New Constitution Change Short of Two-Thirds Goal

The constitutional amendments, which would have changed the present form of student representation to Student Assembly, fell short of the two-thirds majority it needed to pass, in Tuesday and Wednesday balloting. About three times as many student bodies as the 48 required to pass a constitutional change were present at the meetings. A total of 791 "yeses" were recorded, which is far short of the 1,458 required for a constitutional change. These three ballots would not have been counted if the roll call had been carried out.

Three by-law changes included on the ballot apparently were passed successfully, but they were not anticipated for constitutional changes. These changes would need to be submitted for approval in a special meeting of the general body of the College Union.

Lovett Asks Return Of Hospital Loans

A loan's a loan," reminisces Dr. D. Lovett, head of the campus Health Center. And he'd greatly appreciate the return of crotchless name and elastic bandages trained to students during the past several weeks.

"We're happy to loan this equipment to the students. But we don't think it's a service that is generally expected of the hospital. It's just not in real need of its return by those who no longer have calls for it. Our supply is just about gone," Mr. Lovett says.

Greenway's Paper In Hospital Contest

Electrical Engineering department students are awaiting the winner's list realization of news of the student paper contest at Berkeley.

Ray D. Greenway, Cal Poly's student and contest winner of the Los Angeles section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, presented his paper at the national convention for the winner at the same time.

At Berkeley, Greenway was in competition with students from the University of California at Berkeley, Rice University, and the University of Arizona. These contests are an annual event of the AIEEE. Last year, Bob Eavesman, member of Cal Poly's Electrical Engineering majors and now with the General Electric Corp., also the Greenway, was a winner.

The winner of the Los Angeles section and the western district goes on to the national contest to be held in Oakland, California.

Spring Events Set

Bill Harvey, animal husbandry lecturer from San Luis Obispo, was elected president next year at Tuesday night's meeting held at the University of California at Berkeley, Santa Clara, and San Francisco.

Others elected were John Plank, vice-president; Bill Wininger, secretary; Chuck Liberto, treasurer; Larry Hurley, historian; Larry Holmes, Inter-Council representative.

The Spring Barn Dance will be held tonight at the school barn at San Luis Obispo, according to campus reports.

Spring lamb barbecues will be held at Ojai Valley Landers starting at 8 p.m. It is free to members, and guests are invited.

Activities of the group have included the following: California field trip to see marketing operations and meat at the ranch; California lamb held a Fall barbecue for the students; and recently took a Winter family trip.

At the University of California, San Francisco, students and packing plant and sponsored an educational visit to an area packing school.

Playday To Attract Two-Hundred Girls

Two hundred more girls will be on campus tomorrow. The high school girls from all of San Luis Obispo County have been invited by the Women's Athletic Association to participate in a "Play Day." The girls will compete in a weightball, volleyball, dark net, basketball, and field hockey. The program will also include stunts and a film

Everywhere chosen in the program will be慈大 and Snoopy. Playday for the Girls comes to a close with the pre-dinner, "The Great Game." The activities will begin at the morning hour, and the annual highlight will be the play in the afternoon.

Mustangs Entertain Pepperdine in Final Horsehide Contest

Winning up the 1957 baseball season, the Mustangs entertained the Pepperdine Waves tomorrow in a non-conference tilt at 3 p.m. Pepperdine, who will complete their season this week, is still a longshot as it was the Mustangs that swept them two games to one earlier in the season.

The Pepperdine tilt is the Mustang's final home game of the season.

Local Cowboys to Seek Title In Klamath Falls Rodeo Final

A real test is in store for the rodeo team next weekend, when they enter the West Coast Inter-collegiate rodeo finals at Klamath Falls, Oregon, May 25-26.

They will be competing against eight other teams and a host of calenders from the west coast in competition inside Astoria State Park, Klamath Falls, Jr. College of Oregon, Central Washington State College, Pierce Jr. College, University of California Berkeley, and Cal Poly State College.

This weekend the Mustangs will be at San Francisco State University to wrap up their season.

The Mustangs have already encountered Arizona State and Pierce JC. They have played second to Arizona twice and have downed the Pepperdine Cowboys on two occasions.

Events in the finals at Klamath Falls ridding, barrel racing, bull riding, calf roping, and horse racing. Finals events will be barrel races and ribbon roping.

Last weekend, Poly sent out two teams. The first team, Broom, Roberts, Head, and Fanning, took second place, while Owen Silk annexed the top honors on CCAA competition last weekend.

loves to cut loose and cover the miles!

If you're looking for a real "escape artist," a car that loves to step out and get away from it all—well, it just happens that Chevy was born with that urge. If there ever was a car that loved to cut loose and cover the miles, it's this one. Yet it's so easy to handle that it even makes city traffic seem like a bit lighter and parking places a bit bigger. Chevy's pretty easygoing on the highway, too. Not plush, fancy from it. You find, for example, there isn't a hill around that can make it breathe hard—not with Chevrolet's high-performance V8 on the pulling end. You've got up to 246* horsepower here for the biggest helping of driving pleasure found in the $1,000 field.

Chevy's new Postraction rear axle (optional at extra cost) adds still more power. It delivers greater power to the wheel that grips, not the wheel that slips. You have sure control and better traction on any road surface.

Step by your Chevrolet dealer's before another good driving day goes by.
