World Fair Theme Highlights Annual International Night

"Cal Poly's World Fair is the theme that will surround the International Night program to be presented tonight on campus.

Facilities will start with a section on the football field at 7:30. The Hearst Global Clearing House will open the night's events. The two sections will be composed of students from Europe, Asia, Africa, against students from the Americas.

A total of 30 exhibits will feature the cultural tools, arts and customs of the various nations featured. The exhibits will be located in the Memorial Gym from 7:30 to 10:00.

The fair is open to the public, and patrons are invited to try a sampling of the food served.

A special feature for the people of this country with the country and people from other countries, and to foster a better understanding and cooperation with these people."

The raising of the issue of racial and religious discrimination by Alpha Tau Omega and the Student Council's stand against the University's automatic registration of the fraternity is the biggest issue facing the university community. The system has no place in modern education at the college level. Thousands of young men and women of the minority groups, found to distraction school authorities from their major responsibilities.

The Alpha Tau Omega chapter at Stanford, which pledged four Jewish students and was threatened with revocation of its charter, did a good and brave thing. But the larger issue that still remains is that social fraternities in schools for advanced education have outworn and outlived themselves.

Social fraternities in the sense of brotherhood is a good thing. But fraternality in the sense of brotherhood is a good thing. But fraternality in the sense of brotherhood is a good thing. 18 JET-SMooth CHEVROLETS PRICED LOWER than competitive models!!

Every one of the 18 Chevrolets you see here is priced lower than comparable competitive models. Proof of how easy it is to fit a Chevy into your budget. And proof that every model gives you Chevy's famous ride and dozens of other engineering and styling features you can't find in anything else selling at anywhere near the price. Based on a comparison of manufacturer's suggested prices for models with 118-inch wheelbases or above.

Dear Editor:

Thank you for the graphic representation of the ASB income and expenditure. It is difficult to express my appreciation in any other way.

It's one of your recent issues. Alice Wood states that there is a deficit budget, but I should like to simplify things a little. A deficit budget is simply a student body that can't get the lucky duck on its campus. However, to anyone but a "vldlot" (video-lot), the hats in the majority aren't dusty stetsons but

The big trouble is that you haven't climbed out of your own backyard to see that there are some other odd-looking critters at large.

It is amusing to read these published lines of loaded phrases (towing from an indignant eastern dude) came in cow country dressed as wustlstyle in his, environment, he was the subject of ridicule.

Old time cowboys were pretty narrow-minded, I guess. Well, now their grandchildren and great-grandchildren are getting a good laugh.

We wear the earns dude as most everyone else in our areas because they really serve our purpose. In fact, with many of us it's all we have.

We waste the same duds as most everyone else in our areas but we'll only come your pared.

I hope you will consider this the second part of my "little" testimonial.

With all due respect to the athletic teams, I believe, however, that we can compete closer to home rather than spend a fortune traveling far and wide.

Thank you.

In one of your recent issues, Adastra Woods stated, "We ran not

Last year we had the pleasure of meeting many engineering and science students during our visit to the campus. As a result of our discussions, a gratifying number chose to join our company.

We're back on the books below, and this notice is your invitation to come in and see us.

If you're interested in joining a company that's a leader in fields-wisitude future, you'll be interested in the advantages. Boeing can offer you.

Boeing is a major contractor on the advanced solid-fueled LCBM, Minuteman; on the boost-glide vehicles, Dyna-Gliders, and on the BGM-109 missile system. Boeing's Vertol Division is one of the country's foremost builders of helicopters.

Boeing is also the nation's foremost designer and builder of multi-jet aircraft. Production includes eight-seat B-52G missile bombers, KC-135 jet transport-tankers and the famous Boeing 707, 720 and 727 jet airliners.

Research projects at Boeing include celestial mechanics, solid state physics, nuclear and plasma physics, advanced propulsion systems, and space flight.

Expanding programs offer exceptional career opportunities to holders of B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in aeronautical, mechanical, civil, electrical-electronic and industrial engineering; in engineering in engineering, engineering physics as well as in mathematics and physics. At Boeing you'll work in a small group where individual ability and initiative get plenty of visibility. You'll enjoy many other advantages, including an opportunity to take graduate studies at company expense to help you get ahead faster.

We hope you'll arrange an interview through your Placement Office. We're looking forward to meeting you.
