Big things are going on campus this week. What with the homecoming, both happening this weekend, things will be hopping.

Alumni Modernize To Keep Pace With Alma Mater

New developments in Cal Poly national alumni projects will be on tap for "Golden Anniversary" activities this year, as the alumni association sends out an over­

"Some of these developments have already been offered in the past year, others are going to appear in 1917," reported Alum waiting president Herb Pelton during Alumni Band­

One important step already operating, Pelton pointed out, is the "National Scholarship Program.

Coordinating structures for al­

MAN WHO FLOWED UP CAL POLY—Dawson Lowe, who sold the handsome mansion shown in family album shot with his wife, Mary. In the northwest corner of Campus, Dawson Lowe ran a prosperous potato farm and later became a dairyman. The house was built for him by his father, early in the 1900's. The home will remain the property of the family. The property was sold to the University by the estate of Dawson Lowe after his death in 1930. The house is now the home of the president of Cal Poly. It was originally built as a summer residence.

Water Polo Squad Opens Slate Today
Building right returning veterans, Coach Bill Anderson's Mustang water polo squad opened the 1957 schedule at 4 p.m. yesterday in Poly Stadium. The Poly crew played Cal in the opening match.

The team and individual goals for tough schedule this year, but the fact Anderson has last season's starting lineup back for play this Fall indicates the playing won't be too rough.

Included on the local slate are matches with Santa Barbara, Long Beach and San Jose.

Defeating Poly this year are Arizona State, Stanford, and the University of Southern California. USC is the top team in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Jorgensen Expects Large Cage Turnout

"We're looking forward to 40 at least to start out and our first practice session," says Mustang coach Jack Jorgensen, who opened official campus practice yesterday.

Heading the list of returning are four better winners from last Winter's green and gold. Big Thad Dunn, who established a new school scoring mark last year, heads the veterans.

Gunnar Olson and William Hamman and Pieman Hardy, forwards, are the other essentials.

A strenuous Mustang slate means the Mustangs face some of the best competition in the Mustang Intercollegiate Tournament headed by the Mustangs own Christmas Tournament. Detail 27 and 31.

Jorgensen also calls for games with University of Washington and Arizona State University.

Coach Jorgensen is not overly optimistic concerning his charges chances for the coming cage campaign.

He reports that all Mustang members are reported to be in condition.

For JayVee Wrestlers

Coach Sheldon Harden urge all freshmen and junior college wrestlers interested in wrestling to report to the Mustangs by Oct. 15, for the in-season of the Fall Poly squad.

Harden was wrestling mostly JayVees last year, so the Mustang varsity coach has hopes of staging a Mustang winning season on campus, later in the year.
