We often hear students have enough until the next Mustang rally, when we see how many students attended the welcome week activities is a credit to the college and to those new student who participated in upperclassmen—most of them have 22 members of the welcome week.

Wednesday night, 6:30-8 PM—watch the Mustangs trample clawing Wildcats 32-7. It is regrettable that at the time this issue went to press, the Mustangs could not introduce an exciting air game to succumb a willing Linfield team. Campus Radio Station Offered For Administration Approval

Cal Poly's administration is considering a proposal for a campus radio station to be added to the communication facilities presently available according to Orval Brown, chairman of an investigative committee appointed by the student affairs council.

During a recent interview on the subject, Brown said, "Perhaps most expedient way of communication available and has also been a prime source of entertainment for a great number of years. In more recent years radio has branched out to encompass a sizable portion of the education field supplemented the Social Sciences major. "The college radio station has been and will continue to be a valuable medium for entertainment, the school serves as well as a laboratory for the development of new concepts and ideas," Brown stated.

Any students, whether new to the campus or veterans of Cal Poly, that are interested in becoming associated with the newly proposed campus radio station in any capacity should continue in general study of radio developments and watch closely for an announcement of interviews and auditions."

The Mustangs of California Poly fly to State College, New Mexico this Friday evening for a Saturday night tilt against them. New Mexico A & M in what promises to be "one of the toughest road games of the 1967 season".

With only six men slightly over 200 pounds the Aggies plan to put up a tough fight. New Mexico A & M will attach their 127-lb. loss to the Hughesmen in the second game of the previous season.
