Cal Poly Symphony to Showcase Soloists at Winter Concert March 8

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- The Cal Poly Symphony's Winter Concert will celebrate the talents of student soloists at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 8, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center.

The Student Soloist Showcase will feature performances by winners of the Music Department's Solo Competition. An extraordinary variety of solo works will be performed by students majoring in music and in business.

Lauren Wasynczuk will perform Marcello's Concerto in C minor on the soprano saxophone; Ashlee Chan and Sabrina Glenn will perform Mozart's Concerto for Flute and Harp, and business graduate student Xiaofei Song will perform Saint-Saens' Concerto No. 3 for Violin.

Two music majors vocalists will also perform with the orchestra. Kristen Choi will sing "Non se piu cosa son" from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," Corrie Stallings will perform "Amour! viens aider ma faiblesse!" from Saint-Saens' "Samson et Dalila."

Music Department faculty member David Arrivée will conduct the program, also featuring music from Latin America, including modern masterpiece "Sensemaya" by Silvestre Revueltas; a Tango by Astor Piazzolla, known as the father of Tango Nuevo; and a high-spirited Conga by Mexican composer Arturo Marquez.

Tickets for the concert are $10 and $12 for the public, $8 and $10 for seniors and $6 for students. They are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays.

To order by phone, call SLO-ARTS (756-2787). Patrons who buy season tickets to four Music Department events through the Performing Arts Ticket office will receive a 10 percent discount; a 15 percent discount is given to those who buy tickets to five or more events.

The concert is sponsored by Cal Poly's Music Department, College of Liberal Arts and Instructionally Related Activities program. For more information, call the Music Department at 756-2406.
