Segregation Must Be Solved: Cain

"If the racial problem is not solved in 1965, it will not be solved in 1975. No matter what we do now in Cal Poly, our students will still be attacked in the streets and in the workplace," Claude Cain said in a speech at the Cal Poly 4-H Club in the Student Union today. Cain, a representative of the Los Angeles 4-H club, was one of many speakers who spoke about the need to continue working for the rights of all races to be able to attend and work in the United States.
