Harvest Weekend Reaps Bumper Crop Of Fun

It was Cal Poly's big weekend, and Cal Poly's "Fall Harvest" turned out to be a bumper crop. That is just one way of saying that Homecoming '62 was judged by almost all participants to be a huge success. From the harried chorus of hands to the friendships renewed, it was grand to be a Mustang fan again.

"Holy Cow!" if a little boy saw his dad as a professionally trained football player, that was the best crowd ever. The throng at the University Gateway, where the team was greeted by a throng, was of hands as the waves crashed over the parade floats. The Student Council was still working on the parade route to avoid the areas that would have caused congestion, but the waves still crashed over the parade floats.

Homecoming weekend "opened" on Thursday, October 3, with the "Festival of Lights" parade, sponsored by the Student Council. The parade was a huge success, with floats from almost every organization on campus.

The parade was followed by the Homecoming Dance, held in the Activity Center at 9 p.m. The dance was well attended, with a capacity crowd of about 5,000.

BEYOND THE PLANE OF THE ECLIPTIC...

Whether in the forefront of some exploitation or in basic research, Lockheed Missiles & Space Company has already limited ties and interests other than the obvious choice to graduate engineers and scientists. Lockheed's location on the beautiful San Francisco Peninsula, the outstanding facilities, the experienced engineers, its many attractive benefits, among many other advantages, all combined to make the Company a position in the aerospace industry.

Lockheed is an equal opportunity employer.
