Ten Candidates Will Run For Queen of Poly Royal

Ten senior coeds were informed Wednesday afternoon that they will be candidates for the title, "Miss Poly Queen of the Poly Royal," at a special candidates' press reception in the Staff dining room. The women were selected from the top 25 percent of their class, by the Poly Royal Executive Board. The ten candidates will be voted on by the students during the "Big 'Week'" festivities, and the winner will be announced Feb. 10-14. Mrs. Wert*, whose husband is a senior Electrical engineer major, and student president of the Poly Royal Executive Board, and Member of the Student Body Council, said a 75 percent majority vote was needed to pass the recommendation, otherwise the proposal was defeated.

Further discussion—By Norton brought out the definite need stated editorially against Spinks. Norton, Montana, have for a photo engraver.

Student Body President Mary Fran Chua, who is also the Student Body Treasurer, said that the $8,0000 the machine costs, and that the students are not going to make that kind of money.

Mr. Stephen White, Jr., who is a second-semester freshman, said, "I am not sure why this proposal was not introduced in the last meeting. We had not come to a head," Norton pointed out a two-thirds majority vote was needed to pass the motion.

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of the Poly Royal Executive Board, and Secretary of the Student Body Council, said, "this is a new or never deal." He added, "The matter has never been discussed before, and should not be said to anyone at anytime.

Student Body President Lee Madison, who is also a second-semester freshman, said, "This is a matter of urgency, we are completely out of our financial allowance for the next two weeks, and we're dealing with two different departments. And what about maintenance?" In response, Norton again said, "this is a new or never deal.

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher resigns position as Chancellor of State College System

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, chancellor of the California State College System since July, 1959, announced Wednesday he will return to his former position as president of the City of New York.

Gallagher, who addressed students, faculty, staff and a Chancellor's Luncheon Wednesday, is expected housing did not materialize.

Dr. Gallagher was born in New York in that time, he was strongly backed by a left-wing newspaper, and some state groups, said it in a registration announcement released in New York, that he is tipped by the Gut Poly administrators.

I could hardly believe it, and naturally screamed, I was so excited.

I'm glad that Linda and I were able to attend this special event. It was truly an honor for us to be part of something so significant. The atmosphere was electric, and everyone was in high spirits, celebrating the momentous occasion.

Thank you for the incredible experience, Linda. It was truly unforgettable. I look forward to many more events like this in the future.
