Chivalry in A Closet!

By Jaya Morgan-Social

Well, here we are in February and we have finally entered the promised and exotic world of the 1960's. We love it. We think we're cool. We look at the pictures of the people at the Beaches and we say to ourselves, "There's a way to live!"

But this world we see in pictures strains many of our natural social relationships. Our, if you will, chivalrous, ethic of sympathy and respect for the weaker sex is being rapidly eroded by a fast moving current of prosperity and self-confidence among women. We find our women colleagues no longer..."...that equality, brother. I'm all for it..." (next page..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

Electron Year-A Circus?

During an election year, you hear the repeated phrase, "Where else can you find a three-ring circus for free?" P. T. Barnum will have stiff competition this year in the arena large stage settings and the Goff Corporation plans biggest, most spectacular and most controversial campaign and is ready to win.

It will begin to take the place of that old familiar serenade to over the horizon that women..."...If you've pepped up..."

The woman of today doesn't dig this Huckelberry Finn and society with great respect. She's an equal in every way. And if you're going to treat her like a lady, she'll give you a cold shoulder. She won't have it. She'll be..."...remember, I haven't lived the lust 60 years..."

Thank you, brother. For those who want to give lip your emptiness..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

To the woman of tomorrow, I say--"...to give lip your emptiness..."

But this month will be one which starts many traditions and programs. This is the first of Cal's efforts to make the Poly students up to Friday..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

My kid must lie some kind of a--"...to give lip your emptiness..."

To the Poly students we offer this invitation..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

And speaking of Professor Fink, who can forget the part student who suffered humiliation in the form of his premature bloom..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

A new young woman, on the other hand, has..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

Oh, that reminds me--"...to give lip your emptiness..."

By joining CARE's Food Crusade you will be participating in the America-wide, all-volunteer..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

But these women are willing to give lip their emptiness..."...to give lip your emptiness..."

The only totem pole we ever bought

Strange purchase? You'd be surprised at all that Standard buys...and where!

The totem pole, carved by Chilkat Indians for our great-grandmother - Alaska's first refinery - depicts the story of oil in the 19th Century.

While it's one of the most unusual purchases we've ever made, it illustrates a Standard Oil Company of California's support of local businesses and communities with local purchases.

The Chilkat clan was one of the more than 18,000 suppliers who filled their exploration, producing, manufacturing, transportation, research and our marketing requirements last year.

Our annual shopping list is more than 50,000 items long, and it helps many a small, local business to prosper.

Yes, even the money Standard pays for this space in your newspaper is another example of local spending. By helping dollars into your community, it also helps you.

To Whom It May Concern:

Have you just borrowed a $1 from your roommate for lunch money?

Have you put off buying those much needed razor blades or bar of soap in order to s-choo-s-choo-o a pocketbook a few more days?

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

Now you can pay back your roommate's loan and buy the blades or hair soap with the money you'll save during El Corral's "Dealin' Saving" Bargain Days.

Here's something for your roommate not to worry about. It's personalized just for your Rytec Charter Club Personald Shop Stationery is only $2.99 with 50 large Monarch sheets and envelopes, and you have your choice of blue or gray ink.

You won't find a better bargain around town!

Now, of course, you'll need a good quality pen to write on your new stationery. It's Eaterbee pens. Selling for only $1.29 regularly $2.58 (and again you have your choice of blue or gray ink). But if you're a skiddo, you'll need a good quality pen to write on your new stationery. It's Eaterbee pens.
