the deadline to nominate Outstanding Staff Employees.

- Darrell Blankenship and Delores Estrada were inadvertently left off the list of employees who are past award recipients, making them ineligible to receive the award again.
- Barbara Ciesielski, Joan Cirone, Don Shemenske and Dale Lacklore have retired, and their names should not have appeared.

We apologize for the confusion.

And remember, nomination forms are due Feb. 11 to French Morgan, chair, Outstanding Staff Award Selection Committee, Biological Sciences Department. Call ext. 6-2701 or e-mail fmorgan@calpoly.edu for a nomination form.

---

Women's Center announces special week

Women’s Center is announcing a special week in celebration of women in the community.

- "Jazz Night" on March 11
- "Festival Concert" April 15-16
- "Jazz Night" May 13
- "Spring Concert" June 3

For more information call ext. 6-5611.

---

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week’s edition.

Items can be e-mailed to polnews@calpoly.edu or mailed (add: calpoly-edu if needed), faxed to 6-6533, or mailed to Public Affairs, Honan Hall.

---

Retired faculty, staff honored at campus event

More than 90 retired faculty and staff members were honored on campus recently for "their efforts in making Cal Poly what it is today."

The retirees, members of the Cal Poly Retired Faculty and Staff Club, were feted at a lunch hosted by President Baker, Provost Paul Zingg and Vice President Bill Boldt.

All retired employees are invited to become members of the Retired Faculty and Staff Club. For information, call Don Morris at 773-1767.

---

"Stomp" returns to PAC Feb. 29, March 1

The percussion sensation “Stomp” is coming back to the Performing Arts Center for two performances, Feb. 29 and March 1, as an added feature of the Cal Poly Arts season.

One of the two concurrent national touring companies will produce music and laughter from sounds you have to hear to believe at 8 p.m. both nights in Harman Hall.

The eight-member troupe uses everyday objects but conventional percussion instruments — matchboxes, wooden poles, brooms, garbage cans, Zippo lighters, tubas — to fill a hall with rhythm.

“Stomp” has been an international sell-out since its premiere in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1991. It’s been packing New York’s Orpheum Theatre for six years while touring companies have been doing the same across the country and the cast has been strutting its stuff in commercials, TV appearances, and film.

The show’s pétal of awards includes an Olivier Award for Best Choreography (London’s equivalent of a Tony), an Obie in New York, an Emmy, and a Drama Desk Award for Unique Theatre Experience.

Tickets for "Stomp" go on sale today (Feb. 2) for $32 and $35.50. The Performing Arts Ticket Office is open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. To order by phone, call SLO-ARTS (ext. 6-2787); to order by fax, dial ext. 6-6088.

Cal Poly Arts is presenting “Stomp” in association with Rhythm Productions Co.
Cal Poly Women of the Year nominations due Monday

The Women's Center is asking students to nominate women faculty and staff members for the title of Cal Poly Women of the Year.

Nominations should be women who have served as role models and made the campus climate better for women. Nominations forms must be received by Monday (Feb. 7).

Nomination forms can be found at the Kennedy Library, College of Business, Campus Market, Rec Center and Women's Center, and can be dropped off at those locations.

The program is part of "Celebrating Women," a month-long women's history event.

The Women of the Year will be announced at a luncheon and silent auction March 7. All women nominated will receive a certificate from Women's Programs.

For additional information, contact Susanne Kelley or Rachel Raymond at the Women's Center, ext. 6-2600.

Ag Ambassadors unite

Delegates from more than 30 colleges and universities from across the country attended the 11th Annual Conference of Agriculture Ambassadors held on campus Jan. 21-22.

The conference included workshops on recruitment and leadership methods, a panel of industry experts who discussed the future of agriculture, and a banquet.

Annual Pops Concert to be Feb. 26

The world of professional, classical performance will merge with the youthful exuberance of 125 student musicians in the "Magical Musical Millennium Celebration," the Pops Concert 2000, at 8 p.m. Feb. 26 in Harman Hall.

Kevin Stewart, a member of San Francisco's Saxophone Quartet and music instructor, will join the Cal Poly Wind Orchestra I and II and the University Jazz Band in what music professor and Wind Orchestra director William Johnson describes as "an extraordinary evening of musical entertainment and social interaction.

Program highlights include Stewart playing Concerto for Saxophone and Wind Orchestra by Michael Kamien. Wind Orchestra I will play "Olympic Fanfare & Theme" by John Williams, "Year of the Dragon" by Philip Sparke, "Riviera Dance" by Bill Whelan, and "Freckles Rag" by Larry Buck.

Wind Orchestra II will give its premiere performance at the Pops Concert, playing "Flashing Winds" by Jon Van der Roost, "Overture Exuberance" by James L. Hosay, and the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart.

Both Wind Orchestras, with more than 100 musicians combined, will play the "1812 Overture" by Tchaikovsky. The University Jazz Band, directed by music faculty member Paul Rinzelr, will play "Fly-By-Blackbird" by Ray Henderson, "Makin' Whoopee" by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn, and "Route 66" by Bobby Troup.

The Fresno State Saxophone quartet will join Saxophone virtuoso Stewart performed at last year's Pops Concert and for the last two years at the Sat Luis Obispo Mozart Festival. He has also performed with the Detroit Symphony and the New American Chamber Orchestra.

Complimentary refreshments will be served in the lobby during intermission.

Tickets are $11 to $19. Music lovers can save 15 percent this season by buying tickets to at least three Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band concerts. Patrons can save 25 percent when buying tickets to five or more events. Remaining season concerts include "Jazzy Jazz" on March 11, two "Festival Concerts" April 15-16, "Jazz Night" May 13, and the "Spring Concert" June 3. For season ticket information and a brochure, call the Music Department at 756-2607.

The Pops Concert is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, the Music Department and the ASTI.

Women and weights topic of fitness class

Is one of your New Year's resolutions to get into shape? Lose weight? Tone up? Are you coming into the gym but not sure if you're doing the right things to achieve your fitness goals?

If so, plan to join members of the Peer Health Nutrition Team and personal trainers in a "Women and Weights" workshop at 11:30 a.m. Saturday (Feb. 5) in the Fitness Room in the Recreation Center.

Information will be presented on weight loss, fat avoidance, muscle toning, increasing strength, and cardiovascular fitness.

Discussion will also help dispel myths about weight training.

For more information, stop by the Recreation Center front desk or call ext. 6-1366.

Cal Poly Women of the Year nominations due Monday

The Women's Center is asking students to nominate women faculty and staff members for the title of Cal Poly Women of the Year.

Nominations should be women who have served as role models and made the campus climate better for women. Nominations forms must be received by Monday (Feb. 7).

Nomination forms can be found at the Kennedy Library, College of Business, Campus Market, Rec Center and Women's Center, and can be dropped off at those locations.

The program is part of "Celebrating Women," a month-long women's history event.

The Women of the Year will be announced at a luncheon and silent auction March 7. All women nominated will receive a certificate from Women's Programs.

For additional information, contact Susanne Kelley or Rachel Raymond at the Women's Center, ext. 6-2600.

Ag Ambassadors unite

Delegates from more than 30 colleges and universities from across the country attended the 11th Annual Conference of Agriculture Ambassadors held on campus Jan. 21-22.

The conference included workshops on recruitment and leadership methods, a panel of industry experts who discussed the future of agriculture, and a banquet.

Annual Pops Concert to be Feb. 26

The world of professional, classical performance will merge with the youthful exuberance of 125 student musicians in the "Magical Musical Millennium Celebration," the Pops Concert 2000, at 8 p.m. Feb. 26 in Harman Hall.

Kevin Stewart, a member of San Francisco's Saxophone Quartet and music instructor, will join the Cal Poly Wind Orchestra I and II and the University Jazz Band in what music professor and Wind Orchestra director William Johnson describes as "an extraordinary evening of musical entertainment and social interaction.

Program highlights include Stewart playing Concerto for Saxophone and Wind Orchestra by Michael Kamien. Wind Orchestra I will play "Olympic Fanfare & Theme" by John Williams, "Year of the Dragon" by Philip Sparke, "Riviera Dance" by Bill Whelan, and "Freckles Rag" by Larry Buck.

Wind Orchestra II will give its premiere performance at the Pops Concert, playing "Flashing Winds" by Jon Van der Roost, "Overture Exuberance" by James L. Hosay, and the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart.

Both Wind Orchestras, with more than 100 musicians combined, will play the "1812 Overture" by Tchaikovsky. The University Jazz Band, directed by music faculty member Paul Rinzelr, will play "Fly-By-Blackbird" by Ray Henderson, "Makin' Whoopee" by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn, and "Route 66" by Bobby Troup.

The Fresno State Saxophone quartet will join Saxophone virtuoso Stewart performed at last year's Pops Concert and for the last two years at the Sat Luis Obispo Mozart Festival. He has also performed with the Detroit Symphony and the New American Chamber Orchestra.

Complimentary refreshments will be served in the lobby during intermission.

Tickets are $11 to $19. Music lovers can save 15 percent this season by buying tickets to at least three Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band concerts. Patrons can save 25 percent when buying tickets to five or more events. Remaining season concerts include "Jazzy Jazz" on March 11, two "Festival Concerts" April 15-16, "Jazz Night" May 13, and the "Spring Concert" June 3. For season ticket information and a brochure, call the Music Department at 756-2607.

The Pops Concert is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, the Music Department and the ASTI.

Women and weights topic of fitness class

Is one of your New Year's resolutions to get into shape? Lose weight? Tone up? Are you coming into the gym but not sure if you're doing the right things to achieve your fitness goals?

If so, plan to join members of the Peer Health Nutrition Team and personal trainers in a "Women and Weights" workshop at 11:30 a.m. Saturday (Feb. 5) in the Fitness Room in the Recreation Center.

Information will be presented on weight loss, fat avoidance, muscle toning, increasing strength, and cardiovascular fitness.

Discussion will also help dispel myths about weight training.

For more information, stop by the Recreation Center front desk or call ext. 6-1366.

Retirement reception set for Edna Hjerrild

The Kennedy Library is hosting a retirement reception for Edna Hjerrild 2-4 p.m. Feb. 9 in Room 511 in the library.

Hjerrild started working at Cal Poly 27 years ago as a clerical assistant in the Foundation. She joined the library staff as an account clerk in 1975.

Recruitment on for resident advisors

The Housing and Residential Life Department asks faculty and staff members to let students know that approximately 60 resident advisors (R.A.s) will be needed for the 2000-2001 academic year.

The R.A. position provides students with an opportunity to learn about themselves, help others, and develop leadership skills. Compensation is room and board for the academic year.

Applications may be picked up at any residence hall front desk and at the Housing and Residential Life Office.

Interested students may call Diane LeGree at ext. 6-5680 for information.

Retired faculty, staff honored at campus event

More than 90 retired faculty and staff members were honored at a lunch hosted by President Derek Baker, Provost Paul Zingg and Vice President Bill Boldt.

All retired employees are invited to become members of the Retired Faculty and Staff Club. For information, call Don Morris at 773-1672.

'Stomp' returns to PAC Feb. 29, March 1

The percussion sensation "Stomp" is coming back to the Performing Arts Center for two performances, Feb. 29 and March 1, as an added feature of the Cal Poly Spring Festival.

It's been packing New York's Orpheum Theatre for six years and touring companies have been doing the same across the country and the cast has been strutting its stuff in commercials, made-for-television movies, and films.

'Stomp' was fetted at a lunch hosted by President Derek Baker, Provost Paul Zingg and Vice President Bill Boldt.

All retired employees are invited to become members of the Retired Faculty and Staff Club. For information, call Don Morris at 773-1672.
CAL POLY REPORT, FEBRUARY 2, 2000

Position vacancies

California Polytechnic State University

architectur e@calpoly.edu

to be taught Feb. 24-26

San Luis Obispo, CA

93407 employment openings at the university. Access date: March 14.

19 •

full information about these and other previously

Corrections: #09111: Grants Analyst (Administrative Correction: #07113: Manager (Administrative

Correction: #03037: Tenure-Track Assistant Professor(s),

"Extreme" sports films to be shown Feb. 15

A festival of four films, each featuring a different "extreme" sport, will be shown at 7 and again at 10 p.m. on Feb. 15 in Chumash Auditorium.

"Extreme" is defined as the festival of Outdoor Films will include movies on backcountry skiing in Russia, extreme kayaking in the Pacific Northwest and Mexico, mountain biking across the United States, and extreme skiing in Wyoming. (KAVU stands for Klear Above Visibility Unlimited, an outdoor apparel company.)

Advance tickets cost $4 for students and $6 for the public. Tickets will cost $1 more at the door. Advance tickets are on sale 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday at the Poly Esports cafe, auditorium, 7:30 p.m. ($)

Wednesday, February 10

Music: John Krause, BackStage Pizza, noon.

Thursday, February 11

Physics Colloquium: Dan Hinch (Committee to End the Gap), "SUST & Effects Of Low-Dose Radiation," Science E-45, 11 a.m. ($)

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in today's Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2778, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

Information on Cal Poly Arts events can be found at www.calpolyarts.org.

Self-defense for women to be taught Feb. 24-26

Public Safety will be offering a RAD (Rape Aggression Defense) course for faculty and staff members and students Feb. 24-26.

RAD is an international program designed to teach women the options of self-defense in the event they are attacked. It includes lecture, hands-on training and dynamic simulation. During simulator quarter, RAD will be offered exclusively to staff and faculty members. The 12-hour course is given once a quarter.

RAD is taught by Cal Poly police officers with the help of other CSU police officers.

Public Safety is seeking donations to help defray operating costs. For information on how to enroll in RAD or make a contribution, call Sergeant Lori Hashim at ext. 6-6656.

D ATE L I N E

D - Admission charged

Exhibits

Art Fine Arts Club 221 (UIE): “Default Settings,” an invitational student show. Through March 10: Exhibit: Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, noon-9 p.m. University Art Gallery (Dexter Building): William Morris Glass Exhibit. Through Sunday: Exhibit: 11 a.m.-4 p.m. daily. Wednesday, Thursday, 7-9 p.m. Friday (Feb. 4): Glass-blowing demonstration, 10 a.m., Dexter Glass Studio (Room 117), Friday (Feb. 4): Artist’s talk, 7 p.m., Business Rotunda (Room 117), reception for Louis Silvas at University Art Gallery.

Wednesday, February 2

Music: Davey Douglass, BackStage Pizza, noon.

Women’s Volleyball: UC Davis, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. ($)

Thursday, February 3

Boots at High Noon: Carl Lottin (Scientific Prisoner), "Pandie Love" by Peter Scheng, Varandas, Café, noon.

Men’s Basketball: UCSB, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. ($)

Music: Dakota Moon, Chumash Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. ($)

Friday, February 4

Women’s Basketball: CSU Fullerton, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. ($)

Saturday, February 5

Softball: Santa Clara U., Mustang Field, 2 p.m.

Men’s Basketball: Boise State, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. ($)

Sunday, February 6

Softball: St. Mary’s, Mustang Field (2 games), noon, 2 p.m.

Women’s Basketball: UC Irvine, Mott Gym, 2 p.m. ($)

Basketball: "Roman and Juliet," Douglas Opera Ballet company, Harris Hall, 3 p.m. ($) Pre-program leisure, Noon Music Salon (Theatre and Dance), 7 p.m. ($)

Continued on page 4

PAGE 4

California Polytechnic State University
San Luis Obispo, CA 93407

PAGE 4

Published by Public Affairs • www.calpoly.edu • community@calpoly.edu

Continued from page 1

Continued from page 3.

Chancellor Reed approves CalPERS mortgage for 97 percent of the cost of the home, requiring only 3 percent down payment, which could be in the form of a personal loan secured by the member’s retirement account.

Used in conjunction with the Fanny 97 program, the CalLIFE’s Second Option provides a simple-interest, deferred loan for up to 3 percent of the purchase price, to be used for part of the down payment or closing costs. Certain income restrictions apply to both programs. The CalLIFE’s Home Loan Program offers conventional fixed and FHA fixed financing at competitive interest rates to buy or refinance a home.

For information, call (800) 874-7377 or visit the Web site at www.calpers.ca.gov/loanlives.0