Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously unadvertised employment opportunities at the university. You may access this information "on line through our Human Resources Web site (www.calpoly.edu/hr) or "on line through the Human Resources Web site (www.calpoly.edu/hr) or call HR at 805/756-3291.

Callback Applications are accepted on an "as needed" basis. Please call HR at 805/756-3291 if you have questions.

FACULTY

(Continued from page 3)

Fall fee waiver schedule

Employees are reminded of the following fall quarter fee waiver deadlines:

- July 31 - Registration begins for fee waiver participants (see "Priority Areas" section).
- Aug. 15 - Last day to pay fees to avoid $25 late fee.
- Oct. 2 - Last day to submit fee waiver forms to Human Resources and Employment Office.

Fall fee waiver guidelines and forms are available under "Training and Development" on the Resources Human Resources and Employment Web site at www.calpoly.edu/hr.

Eight win prizes

Eight employees won prizes in the recent raffle benefiting the Cal Poly Car program. They are: Doug Ovetman, Facility Services, who won a cat doll; Joni Smyth, Materials Engineering; basket filled with "goodies"; Jane Brecher, Philosophy and Speech Communication, a hat set from Fashion Salon; Janice Emmiek, Construction Management, gift certificate from Poppy's; Carol Clifford, Animal Sciences, gift certificate from B-Q of Shell Beach; Mike Lund, Animal Sciences, gift certificate from Lighthouse Inn at Pacifica.

Griffin picked for award

Larry Griffin, assistant professor of materials engineering, has been selected to receive a Dow Outstanding New Faculty Award for 2000. Griffin is one of eight young faculty members from across the nation chosen to receive the award this year. Griffin, who has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1997, will receive the award at a special ceremony held by the American Society for Engineering Education in St. Louis, Mo., later this month.

FACULTY (Continued from page 3)

Fall with no account number to be shred

The Mail Center reminded campus offices that all outgoing envelopes must have an account number in the return address area.

Mail intended to be sent off campus that does not include an account number will be shred the third week of summer quarter, beginning July 3. Those who think they might have mail falling into this category should retrieve their envelopes in the Mail Center's "Unknown Mail" tub.

For more information, call ext. 6-1492.

OBITUARY

Larry Voss, 67

Larry Voss, who served the university and the CSU Chancellor's Office for 35 years in a variety of administrative and management positions, died June 13 surrounded by family and friends at a Stanford hospital where he was undergoing treatment for leukemia.

Voss served seven years as senior personnel analyst in the CSU Chancellor's Office before coming to Cal Poly in 1968 as director of personnel relations. He served as executive assistant to President Robert E. Kennedy from 1973 to 1979 and as executive assistant to President Baker from 1979 to 1985, at which time he assumed the position of associate vice president for university operations.

From 1957 to 1961 Voss served as assistant personnel director of the State Department of Education. He took a leave of absence in 1966 and 1967 from his position at the Chancellor's Office to work as assistant director for a U.S. Office of Education research program for development of guidelines for improved personnel practices in state educational agencies.

Voss was elected chairman of the Western Regional Conference of the College and University Association in 1967, served as a consultant to the State Department of Education in 1971, served on the Western Inter-State Commission for Higher Education, also in 1971, and was elected vice president of AID United (Givers) in 1975.

Shortly before he retired in 1992, Voss and his wife, Carolyn, established a music scholarship endowment in their names to provide financial aid to qualified students majoring in music.

After his retirement, he continued to serve as President of the Office in various capacities.

"Larry was a gracious and vibrant individual who left among his many friends and colleagues at Cal Poly an innumerable sense of compassion, commitment and service to the university and the community," Baker said.

"We will greatly miss him."

Johnston appointed interim ASI director

Robert Johnston, associate executive director since 1995, has been appointed interim executive director of ASI.

Johnston succeeds Soncia Lilly, who has accepted a position at UCLA. He will serve while a nationwide search for a permanent director is conducted.

Griffin picked for award

Larry Griffin, assistant professor of materials engineering, has been selected to receive a Dow Outstanding New Faculty Award for 2000. Griffin is one of eight young faculty members from across the nation chosen to receive the award this year. Griffin, who has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1997, will receive the award at a special ceremony held by the American Society for Engineering Education in St. Louis, Mo., later this month.

Johnston appointed interim ASI director

Robert Johnston, associate executive director since 1995, has been appointed interim executive director of ASI.

Johnston succeeds Soncia Lilly, who has accepted a position at UCLA. He will serve while a nationwide search for a permanent director is conducted.

Griffin picked for award

Larry Griffin, assistant professor of materials engineering, has been selected to receive a Dow Outstanding New Faculty Award for 2000. Griffin is one of eight young faculty members from across the nation chosen to receive the award this year. Griffin, who has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1997, will receive the award at a special ceremony held by the American Society for Engineering Education in St. Louis, Mo., later this month.

Johnston appointed interim ASI director

Robert Johnston, associate executive director since 1995, has been appointed interim executive director of ASI.

Johnston succeeds Soncia Lilly, who has accepted a position at UCLA. He will serve while a nationwide search for a permanent director is conducted.

Griffin picked for award

Larry Griffin, assistant professor of materials engineering, has been selected to receive a Dow Outstanding New Faculty Award for 2000. Griffin is one of eight young faculty members from across the nation chosen to receive the award this year. Griffin, who has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1997, will receive the award at a special ceremony held by the American Society for Engineering Education in St. Louis, Mo., later this month.
Students take top honors in auto design contest
(Cal Poly’s student chapter of the Society of Automotive Engineers won in two categories and finished in the top 19 at the year’s Formula SAE international automotive design competition.
The contest challenged engineering students to conceive, design, fabricate and compete with formidable race cars — open-wheel, single-seat racers with unrestricted 600-cubic centimeter engine.
This year, students from 194 universities in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Japan and the United Kingdom competed.
Cal Poly’s team won in the Methanol Fuel Division and in the Food Division.
All teams were evaluated on the design of the car, an oral presentation of the project, and cost analysis.
On-track events included autonomous (open speed and handling), endurance and fuel economy, and acceleration.
Texas A&M University won first place, with the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and Cal Poly Pomona finishing second and third, respectively.
Cal Poly team members, all mechanical engineering students, included Adam Brinkman, Mike Freeston, Nicholas Gaili, (Hemmy) Sean Leslie and Will Smith.
The team was coached by Joe Mello, a Cal Poly mechanical engineering professor, and Mike O’Neill from Titan Engineering in Buellton. D

Two engineering students selected for award
The Industrial Advisory Board of the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department has chosen two students to receive board-sponsored Professional Advancement Awards for 2000.
The winners are Janet Crumrine, a civil engineering senior, and Brian Dragich, an environmental engineering senior. Each student will receive $500.
Candidates for the award were rated using seven criteria: awareness of professional goals, scholarship, work experience, participation in professional organizations at the student level, community service, campus activities, and other attributes that serve as a foundation for entry into the professional work force.
Made up of 25 industry professionals and leaders, the department’s Industrial Advisory Board convenes two years on campus and provides input and support to the department and its students.
In 1998, the board established an endowment fund to recognize civil and environmental engineering students with cash awards for outstanding efforts in preparation for a professional career.

O B I T U R Y

Tommie Lewis Jones, 82
Tommie Lewis Jones, retired Cal Poly plumber, died June 3 in an Arroyo Grande hospital.
Jones worked at Cal Poly from 1964 until 1980.
A native of Taylor, Texas, Jones moved to Arroyo Grande in 1954. He was involved in many youth activities, including the Boy Scouts of America, Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball.

Celebration of life planned for MacDonald
Jackie MacDonald, University Police dispatcher since 1995, died June 10 in a Ontario Hills hospital.
MacDonald was seriously injured when a drunk driver struck her vehicle last November. During the past eight months, she struggled to overcome devastating injuries.
"Size was truly an example of strength and determination," said Cindy Campbell, program manager with the University Police. "MacDonald’s ultimate goal was to return to work with the University Police.
The campus community is invited to attend a celebration of MacDonald’s life at 10 a.m. Thursday (June 22) at the Leasing Pine Arboretum on campus.
In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made to the Leasing Pine Arboretum or the Humane Society.

Williams wins
Libby Williams, administrative support coordinator in Academic Records, won a $25 gift certificate to El Corral bookstore in a prize drawing held by Human Resources and Employment Equity for employees who returned their Data Survey.

Tenure, promotion awards announced
President Baker has announced the promotion of 21 faculty members and the award of tenure to 12 faculty members effective in the 2000-2001 academic year.
The promotions include 12 to the rank of professor, eight to associate professor, and four to assistant professor.
Those receiving promotions and/or tenure are:

Promotion to professor:
College of Agriculture — Marianne Wolf (Agribusiness) and Phillip Tong (Dairy Science).

College of Business — Phillip Fanchon (Economics), Alden Skerer (Economics) and Norm Borin (Marketing).

College of Engineering — Sigurd meldal (Computer Science).

College of Liberal Arts — Joseph Kelly Moreno (Psychology and Human Development) and Maria Juco (Theatre and Dance).

College of Science and Mathematics — Kellie Green Hall (Physical Education and Kinesiology) and Nilgun Sungur (Physics).

University Center for Teacher Education — Elaine Chin and Rita Kraj.

Promotion to associate professor:

College of Engineering — Eric Kaspar (Civil and Environmental Engineering), David Braun (Electrical Engineering), Fred dePiero (Electrical Engineering) and Lanny Griffin (Materials Engineering).

College of Science and Mathematics — Christopher Kline (Biological Sciences), Mary "Samm" Ripper (Chemistry and Biochemistry) and R. c. Wolfall (Chemistry and Biochemistry).

continued on page 4
PARKING STRUCTURE

The parking structure on Grand Avenue is under construction. Without further delays, the structure should be open by the end of summer, according to university officials.

A wet winter and retrofitting delayed the project. Most of the current work is being conducted in the interior areas of the building. It includes painting, electrical, waterproofing, and forming. Some of the remaining effort depends on completion of the blockwork.

Vicki Stover, associate vice president for administration and finance, said the retrofit has taken longer than expected.

OBITUARY

Tommie Lewis Jones, 82
Tommie Lewis Jones, retired Cal Poly plant, died June 3 in an Arroyo Grande hospital.

Jones worked at Cal Poly from 1964 until 1980. He was a native of Taylor, Texas. Jones moved to Arroyo Grande in 1954. He was involved in many youth activities, including the Boy Scouts of America, Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball.

Celebration of life planned for MacDonald

Jackie MacDonald, University Police dispatcher since 1995, died June 10 in a Concord Hills hospital.

MacDonald was seriously injured when a drunk driver struck her vehicle last November. During the past eight months, she struggled to overcome devastating injuries.

"She was truly an example of strength and determination," said Cindy Campbell, program manager with the University Police. "MacDonald's ultimate goal was to return to work with the University Police.

The campus community is invited to attend a celebration of MacDonald's life at 10 a.m. Thursday (June 22) at the Leasing Point Arborium on campus.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for contributions to the Leasing Point Arborium on campus.

Statement of Interest: Please attach a sheet stating your reasons for wanting to serve on the committee selected above and any applicable experience or background that may apply.

For Review Committee Use Only

Date of Review: ________________________________
Application Status:

Committee Assignment: Staff Member Notified: ________________________________

Committee Chair Signature: ________________________________ Date: ________________

Tenure, promotion awards announced

President Baker has announced the promotion of 21 faculty members and the award of tenure to 12 faculty members effective in the 2000-2001 academic year. The promotions include 12 to the rank of professor, eight to associate professor, and one to student services professional-academic related.

Those receiving promotions and/or tenure are:

Promotion to professor:

College of Agriculture — Marianne Wolf (Agricultural and Human Sciences), and Phillip Tong (Dairy Science).

College of Business — Hugh Fanchon (Economics), and Norm Borus (Marketing).

College of Engineering — Sigurd Meldal (Computer Science). College of Liberal Arts — Joseph Kellie (Psychology and Human Development) and Maria Jones (Theatre and Dance).

College of Science and Mathematics — Kellie Green (Physics), Dyllon Sopuck (Chemistry) and Nilgun Sungur (Physics).

University Center for Teacher Education — Elaine Chin and Ritu Kripa.

Promotion to associate professor:

College of Engineering — Eric Kasper (Civil and Environmental Engineering), Fred DePiero (Electrical Engineering), and Lanny Griffin (Materials Engineering).

College of Science and Mathematics — Christopher Kite (Biological Sciences), and crab Wolf (Chemistry).

College of Social Science — Mary "Sam" (Chemistry and Biochemistry) and R. Kipling (Chemistry and Biochemistry).

Continued on page 4

STAFF MEMBERS INVITED TO SERVE ON COMMITTEES

Staff members, including state, foundation and ASI, are invited to submit an application to fill the following vacancies on campuswide standing committees:

• Campus Fee Advisory Committee (2000-2001)
• Status of Women Committee (2000-2001)
• Substance Use and Abuse Advisory Committee (2000-2001)

An appointment committee, chaired by Mrs. McDonald, director of human resources and employment equity, will screen applications and forward recommendations to President Baker. Staff members interested in serving on any of these committees should contact the Office of Human Resources and Employment Equity.

Two engineering students selected for award

The Industrial Advisory Board of the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department has chosen two students to receive board-sponsored Professional Advancement Awards for 2000.

The winner is Janet Cruzmore, a civil engineering senior, and Brian Dogrig, an environmental engineering senior. Each student will receive $500.

Candidates for the award were rated using seven criteria: awareness of professional goals, scholarship, work experience, participation in professional organizations at the student level, community service, campus activities, and other attributes that serve as a foundation for entry into the professional work force.

Made up of 25 industry professionals and leaders, the department's Industrial Advisory Board convenes twice yearly on campus and provides input and support to the department and its students. In 1998, the board established an endowment fund to recognize civil and environmental engineering students with awards for outstanding efforts in preparation for a professional career.

Students take top honors in auto design contest

Cal Poly's student chapter of the Society of Automotive Engineers won in two categories and finished in the top 19 at this year's Formula SAE international automotive design competition.

The contest challenges engineering students to conceive, design, fabricate and compete with formula-stye race cars — open wheel, single-seat racers with a restricted 600-cubic centimeter engine.

This year, students from 194 universities in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Japan and the United Kingdom competed.

Cal Poly's team won in the Methanol Fuel Division and the Performance Economy Division.

All teams were evaluated on the design of the car, an oral presentation of the project, and cost analysis. On-track events included autonomous (open speed and handling), endurance and fuel economy, and acceleration.

Texas A&M University won first place, with the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and Cal Poly Pomona finishing second and third, respectively.

Cal Poly team members, all mechanical engineering students, included Adam Brinkman, Mike Freeston, Nicholas Gali, (Hem) Sean Leslie and Will Smith.

The team was coached by Joe Mello, a Cal Poly mechanical engineering professor, and Mike O'Neil from Ticon Engineering in Buellton.

Williams wins

Libby Williams, administrative support coordinator in Academic Records, won a $25 gift certificate to El Corral bookstore in a prize drawing held by Human Resources and Employment Equity for employees who returned their Data Employee Survey.

Tenure, promotion awards announced

President Baker has announced the promotion of 21 faculty members and the award of tenure to 12 faculty members effective in the 2000-2001 academic year. The promotions include 12 to the rank of professor, eight to associate professor, and one to student services professional-academic related.

Those receiving promotions and/or tenure are:

Promotion to professor:

College of Agriculture — Marianne Wolf (Agricultural and Human Sciences), and Phillip Tong (Dairy Science).

College of Business — Hugh Fanchon (Economics), and Norm Borus (Marketing).

College of Engineering — Sigurd Meldal (Computer Science). College of Liberal Arts — Joseph Kellie (Psychology and Human Development) and Maria Jones (Theatre and Dance).

College of Science and Mathematics — Kellie Green (Physics), Dyllon Sopuck (Chemistry) and Nilgun Sungur (Physics).

University Center for Teacher Education — Elaine Chin and Ritu Kripa.

Promotion to associate professor:

College of Engineering — Eric Kasper (Civil and Environmental Engineering), Fred DePiero (Electrical Engineering), and Lanny Griffin (Materials Engineering).

College of Science and Mathematics — Christopher Kite (Biological Sciences), and crab Wolf (Chemistry).

College of Social Science — Mary "Sam" (Chemistry and Biochemistry) and R. Kipling (Chemistry and Biochemistry).

Continued on page 4

William Williams wins

Libby Williams, administrative support coordinator in Academic Records, won a $25 gift certificate to El Corral bookstore in a prize drawing held by Human Resources and Employment Equity for employees who returned their Data Employee Survey.
Position vacancies

Below are all the new, presently unadvertised employment opportunities at the university. You may access full information about these or other, previously advertised positions at www.calpoly.edu (scroll down and select "Employment Opportunities.")

To access the three office, 1st floor of the Student Services Center, and view the posted positions, call the FREE Job Line at ext. 6-433. For a listing of new openings, check The Tribune's Sunday edition.

Please note that beginning in July, applications for job openings must be received in the Human Resources and Employment Office, 11th floor, by 5 p.m. on the closing date. Envelopes postmarked by the deadline will no longer be accepted.

If you have questions, please call HREE at ext. 6-2257.

FACULTY (Candidates are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information or to request an application. Additional position requirements and qualifications for each position may also be found online at http://www.calpoly.edu/academics/career opps/.)

- Check the Human Resources and Employment Web site at www.calpoly.edu, under Employment Opportunities.
- Come to the FREE office, 1st floor, and view the posted positions.
- Call the FREE Job Line at ext. 6-433.
- For a listing of new openings, check The Tribune's Sunday edition.

Fall fee waiver scheduler

Employees are reminded of the following fall quarter fee waiver deadlines:

- Sept. 17 - Last day to submit fee waiver forms to Human Resources and Employment Office. (No fax accepted.)
- Oct. 2 - Last day to submit fee waiver forms to Human Resources and Employment Office.
- Oct. 2 - Fee waiver guidelines and forms are available under "Training and Development" on the Human Resources and Employment Web site at www.calpoly.edu.
- Oct. 26 - Last day to submit fee waiver forms to Human Resources and Employment Office.
- Oct. 27 - Deadline for the next issue, July 5.
- Oct. 28 - Last day to submit fee waiver forms to Human Resources and Employment Office.

Eight win prizes

Eight volunteers win prizes in the most recent raffle of selling the Cal Poly Post card program. They are: Doug Ovetman, Facility Services, who won a cat doll; Patty Smith, Materials Engineering, who won a basket filled with "goodies;" Jane Brecher, Philosophy and Speech Communication, who won a hat from Fastowed Salon; Janice Emmank, Construction Management, who won a gift certificate from Poppy's; Carol Clifford, Payroll, who won a gift certificate from Alex's Bar B-Q of Shell Beach; Mike Lund, Animal Sciences, who won a car; and Robert Patten, overnight stay at Cambria Pines Lodge; and Boonie Lowe, Facilities Planning, who won an overnight stay at Best Western Lighthouse Inn at Pacifica.

Page 4