TWO ISSUES COME TO SAC TONIGHT

Re-Organization
Plan to be Given
Will You Accept It?

Plaza for a somewhat revamped student government will be discussed by Republic Affairs Council tonight at 7 in Library 3.

A special committee chaired by ARB President-elect Victor Bollard, the incoming ARB President, will vote late tonight on the re-organization plan. It is expected that the plan will:
- Establish SAC representation by the student body council.
- Provide SAC representation by the faculty council.
- Create a "Board of Hearing" to hear action on SAC proposals.
- Become the Budget Committee, except that the student body council will have representation on that body.
- Require the ASB to provide a fund for student body activities.
- Give the four class presidents representation on the ASB.

Although they would not be in the running, the ASB officers were expected to make a recommendation to the ASB at its meeting today at 4 p.m. in the Student Services Building.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

At Last, Revision

At last Cal Poly students may get a few changes made in their student government. Tonight, Student Affairs Council will discuss an SAC re-organization plan submitted by a committee headed by next year's ASB President, Vic Dunnett.

The plan is, on the whole, a good one. It will make things run a little more smoothly and it should, if implemented, make for much a more flexible government.

There are some parts of the re-organization plan with which we do not agree, however.

For instance, the committee has proposed that on-campus residents be given SAC representatives by allowing a member of the Residence Halls Council to act on SAC. This is not right. As far as student government is concerned (or at least should be concerned), students living on campus are no more special than those who live off.

If on-campus students are given representation, then why isn't that same privilege given to off-campus students? In fact, why should any student be given representation just because he happens to live in a certain spot? There is no need for it, really. This is just like saying that students who eat in the Cafeteria and those who eat in the Snack Bar are two different groups and should be considered as such by student government.

We also suggest that Poly Royal Board's representation on SAC be discontinued. There is no real need for this and it seems a little inequitable to have Poly Royal represented in student government (or any governmental organization) any more than those who live off.

Tonight's discussion should be interesting. — J. Me.

‘Hooft in Mouth?’

EDITOR:

The Greeks had better get with it on mythology. ‘Pegasus’ is apparently the name of Pegaeus now, which sounds like an Iberian god in the way, ask Mr. Vaughan if the Spanish influence is to way of Mexico and, if so, does it mean that they will be given only half a journey to Mount Olympus?

What is this emlin husbandry thing anyway? Pegasus on one hand, a white horse flying with beauty Mobil Oil wings and the ‘Mahone’ the marble stallion, on the other hand. Is it real, or is it one hell of a confusing. Are horses the symbol of crusading journalism or any part thereof?

The only animal husbandry indicator that we have is a strong case of hoof and mouth disease. Either fly or get off the saddle—R. C. Trotter

EDITOR’S NOTE: Don’t you really mean, ‘hoof!’ in much disease.”

Flying Club Seeks More Memberships

Mountian Flying Association is currently conducting a campaign to recruit new members. The club offers students an opportunity to receive low cost training and experience flying.

Membership is $50, with a member receiving a $150 offer to the first three girls who join. This offer will probably interest in clubs two planes.

Flying time costs $5.00 per hour, also. A minimum of two hours per month must be flown by each member to maintain his flying proficiency.

Anyone interested in joining the club may contact members chairman through Student Affairs Council office or may contact any of the officers of members personally.
