CONTENTS

"KINDNESS TO ALL AROUND": The Changing Ethics of Animal Treatment in the Middle-Class Household, 1820-1870
Katherine C. Grier .......................................................... 181
   Commentary by Mark William Barber (p. 194)

SHOULD WE GENETICALLY ENGINEER HOGS?
Gary Comstock .............................................................. 196
   Response: Of Pigs and Primitive Notions by David Detmer (p. 203)

MORAL ISSUES ASSOCIATED WITH BIOENGINEERED SPECIES:
Stewardship, Abuse and Sustainability
Natalie Dandekar and Edward Zlotkowski .................................. 209
   Response: Dr. Frankenstein and Today's Professional Biotechnologist:
             A Failed Analogy? by Laura Westra (p. 216)
   Reply by Natalie Dandekar and Edward Zlotkowski (p. 222)

ANIMALS IN THE ORIGINAL POSITION
Lilly-Marlene Russow .................................................. 224
   Commentary: On the Utility of Contracts by Steve F. Sapontzis (p. 229)
   Reply by Lilly-Marlene Russow (p. 232)

A COMMUNITY OF INTEREST
Robert F. Welborn ....................................................... 234

FICTION: “Spring Trials,” Maria Comninou (p.237)
POETRY: “Little Fox,” Betty Clayton (p. 236)
BOOKS RECEIVED (p. 240)

Vol. 8, No. 4