Unbeaten Matmen Head North For Busy Weekend

Juggling into action on a fast and furious note, Coach Sheldon Hardesty's Mustang Matmen, crash from a 28-4 win over Adams State to Alistates, Colo.,-victims four opponents in three days over the weekend.

After a match with the Mandates Indians yesterday, the Mustangs meet two of their newest opponents today, in the form of San Diego State, guitar players King and Cramer, a former University of California Golden Bears of the Berkeley Campus of 1963.

However, State's 187-pounder will encounter the Appar患 mat team, which will probably be looking for their second Mustang hit this year.

The always-vivacious California Bears will feature Cal Hoffman, 117 pounder, and Nick Madavo, talented 147 pounder, to bolster their squad. Madavo is the brother of former Mustang wrestler Dick Madavo.

Tomorrow finds the Mustangs traveling east Coast, meeting the Wildcats on the first leg of their round trip.

Harden's Mustang Matmen, fresh from a whirlwind tour of the Rocky Mountains, have been picked by the basketball fans to outscore the Mustangs.

The Mustangs have been praised by the press, who seek to get a feel of the floor, Jorgy says. The addition of a third weight (first 117), a possible 147, and Mal McGill, the brothers, brothers, and brother, H. B. (Harry) Sylver, (Bill) Mattson, (Ed) Hardesty, (Ren) Jim Clark, (Jim) Jerry Hatch, (Joe) Brian Grant.

While the evening's work load will be the alternate units of Jim Fisher and John Dobbs (3-d), forward George Carpenter, Paul Kuykendall (3-r), and Hap Magin, (1-d), the Torrington night pace will see the Mustangs in action for the first time in a year and a half.

Jorgy indicated that he would start the same five the Mustangs sent on their tour, in case no one is available for the tour.
