Life Religion Week Ends On Thursday

Religion in Life Week continues today and for the next three days. It is sponsored by the Inter-Church Council of Churches of California, with the cooperation of the college faculty, staff and students.

During the week, special activities and programs were planned to help students gain a deeper understanding of religion in life. These activities included a panel discussion on "Religion and the College Student," an institute on "Religion and the Computer Age," and a series of talks on "Religion and the Future of Man." The week ended with the annual "Religion and Life" service at the Assembly of God Church.

No Curtains Cause New Play Schedule

Its "curtains" for the College Union Drama Committee's scheduled play, "No Curtains," which is to be presented at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, January 18 in the Little Theatre.

The play, which was written by Eugene O'Neill, is a modern comedy based on the freedom of ideas. The plot deals with a woman who is willing to work, and is faced with the challenge of her husband, who is unwilling to work.

The play will be presented by the College Union Drama Committee, which is under the direction of the Theatre department.

There will be an open house on Thursday, January 19, at 7 p.m., in the Little Theatre, for anyone interested in joining the Drama Committee. The meeting will be held in the rear of the building and there will be an open house for anyone interested in joining the Drama Committee.

C. U. Posts Now Open

Several officer positions are now open for students to fill. These positions include the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the College Union. The positions are open to all students, regardless of major, and applications are due by January 20.

The officers will be responsible for planning events and activities for the College Union, as well as representing the interests of the students to the administration.

Library Clamps Down On Book Borrowing

In lightening its rules this quarter, the Library no longer charges fines for overdue books. However, books must be returned on or before the date due or they will be mailed back to the sender.

The Library does not charge fines for overdue books, but borrowers are asked to return books on or before the due date to ensure that other students have access to the materials.

Library Clamps Down on Book Borrowing

...
Sped and Jackasses on campus who drive cars on Cal Poly's campus and almost always watch a student turn off the campus and almost always watch a student drive the student almost turn their turtle. A few days at the end of the fall quarter this student did not have a car almost turned turtle. A few days at the end of the fall quarter this student did not have a car almost turned turtle.
Intramurals Underway

The Free Throw contest for the current Intramural Sports program will be held Jan. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Building. All students are invited to attend.

Last year, for example, intramural basketball is Jan. 15 with league play starting Jan. 22. A meeting for all basketball squad captains and managers will be held Thursday, Jan. 18 at 11 a.m. in WPF 410. Submarines for all games will be handed out at that time.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

Cagers Divide Pair Away From Home; Fall to Aztecs, Take 49ers

After losing to San Diego Friday, the Poly cagers came back Saturday to take an 81-68 decision over the league leading Forty Niners of Long Beach. Following a close first half, the Mustangs fell behind in Friday's game to let the San Diego Aztecs take it 80-49. Forward Ken Anderson drew three fouls early in the game, "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.

In the third quarter only the Mustangs prevailed and it was San Diego who stayed at least four points ahead of Poly. Although the Aztecs were themailer team, they capitalized on Poly's lost balls and controlled the rebounds throughout the game. "I was very grateful to see our team play as a team. They played extremely well and in a team effort, I consider this one of the most outstanding games I have seen all year," Poly's Rally Rounsaville said.

As in Poly's loss to Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 77-81, the Mustang coltsmen went down to defeat at the hands of Vandenberg Friday night by a score of 74-61.
Thirty-Six Seniors
In ‘62 ‘Who’s Who’

For their scholastic achievement; outstanding service and philanthropy; and in all activities, 36 seniors have been selected to be in the Class of 1962’s American Universities and Colleges’ Who’s Who.

Nominations were made by the Alpha Delta Omicron sorority in October and were just recently approved by the publication staff.
A brief resume of the students
authenticating their achievements included:
Mary Lynn Craves, Queen Maritime Sorority; Jan T. Pape, Alpha Lambda Delta; Ann Lovette Rin, George Kayser
Pi Kappa Psi; Jan H. Davison, David Howard Reitigos, Hub-
gert J. Lawyer, Sandra L. Smith.
Jean Bosua Bell, Leona Ann Jan-
rut, Leonid Eugene Delahay.
Jasmin Kurtz, Emily Hill, Robert Barre Carter Partnership; Mary
La Verne Beeman, Joan Thompson.
Jo Anna Longerina Mass, Sigma
Delt, Dorothy Leake Chase, Arthur
Mark Kepp, John A. Hiebus, David L. Ashley, Ted Tollner, Paul Eugene Davis, Jo Jean Wilt-son, David M. Anderson, Jerney, Elaine Keggin, Fost Indian students asked for an instructor to teach them some of the American round and circle dances, Senior says. The timber dance class is small.
but the group is working to bring in others. Merevelous information may be obtained from Mrs. Arlene Vokoun, activities advisor, or Hay Hesse.

Around Campus

If anyone wishes to make an ‘easy five bucks,’ all he has to Do is solve the Math Club’s ‘Brain
Teaser,’ which will be presented at their meeting on Jan. 28 in Ap-
no, at 7:15 p.m.

Teaser,” which will be presented
at their meeting on Jan. 28 in Ap-
no, at 7:15 p.m.

With the first meeting on Thurs-
Jan. 18 in 700, the new Bridge Club will be on its way to what is hoped to be one of the most successful clubs on campus. Starting out with the silent, the club will have its first inter-college bridge tournament.

Cal Poly’s president, Dr. Julian
A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.

Cal Poly is campaigning for students to wear white when sitting in the rooster’s section during games.

Mats Dye Pti, the printing club, will
banquet at the Sante Marla Inn, 10:30 p.m., on January 10, to observe
Dr. Julian A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.

Mat Dye Pti, the printing club, will
banquet at the Sante Marla Inn, 10:30 p.m., on January 10, to observe
Dr. Julian A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.

Mats Dye Pti, the printing club, will
banquet at the Sante Marla Inn, 10:30 p.m., on January 10, to observe
Dr. Julian A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.

Mats Dye Pti, the printing club, will
banquet at the Sante Marla Inn, 10:30 p.m., on January 10, to observe
Dr. Julian A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.

Mats Dye Pti, the printing club, will
banquet at the Sante Marla Inn, 10:30 p.m., on January 10, to observe
Dr. Julian A. McPhail, will speak at the Rally
Committee banquet, January 11,
8 p.m., at the Chi Club.