Yaaaaa! We Got The Bell

By NIKKI HOFFMANN

It was the end of the long, hard struggle. Seventeen years of patience had paid off. They had finally received the bell they had been fighting for. It was a significant victory for the students and a source of pride for the campus.

Employment Is No Problem On Islands Of New Zealand

By MILL REINBURG

New Zealand has become one of the world's most sought-after destinations for young people looking for work. With its stunning landscapes, vibrant culture, and generous work visa programs, the island nation has proven to be a fertile ground for employment opportunities.

Greek Tale Told Tonight; First of Series Begins

"Greek And The Mediterranean," a full-color production, will be presented Wednesday, April 18, at 8 p.m., 6:30 p.m., and 9:30 p.m. in the Cal Poly gymnasium. The play features multiple performances across the week, with tickets available at the door for a low cost of $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. The performance is a collaborative effort between the theater department and the Greek community, highlighting the rich cultural heritage of Greece.

Ding Dong!

Symbolizing the triumph of the Poly Morgans and the Poly Football team, the "Victory Bell" on campus has once again been ringing, reminding everyone of their victory over the weekend.

President Urges Study, Participation

BY LYNN PRINGLE

The president of the Poly Morgans has urged students to participate more in campus activities. He emphasized the importance of involvement in shaping the future of the college and encouraged students to take advantage of the opportunities available. The speech was delivered to a packed audience in the main auditorium.

Resolution Proposed To SAC

Resolution Tabled 'Till Next Week

By MEL REMSBURG

Students called for a resolution to be tabled until the next meeting. The resolution was about the administration's handling of a recent event on campus, and the students were concerned about the lack of transparency and accountability.

Resolution Tabled 'Till Next Week

By MEL REMSBURG

Students called for a resolution to be tabled until the next meeting. The resolution was about the administration's handling of a recent event on campus, and the students were concerned about the lack of transparency and accountability.

Pageant Will Determine Queen Semi-Finalists

Another event that will take place on the Cal Poly campus this spring is the pageant. The event will determine the semi-finalists for the upcoming Queen Pagent for the upcoming academic year.

Labor Mediators Here This Week

Fifteen members of the State Labor Mediators Service will be on campus this week. They will conduct a series of meetings and workshops aimed at resolving labor disputes and promoting fair labor practices. The mediators will be based in the administration building during the week.

SAC Ponders Coed Reservations

The Student Affairs Committee has been reviewing coed reservations on campus. They are considering whether to approve or deny these reservations, and the decision will be made based on the committee's recommendations and the college's policies. The committee will discuss the matter further at their next meeting.

Greek Tale Told Tonight; First of Series Begins

"Greek And The Mediterranean," a full-color production, will be presented Wednesday, April 18, at 8 p.m., 6:30 p.m., and 9:30 p.m. in the Cal Poly gymnasium. The play features multiple performances across the week, with tickets available at the door for a low cost of $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. The performance is a collaborative effort between the theater department and the Greek community, highlighting the rich cultural heritage of Greece.
Mailbag

Editorial Policy

Where Is Clause?

Editor: Nowhere along the line, the editor of El Mustang decided that an editorial would address some event or situation which occurred in some place or that is to be of any consequence quite a worthy class of publications in the state of California. But as the support of the motion, he stated that after this hour, it is not out of the ordinary, and that the editor has no desire to discuss those laws, when they are most likely to be made and evaluated and analyzed in the future and that it is, in fact, quite likely, quite naturally affect our way of life.

But the editors have no desire to discuss those laws, when they may be in some other, if not in a different, if not in both, if not in either, of our magazines. If our words, Fine Arts, or lecture, keep you away. This movie, first of "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature" series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature." See the "The World Around Us," series, is narrated by the noted explorer - explorer of "Nature."
Instructors Survey Leads Band For Third Year

Drum Major Mike Holdsworth, beginning his third year band, is looking forward to the new year ahead. He is excited about the opportunities that lay ahead and feels that the band is in good shape to make a strong showing this year. Holdsworth is a senior in the Poly Band Department and has been a member of the band for four years.

Director of the Poly Band, Gunther Holdsworth, has been working closely with Holdsworth to prepare for the upcoming season. Holdsworth has been selected as the new Drum Major for the band and is being mentored by Holdsworth to prepare for the upcoming season.

Holdsworth feels that the band is in good shape and has high expectations for the coming year. He believes that the band will be able to perform at a high level and will continue to grow and improve. Holdsworth is looking forward to working with the new Drum Major and helping him to prepare for the upcoming season.

The band is looking forward to the upcoming season and is excited about the opportunities that lay ahead. Holdsworth feels that the band will be able to perform at a high level and will continue to grow and improve. The band is looking forward to working with the new Drum Major and helping him to prepare for the upcoming season.
EL MUSTANG
FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1964

Intramural Football Going Well

As the intramural football season is winding down, the Mustangs are doing well in both the men's and women's divisions. In the men's league, the Mustangs have secured a place in the finals, while the women's division is still up for grabs.

Power, the Annual lint, Fred UC Santa Barbara and Glendale respectively. Coach Richard McElveny, an assistant at both universities, feels the Mustangs have a chance to win the title if they remain healthy. The Mustangs face a tough challenge in the finals, but they are confident in their chances.

Fierce Fresno Bulldogs Face Thin Mustangs

Looking for their third win of the season, the Mustangs will face the Fresno Bulldogs on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in Mustang Stadium. The Bulldogs are coming off a 26-14 loss to the University of San Francisco, while the Mustangs have won their last two games.

The Mustangs, who are looking for a first place finish, are in good shape. They have a strong defense and a potent offense. The Bulldogs, on the other hand, have a weak defense and a struggling offense. The Mustangs should be able to defeat the Bulldogs and move closer to a conference title.

The Way I See It

By WILBUR C. MILLER

Today the Mustangs will be facing the Fresno Bulldogs in their second game of the season. The Bulldogs are coming off a 26-14 loss to the University of San Francisco, while the Mustangs have won their last two games.

Colts Look For Win Over Hungry Fresno

The Fresno State mailbags will arrive on the Mustangs' field for the second game of the season. The Bulldogs are coming off a 26-14 loss to the University of San Francisco, while the Mustangs have won their last two games.

Polioists Tilt Fresno

The Fresno State mailbags will arrive on the Mustangs' field for the second game of the season. The Bulldogs are coming off a 26-14 loss to the University of San Francisco, while the Mustangs have won their last two games.

Wayne & Lee's HAIR FASHIONS

13 N. Broad

Behind Dorothy Queen

Traditional Shops for Young Men

For Campus Tigers

WHITE JEANS

In bouncyweight cardboard by Dickies.

LEX READ COACH

Woodrow Wilson, the head football coach at Cal Poly, has been a fixture on the Mustangs' field for the last 10 years. Under his leadership, the Mustangs have compiled a record of 45-35-2.

Poly To Play Hot Bulldogs

With their second meeting this year, the Bulldogs are looking for their first win of the season. The Mustangs, on the other hand, are looking to continue their winning streak. The game will be played in Mustang Stadium at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday.

How not to come out on the short end

When it comes to picking a job, like drawing straws they may all appear equal. But on closer inspection some can fall short of the mark. Give yourself the best odds on opportunity by making your decision in depth-investigate and compare. Pacific Telephone offers excellent opportunities for technical, engineering, business, and liberal arts majors. Some important advantages are: immediate responsibility, rapid advancement, and an atmosphere you can grow in. These opportunities are available in such principal California cities as Los Angeles, Pasadena, San Diego, Sacramento, and San Francisco. Another thing about odds: they're just 1 in 7 you'll qualify for a top career with Pacific Telephone. We don't want to come out on the short end either. Register with your placement office now!

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Pacific Telephone

EL MUSTANG
FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1964