The student activity program and budgetary allocations are cur rently in the news as a result of the proposed ABF fee increase to be voted on by students, March 7 and 8.

Many candid answers were given by students, expressing their views on the question of the week: Can you honestly be a member of all the student activity supported by ABF fees? What must you cut from a fee increase?

The tour and work by the band, men, women, cars, planes, boats, and other means of transportation and play by the students is better for them to travel and have better equipment for their activities. — Lawrence V. Leve, Technical Arts Junior, Burlingame.

"College Union: It serves more of the students to a better advantage, than an organization that serves only a small portion of the student body, as the student government, student senate, and other smaller organizations do. — Robert G. Green, junior, home economics major, Paso Robles.

"Welcome Weak and the Drama Group, for such cultural productions. — Oliver Craneo, sophomore, Dramatic Arts major, Duncan, Vancouver Island.

"Intramural sports, n.s.e. funds, because it benefits all the students in school to the greatest extent. It has outstanding values in individual activities. — James B. Kerr, junior, Business Education major, Monterey.

"Athletics: It's where the biggest percentage of the money goes, but the illnesses will benefit all of the organizations." — Paul Ridgeway, junior, mechanical engineering major, Berkeley.

"Light teams, more educational, that more other functions sponsored by ABF. — Robert T. McQueary, Farm Management, San Mateo, Belmont.

College Union program. They are improved and differ from the other organizations. — Dr. Goodinhurst, chairman of the student government committee, San Mateo.

"Poly is at first steps of the student union. — Jerry Crewa, junior, Technical Engineering major, El Cajon.

"Rugby, baseball, basketball instead of football, since football costs the student a great deal of money, — John McCollum, member, College Union, — Richard Anderson, El Centano Education major, South San Francisco, Belmont.

"Poly Royal, the big drawing card, to make the school the pub..." — Maurice York, junior, Mechanical Engineering.
