Cal Poly names three distinguished teachers

A physics professor, business administration professor and English professor were selected to receive Cal Poly's 1994-95 Distinguished Teacher awards.

Ronald Brown, a member of the Physics Department since 1974; Lee Burgunder, in Business Administration since 1983; and Nancy Lucas, in English since 1977, each received a check for $1,000 from funds provided by the Alumni Association. They will also be honored with plaques at the general session of Cal Poly's Fall Conference.

Brown has been active in a number of university organizations. He has served as vice chairman of the Academic Senate and chair of the Senate's Instruction and Executive committees. He was also the Academic Senate's representative on the Charter Campus Task Force and a member of the Charter Campus Vision Committee.

In 1988 and 1994 he received an award from the College of Engineering which is given to an outstanding teacher in the College of Science and Mathematics, and in 1988 he also received the College of Architecture and Environmental Design's award given to honor a professor in the School of Science and Mathematics. Brown also earned the university's Meritorious Performance and Professional Promise Award in 1987.

He teaches classes in general physics, physics for architects, modern physics and solid state physics.

Brown earned a bachelor's degree in 1962, a master's in 1964 and a doctorate in 1968, all from UC Riverside.

Burgunder teaches business law and public policy in the Business Administration Department.

He has been recognized many times by his colleagues and students for his outstanding teaching.

'Outstanding' employees named for 1994-95

Francesca Fairbrother of the Mathematics Department, Joyce Kalicicki, University Center for Teacher Education, and Lorraine Ridgeway, Student Affairs, have been selected Outstanding Staff Employees for 1994-95.

They will each receive $300 and a plaque at a presentation ceremony during the general session of Cal Poly's Fall Conference. The cash prize is provided by a private endowment fund.

Fairbrother, an office manager, came to Cal Poly as a biology student in 1970. She worked as a student assistant while pursuing a degree and in 1973 was hired as a clerical assistant in the Kennedy Library. She transferred to the Mathematics Department in 1976 and has since earned two promotions.

Fairbrother is continuing her education as a history major at Cal Poly.

Kalicicki began her employment at Cal Poly as a junior typist clerk in the Records Office in 1960. After a six-month leave in 1964, she returned to the Records Office.

The credential analyst has served as a clerical assistant and an evaluation technician in the Education Department. In 1980 she was promoted to her present position.

Ridgeway was first hired as a General Office clerk in 1955. She worked in that office for four years, then left Cal Poly. In 1965, she was rehired in the Business Administration Department.

Bartels, 53

Retired landscape architecture professor Jorg Bartels died Monday, June 5, at a San Luis Obispo convalescent hospital. He had been ill since undergoing surgery to remove a brain tumor in 1988.

A memorial service is planned for 4 pm today, at Unity Christ Church in San Luis Obispo.

Bartels was born and raised in Germany. He came to New York in 1967, earned a master's degree in landscape architecture at the University of Massachusetts, and returned to Germany with his wife, Judy, in 1972.

While in Germany, he taught at the Technical University of Munich.

He came to Cal Poly in 1979 and retired in 1989. He was honored with an Outstanding Educator Award from the Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture in 1981.

Bartels designed and built his own home, for which he received an Obispo Beautiful award for new construction in 1990.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, his mother, two sisters and three brothers.

Cal Poly recognizes 3,400 degree candidates

Approximately 3,400 diplomas and certificates were conferred at Cal Poly's 1995 Spring Commencement ceremonies, June 10.

Participating students were expected to complete degree requirements during the winter, spring or summer quarter.

About 300 master's degrees, 3,100 bachelor's, and five technical certificates were conferred.

Grad’s photos examine San Joaquin Valley

San Joaquin Valley photographer and Cal Poly graduate Robert Cochran is exhibiting “Valleyscapes: Exploring Mythical Spaces” in the UU Galerie through Thursday, July 20.

Cochran’s black-and-white photographs reveal the artist’s fascination with the Valley as both visually stunning landscape and metaphysical metaphor - a “mythical, magical space.”

Mythic reality, in Cochran’s view, is a state of mind outside of time. Mythic space is anywhere one finds harmony with the universe.

A reception for Cochran will be held from 3 to 5 pm Saturday, July 8, in the Galerie.

Central Valley native Cochran has long been fascinated by photography. He took photo courses at Cal Poly and exhibited his work in university shows while earning a bachelor’s degree in ag business management. He graduated in 1985.

Now working in fruit cultivation research for UC Davis, he has developed a body of work that has been included in international group exhibitions in Southern California and one-man shows in California and Arizona. The Valleyscapes exhibit is his first return to campus.

Summer hours for the University Union Galerie are Tuesday and Wednesday from 10 am to 5 pm; Thursday, 10 am to 8 pm; Friday, 10 am to 4 pm; Saturday, noon to 4 p.m.; and Sunday, 2 to 4 pm.

For more information, call Galerie Director Jeanne LaBarbera at ext. 1182.

Floristry materials donated to library

A San Luis Obispo foundation that provides scholarships to students in floristry and floriculture has donated its historical materials to the Kennedy Library’s Special Collections Department.

The Joseph Shinoda Memorial Scholarship Foundation donated its historical papers and other documents, as well as $500, to be used to organize, house and maintain the collection.

Several of the foundation's scholarship recipients have been students in Cal Poly’s ornamental horticulture program.

Rec Sports to offer wellness programs

Recreational Sports has designed two fitness programs for people who are new to exercise and want to meet their fitness goals in a relaxed and informal environment.

Participants do not need to be members of the Rec Center to join either of the following programs:

- Aquatic Exercise: This 60-minute workout uses the water's resistance to strengthen, tone and condition. Classes meet in Crandall Pool, an indoor, warm-water facility. Classes will meet for nine weeks on Mondays and Wednesdays beginning June 26 from 5:15 to 6:15 pm. The cost is $40.

- Power Walking: Sixty minutes of brisk walking will improve cardiovascular function and endurance. Walking, the nation’s latest fitness trend, offers a convenient, inexpensive and varied workout with minimal risk. Classes will meet for nine weeks on Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning June 27 from 5:15 to 6:15 pm in front of the Rec Center. The cost is $29.

To sign up for a class or for more information, call ext. 1366.

FAS training available

The Budget Planning and Administration Department is offering training to staff members on the use of the Financial Accounting System (FAS) to monitor department budgets. The training is conducted in a computer lab using hands-on exercises supplemented by lecture.

Staff members interested in participating in the training should contact Karen Phillips or Joann Trew at ext. 2091 or via e-mail at dv044@oasis.

Training sessions, based on demand, will run through the summer quarter. Please note that on-line access to FAS is required prior to participating in a training session. You may gain on-line access by contacting Ruth Hale at ext. 7419 or via e-mail at du027@oasis.
Vanpools, TMA shuttles offer convenience

Summer Vans
Commuter Services invites employees to try one of Cal Poly’s vanpools during summer quarter.
Vanpools are relaxing, inexpensive and great “stress busters.” State, ASI and Foundation employees can ride from Paso Robles and other North County cities as well as Los Osos, Santa Maria, and the Five Cities areas.
Vans are scheduled to accommodate a variety of work schedules.
Call Commuter Services at ext. 6680 for a first-time free ride pass.

Airport Shuttle
Employees planning a vacation that begins or ends at the San Luis Obispo Airport or the Amtrak station can use the convenient shuttle service provided by the county’s Transportation Management Association.
TMA offers shuttle service to and from the airport and train station for $8 or less, one way. Pick-ups can be arranged from your home.
Arrangements for rides must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Call the TMA office at 543-RTMA (7862) or 541-8747.
To find out about other TMA services, call Jacquie Paulsen of Commuter Services at ext. 6680.

Artist’s references donated to library

A large collection of reference works used by Cambria artist Mary T. Bowling has been donated to the library’s Special Collections Department.
Bowling, who died in January at age 77, was named the Los Angeles Times’ Woman of the Year in Art in 1957. She is well known for giant mosaic plaques (called intarsias) displayed in West Coast buildings.
The personal library comprises reference works that Bowling used in creating her art. Prominent among the volumes are works on the history, anthropology, art and cosmology of pre-Columbian Central America.
The collection includes books in Swedish, German and French as well as English and Spanish. It also includes facsimile editions of Mayan manuscripts, chronicles of early explorers, and government documents.

Two students selected for Rotary scholarships

Two students were awarded $21,500 scholarships that will allow them to study at overseas universities for a year.
Lori Blanc, a graduate computer science student, and Cynthia Webb, a senior journalism major, were awarded 1996-97 Rotary Foundation Academic Year Ambassadorial Scholarships.
Blanc has chosen to study at either the Royal Holloway, University of London or the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, because of those schools’ strong cognitive science departments.
Webb will travel to Spain to study at either the University of Seville or the University of Barcelona to further her study of the Spanish language.
During the year, the students will visit Rotary Clubs, schools, and civic organizations as ambassadors of goodwill.
Blanc was sponsored by the Rotary Club of San Luis Obispo and Webb by the Rotary Club of Morro Bay.
The Rotary scholarships are intended to foster international understanding and good relations among people of different countries.
Four scholarships were awarded from a pool of more than 20 candidates in the Central California Rotary district. Both male and female students are eligible for the scholarships, which give students an opportunity to study in any country in which there are Rotary Clubs.

Appointments

Paul Adalian Jr., head of reference at the Kennedy Library, has been appointed interim associate dean of the library. A member of the staff since 1978, Adalian will assist in overall management and policy formulation.
Albert Censullo, a member of the Chemistry Department since 1974, has been appointed department chair. He will serve a four-year term.
Gilbert Cooke of Cooke & Associates in Baltimore, Md., has been appointed director of the Architecture Department. He will begin his duties Sept. 1.

Two SIS Plus sessions set for summer

Two SIS (Student Information System) Plus training sessions have been scheduled for summer quarter: Tuesday, July 18, from 9:30 to 11 am and Thursday, Aug. 3, 1:30 to 3 pm.
Both will be held in Chase Hall 104. To sign up, call Jane Paris at ext. 2723.

K-8 materials on display at library

Materials that the California State Board of Education is considering for adoption in the area of health education for children in kindergarten through eighth grade are on display at the Kennedy Library until October.
The materials are located in the Learning Resources Display Center on the second floor.
Comments on educational content must be postmarked by July 18 to be considered by the state’s Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission.

CCAT passes on sale

For summer quarter, CCAT bus passes will be sold at the ASI Ticket Office at the Recreation Center.
Ticket office summer hours are 10 am to 2 pm.
...Distinguished teachers received the College of Business’s Most Outstanding Teacher and Distinguished Teaching awards in 1985 and the Outstanding Faculty Emeritus Award in 1990. Burgunder was named best lecturer in the Master of Business Administration program in 1994 and best teacher in the Business Administration Department four times. He also earned the university’s Meritorious Performance and Professional Promise Award in 1986 and 1988.

Burgunder has served on numerous university committees, including the Steering Committee for Western Association of Schools and Colleges accreditation self-study and the Intellectual Property Rights Policy Committee, and has been a member of the Academic Senate since 1984.

He earned a bachelor’s degree in 1977 from Dartmouth College and a law degree and an MBA from Stanford in 1981.

Lucas teaches Victorian and women’s literature classes.

She has published articles and made presentations on such topics as Shakespeare, Virginia Woolf, teaching women writers in the ‘90s and writing anxiety. In 1994 a juried paper she presented at the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast Conference was chosen “best in session.”

Her university activities have been extensive and include serving as graduate coordinator for the English master’s program, affirmative action coordinator for the department, and as a member of the London advisory, sexual harassment, affirmative action grants, and grievance committees. She also serves on the Women’s Studies Advisory Board.

Lucas received a bachelor’s degree from Incarnate Word College in 1964, a master’s in 1966 and a doctorate in 1973 from the University of Illinois, Urbana.

Cal Poly has named 99 distinguished professors since the awards program began in 1964.

...Outstanding staff

secretary in the College of Business dean’s office, and in 1985 she was reassigned to the Student Affairs Division, where she has remained and earned two promotions.

Ridgeway plans to retire in fall 1995.

The outstanding staff members are nominated by faculty and staff members and reviewed by a committee of former award recipients. President Baker names the outstanding staff employees on the basis of the committee’s recommendations.

Extension offers summer morning classes

Extended Education is offering a range of week-long summer morning classes for seniors and anyone else 18 or older, beginning July 10.

Topics will range from anthropology and astronomy to political cartooning, history of the Central Coast, and the geology of natural disasters.

Classes will meet from 9 am to 12:30 pm with a break from 10:30 to 11. The fee for each class is $40. For more information call Extended Education at ext. 2053.

CPR summer schedule

This is the first summer issue of the Cal Poly Report.

The Report will be published every other week during Summer Quarter. Subsequent issues will appear July 7 and 21, August 4 and 18, and September 1.

News items should be submitted to Jo Ann Lloyd, Communications, Heron Hall, by 1 pm the Friday before you’d like it to appear.

Please send typewritten, double-spaced paper copies if time allows. Submittals can also be faxed to ext. 6533 or sent via e-mail to du539@oasis.
