Administrators Moving To New Home

The administrative headquarters of the San Luis Obispo County Regional Plan Commission moved to the new administration building, located on the corner of Higuera and Nino, from the San Luis Obispo Chamber of Commerce. "The 16,000 square feet of office space will allow us to operate much more efficiently," said Executive Director Joel E. Demuth. "We have been in need of additional space for several years, and this move will help us better serve the community."

College Negotiating Contract
 To Aid Education In Tanzania

Lawson Suggests More Study

The student chapter of the American Institute of Architects will hold a meeting Tuesday in the design studio of the Architecture Department at the 2:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Planning and Development Building.

J. G. Johnson, a noted speaker on architectural design, will discuss his work and will attend the meeting.

The meeting will be open to the public
 and is sponsored by the Architecture Department.

awards System Criticized By SAC;
Lawson Suggests More Study

E. M. Lawson, who is a member of the Architecture Department
 faculty, has been critical of the awards
 system at Cal Poly.

He feels that too many awards are given to students and that there is too much duplication of the awards. He suggests that a committee
 should be formed
 to review the awards
 system and make recommendations.

Fellowship

Almost ready... Work is almost completed on the new administration building. The building will house the administrative offices and will be located on the corner of Higuera and Nino. The building will be completed in time for the Fall semester.

College Negotiating Contract
 To Aid Education In Tanzania

The College of Architecture is negotiating a contract with the government of Tanzania to aid in education. The contract is in the final stages of negotiation and is expected to be signed within the next few weeks.

The contract will provide funds for scholarships and stipends for students attending universities in Tanzania.

Sensationalism is Topic of Architectural Critic

Lawson Suggests More Study

The student chapter of the
 American Institute of Architects
 will hold a meeting Tuesday in
 the design studio of the
 Architecture Department at the 2:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Planning and Development Building.

J. G. Johnson, a noted
 speaker on architectural
 design, will discuss his work and will attend
 the meeting.

The meeting will be
 open to the public
 and is sponsored by
 the Architecture Department.

awards System Criticized By SAC;
Lawson Suggests More Study

E. M. Lawson, who is a member of the
 Architecture Department
 faculty, has been
 critical of the awards
 system at Cal Poly.

He feels that too many
 awards are given to
 students and that
 there is too much
 duplication of the
 awards. He suggests
 that a committee
 should be formed
 to review the awards
 system and make recommendations.

Fellowship

Almost ready... Work is almost
 completed on the new administration
 building. The building will house
 the administrative offices
 and will be located on
 the corner of Higuera and
 Nino. The building will be completed in time for the Fall semester.
Homecoming Loss

Mustangs Throw Shoe In 20-0 Mudfest

Mike Brown

The Mustangs' football team, after a promising start, was pulled out around the right end of the field, the last play of the game, after a 20-0 victory.

It was the sixth straight defeat for the home team, who were picked up by the Mustangs last year. The victory was a welcome return to form for the football team.

The Mustangs' offense was led by Billie Shew, who ran for a touchdown and a field goal. The defense was solid, allowing the Mustangs to win their fifth straight game.

The next game is against the Wolf Pack, who are currently in first place in the league. The Mustangs will need to improve their defense to have a chance of winning.

Waterpolists Cinch Second Place In NCAA Play

Coach Richard Anderson's men's swimming and diving team won the NCAA Championship meet in Los Angeles last week.

The team was led by Mike Brown, who won the 200-yard freestyle and the 400-yard individual medley. The Mustangs also won the 800-yard freestyle relay, setting a new meet record.

The team's success was due to the hard work of the swimmers and the support of the coaching staff. The Mustangs are looking forward to the upcoming season and希望 to continue their success.

SAC Approves Trip To NCAA Convention

By John Berlisa

The Student Athlete Council (SAC) met last week to discuss travel plans for the upcoming NCAA Convention.

The team will travel to San Francisco, California, for the convention, which will be held from November 28 to December 1. The team will participate in various events and competitions at the convention.

The team has been practicing hard for the upcoming season and is looking forward to representing the university at the convention.