Another Type of Groove to Bring Poet Ike Torres to Cal Poly on April 1

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry will bring Sacramento spoken word poet Ike Torres to Cal Poly on Wednesday, April 1, from 7:30-10 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium.

Torres is a two-time member of the Sacramento Slam Team and the champion of the Sacramento Grand Slam 2006. When off the mic, he works with the Northern California nonprofit group With Our Words, leading poetry workshops for youth as a way to teach empowerment and expression through literacy.

Another Type of Groove is a spoken-word poetry event held the first Wednesday of each month throughout the school year by Cal Poly’s MultiCultural Center. The event is intended to create a place for the interchange of ideas, beliefs and personal expression.

This event is free and open to the public. Each event features a highlighted poet as well as an open mic opportunity for interested students, staff, faculty and community members.

The MultiCultural Center cultivates a campuswide community that represents and celebrates the diversity of Cal Poly’s student body.
