Bulldog Bite Could Prove Much Meaner Than Bark

Beware of the Bulldogs! They have been kicked and beaten three times this season—first by Brigham Young University, 20-7, then by the San Diego Maple, 25-6, and finally, while crippled from previous blows, by Santa Barbara, 29-7, then by the San Diego Marliners, 20-8, and finally, while crippled from previous blows, by the San Diego Maples, 20-8, and finally, while crippled from previous blows, by Santa Barbara, 25-22.

After the Gauchos' victory, the pack limped back to Fresno to lick their wounds for two weeks. Now for the first time this season the Fresno State Bulldogs will be challenged by Coach Van Gorder to battle a grid for unprecedented by any team and expected to be more victorious than expected. The Bulldogs have been prepared in every phase of the game, including counter with Cal Poly at this Saturday, and will count with Cal Poly at this Saturday, and will

Prank Turns Into Felony; Little Banner Information

A check with San Jose City Police Wednesday revealed that no one has been identified concerning the returning of the " Mustang" banner. According to police, who were notified immediately after the student's was taken, there was no license plate numbers and a number of proof of anything.

"We will let the college know as soon as we catch the thieves," said an officer. "But it's hard to prove anything." The banner was taken during the first football game of the season.

Leading California breeders who have entered "The Bicentennial" will be judged in western California Saturday, Dec. 10 at the San Francisco Coliseum. The trophies will be awarded for the best "junior" and "junior-senior", 2-year-old, and "senior," 3-year-old, Steers.

Poly Splashes Host Gauchos

Mustang water poloists are swimming in the lead for today's match with Santa Barbara. Splash-off time is set for 4 p.m. at the Poly pool.

With last week's triple victory over Occidental College spurring them on, the varsity and junior squads are eager for another win to offset the early season dunks they took during a slow start.

"Little is known about the Gauchos splasher who have been kept busy under wraps so far this season," said Coach Dick Anderson. Mustangs have improved with each splash and will enter the pool with confidence. "The Occidentals are just what we needed," said Anderson.

Four more swimmers who helped defeat the Tigers last week can be counted upon against Santa Barbara. They are Allen Starr, Don Rutten, Bob Downey and Irwin Haydock.

Dear Editor:

"...will entertain Poly students with four hours of Jazz this Thursday..." Charles Mariano, on the alto sax... Bud Shank and his quintet will headline the Fall Jazz Festival...

Main, sounds great! But how's this what we attended Thursday? When you call the ticket office you should do great on Mission Ave.

Did the Assembly Committee's issues these over-exuberent phrasing? Does this indicate the Committee's opinion of the Student Body's mentality? Perhaps that opinion can best be summed up in the following from the prices to this event, "$1 for students, $2 for adults."

We are grateful, however, to know that our coeds made it back to their boudoirs in time for curfew but, for what reason did Shank have to obey by said curfew? Perhaps the student body officials can best be summed up in the following from the tickets to this event, "$1 for students, $2 for adults."

The AHR office received the following complaint: "I am writing to inform you of the way the Assembly Committee handles the phrase 'student body.'" The complaint continues: "Perhaps the student body officials can best be summed up in the following from the tickets to this event, "$1 for students, $2 for adults."

All students in ROA, ESHA, and Rollins were invited, and that is what the student body officials can best be summed up in the following from the tickets to this event, "$1 for students, $2 for adults."

Call an Assembly Committee official and find out if the student body officials can best be summed up in the following from the tickets to this event, "$1 for students, $2 for adults."
