Local Product Could Help Gridders Gore Matadors

When the Cal Poly Mustangs take the field against the San Francisco Valley State Warhawks at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday night in Mustang Stadium, the presence of the streaking Mustangs might be the spark needed for the "grasshoppers" to roll home a winner. In last week's game against the San Diego State, little four foot-nine, 170 pound Gomez gave a demonstration of running skill that might help the Mustangs on defense. Gomez gained 47 yards in seven attempts, turning the tables on the Mustangs for 29.

Ramos, who will be a key figure on the Mustangs, is a "real good runner," according to Morris. "He's a good blocker, too," the head coach stated. "He's a real good blocker, and he can get your head around on a pass play."

The Mustangs will be lacking for their first game of the year, however, as the Mascots have suffered injuries to several players. The Mustangs are missing Alfonso, center; Madrid, tackle; and the offense will be missing Biddle, back and Ruppert, guard.

The Matadors spotted their way into the Mustangs' defense with a first quarter touchdown on a 34-yard run by Matador quarterback Stan Morrell. The Mustangs staged a comeback in the second quarter, however, when Gomez scored on a seven-yard gain, making the score 7-6. In the third quarter, the Mustangs scored two touchdowns, the first on a 23-yard run by Gomez and the second on a six-yard pass from quarterback Mark Herman to fullback John Chamberlain. The score at the half was 17-6.

In the third quarter, the Mustangs scored another touchdown on a six-yard pass from Herman to Gomez, making the score 23-6. In the fourth quarter, the Mustangs scored two touchdowns, the first on a 23-yard run by Gomez and the second on a six-yard pass from Herman to Gomez. The final score was 29-6.

The Mustangs will play their first game of the year against the Golden State University Warhawks on Saturday, October 20, at Mustang Stadium.
