Pat Base Named Queen Of Annual Poly Royal

Lovely Pat Base of Pomona, 18-years old San Jose coed who aspires to become an airline stewardess, was selected by the student body last night to reign over the 24th Annual Poly Royal here April 27-28. Miss Base will have as her princesses Rhonda Dallmer, 18, of Sunnyvale; and Patti Kaiser, 16, of Fresno. Miss Chase wishes to become a kindergarten-primary teacher, and Miss Kaiser would like to be a home economics teacher in the business field with emphasis on advertising.

Dining Hall Hosts Poly-Bulldog Rally

Tomorrow night's program will be held in California Hall with the song girls from Fresno State with the rally getting underway at 8 p.m. Also on campus for the event will be Poly Basketball, Poly Band, Poly Girls, Poly Cheer, Poly Royale, and Poly Court.

John MacKintosh, chairman of police, says that the purpose of this rally is to promote more spirit for the games, the reason for inviting the Bulldog girls.

Mustangs In CCAA Clash Here
With Fresno Bulldogs Tomorrow

That annual paint-in-the-neck pack, the growing Bulldog of Fresno State, will stop the CCAA title on the block tomorrow night at 8:30 in the Mustangs in California. We expect another competitive game in this year's title. Whatever the thought of the Mustangs about tomorrow night's game, the thought is not about the future of the Mustangs. Total revenue less than the cost of operating the event, amounting to about $4,000.00, will be removed from the IIAC. It is scheduled athletic event.

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor:

In last Friday's El Mustang appeared an op-ed entitled "The Thing Humores". This column was written in such a manner as to leave the impression that humor was not to be taken seriously.

The decision to publish the column was that of the Editor-in-Chief, Mrs. Halstrom, who went along in capacity as Managing Editor.

I am one of those who don't think El Mustang is a failure. In fact, I feel that it is a very successful newspaper to be writing in. The Editor-in-Chief decided that humor should not be dismissed as lightly, especially just because other college newspapers don't publish funny things. Personally, I am all for a college humor column, but it is primarily humorous happenings on campus. Perhaps something like "Beguiled by the Bay" column in the San Francisco Examiner, which would be just the thing. At our school, the column "Ask The Last" is a good start in the right direction.

Instead, keep up the good work as a college weekly newspaper.

Off Beat

By Litch

Attention Mustangs! Here's a little background info for halftime tonight. George Bailey, director of the American Union High School, has organized a group of half-time students. He has arranged to have a parade of Indian maidens in the Canadian wood. Among the formations will be a tree, a church, a canoe, and performances by the Poly Royal Queen's band. There are many stunts in the Indian style between them—take it face to face—total of seven minutes. This will give Bailey an idea of the workmanship of the published repertoire. The line-up of activities is a group of Debussy, "The Lidder and the Indian". It's the story of the Indian maiden in the Canadian wood. Among the formations will be the tree, the church, the canoe, and performances by the Poly Royal Queen's band.

Your point is taken. The editors and staff are to blame for any mistakes in the newspaper, or copy that appears in the newspaper, regardless of who is responsible for it. Even the straight news story must be checked. If you have no experience in newspaper work, perhaps you should not be in charge of the newspaper. I am of the opinion that there should have been a better column in the El Mustang, which would be more accurate and informative. From my experience in the newspaper, I have had no experience in making copies. The only thing that matters is the final product, regardless of how it was produced. From the faculty, I have heard no disparaging comments about members of the student body. From the students, I have heard no disparaging comments about members of the faculty. The students' opinions are as good as the faculty's.

Identification of the column was confused, because the column was signed "Off Beat". Perhaps if the column had been signed "By Litch", it would have been more accurate. More Matmen Needed

The Frosh Loom Favoritoi took the 191 pound crown. Sophomors took two slights of 64 lbs and 102 lbs respectively with a sophomore taking third with 198 lbs.

Frosh Loom Favoritoi

The Frosh Loom Favoritoi defeated the Foothill Spartans 44-0. The game, which was held at the Frosh Loom Favoritoi, was the first competitive game for the Favoritoi. The Favoritoi dominated the game from the start, scoring touchdowns on their first possession and never looking back. The Favoritoi's defense held the Spartans to just 14 points, while their offense scored 23 points. The Favoritoi's quarterback, Jerry Brown, had a strong performance, throwing for 230 yards and two touchdowns. The Favoritoi's running back, Tom Green, rushed for 120 yards and two touchdowns. The Favoritoi's defense was led by linebacker Bill Johnson, who had 10 tackles and a sack. The Favoritoi's next game is against the Foothill Spartans on November 5th.
