The committee, to be appointed by ASI Vice-president Frank Mrays, will report back to SAC in two weeks.

In making the motion to set up such a committee, Ray Given of the Agricultural Council stated that he was in favor of "any scholarship the school can give" but that the student body was not ready to financially support it. "I don't think we need the $900 tonight at this moment," Garnsey said.

Mike Elliott, ASI president, asked last week such a committee would do for two weeks. It was brought back that the question had been already postponed and to poll through student opinions, it was pointed out.

The committee would be answers any new questions and to poll through student opinions, it was pointed out.

Tom Jones of the Applied Science Council stressed the need for polling the individual, main on the street opinions," and suggested that the committee might hold public hearings.

At this point, John Conover, president of the Rally Committee and a vocal advocate of the scholarship proposal, said, "Because of the alumnus that will kill this bill, I think that the Finance Committee may have to table the bill."

$900 football scholarship referred to committee

by Dave Rosenberg.

This week's SAC meeting, if accomplishing nothing else, at least arrived at a final decision. There is more than one way to skin a proposal.

Up for discussion again was the resolution to allot $900 from ASI Finance to the football scholarship fund. The Alumni Association which supported the proposal several weeks ago, would then contribute $100.

Previously, the proposal had been tabled and then withdrawn. It had been tabled again.

This time SAC pulled a new rabbit out of the parliamentary hat and sent the proposal to committee.

The house feeling on the day of the vote was not very strong for either side. There were 9-7 to submit further consideration to committee. Both members who voted against the resolution to allot $900 from ASI Finance and the "014 Timers."

Theater group presents play

The Avant-garde Theater Group, sponsored by the College Fine Arts Committee, presented "Death Watch" Sept. 29 at the Little Theater. The play was written by Jean-Paul Sartre. Both are well known and usually a far-out modern work, the evening discussion concerning the kind of plays they give.

The group performed at no cost and their choice of material is usually a favored modern work seldom staged commercially.

A synopsis for avant-garde is "Theatre of the Absurd." The group performs at no cost and their choice of material is usually a favored modern work seldom staged commercially.

The plays "Death Watch" is the story of three prisoners and the struggle of one to be made important in the world. The evening discussion concluded, "we are talking about extending this friendship to lovers of fine music in this area.

Educational aid provided by Vets Administration

The Veteran's Administration has found information for veterans students attending college to ensure that they are well prepared and correctly notified.

The student must report to the VA each month that he is attending school and the number units to be reported for that month. Following instructions on the reverse side of the certificate of attendance may be answered by the Veteran's Coordinator at the school or the nearest VA Regional Office.

The Veteran's Administration is a synonym for avant-garde. The group performs regularly at no cost and their choice of material is usually a favored modern work seldom staged commercially.

The production "Don Pasquale" is literally a musical comedy. It is set in comic fashion, the story of how the aged but amorous Don Pasquale decides to marry his young ward Norina, against her wishes, and how Norina turns the tables on the old gentleman by pretending to be an incorrigible shrew.

The production "Don Pasquale" has presented this production in many schools throughout Southern California.

For the first time, "Don Pasquale," a delightful musical comedy will be presented by the Educational Opera Association. It is co-sponsored by the Southern Counties Gas Co., and admission will be charged.

The production, to be held in the Little Theater, Oct. 20 at 8 p.m., is brought to the campus by the Fine Arts Committee. The shabby, English version will last approximately one hour, the musical highlights of the opera have been retained, in the course between arias and verbal ensembles will be given in spoken dialogue.

Mobocracy

Editor

Bob Koczor is still having trouble with oversimplification. In his column "Conservatively Speaking" (Thursday, Oct. 11), he is introducing recent rioting in cities like Chicago, Detroit, and Los Angeles. Koczor states that he has the opportunity to witness this mobocracy via our instant communications system.

To the Editor:

I wish to bring to your attention the fact that Alpha Phi Omega is currently being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for possible violation of the Smith Act of 1940. This act makes it a crime to advocate or teach the method or tenets of a foreign conspiracy, including the so-called "Leninist" or "Communist" organizations.

The Interfaith Council received this letter from a member of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity at the University of California, Berkeley. The Council is currently investigating the situation and will take appropriate action.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS . . . Dennis Downing will be returning as an NCAA and CCAA champion this season.

Grappers prepare championship season

From the way things look, wrestling coach Vaughn Hitchcock has his eyes planted on another championship season. Only three men look forward to the NCAA titles, while the others have sights set on the coveted CCAA National Championships.

And, with the team Hitchcock has at his disposal, both could become reality.

Only three men were lost from last year's championship squad which won the NCAA crown. The rest are all back, and of six returning lettermen, six were CCAA national champions last season.

Returning, or returning as national champions, will be John Garcia, 120 lbs., Dennis Downing, 165 lbs., John Miller, 191 lbs., Dean Hilger, 183 lbs., and Tom Kline, 191 and 220 lbs.

It will mark the fourth straight season Hitchcock has the official title of national champion in the NCAA nationals. The men who have been lost were CCAA titles.

Upcoming, according to Hitchcock, national champion, will be going at 165 lbs. on Jan. 6. Depending on dual or tournament competition, many new men Downing has added a few months ago should give Harrison his overall performance.

In 1962, Miller was returning to the NCAA singles at 191 lbs. "Miller has the ability to go all the way," said Hitchcock.

Hilger and Wigglesworth, with the experience of NCAA competition, will be extremely tough for the opposition to handle. It will be Wigglesworth's fourth year of wrestling at Cal Poly, and the second for Higher after transferring from junior college.

Now, was the CCAA title as a freshman at 191 lbs. This season the Hitchcock plans to use Kline at 191 for dual matches and for tournament competition. Kline will have a big role in filling the holes left open by graduation. They will help reinforce the squad.

Coming from the Southland to Kent Wyatt, 191 lbs., Steve Johnson, 185 lbs., and Ken Fox, 165 lbs. From the northern section of the state Winfield was plucked to fill D. John Yarbrough and transfer student from Arkansas State in Colorado, Sal Boa at 133 lbs. will likely be the key man at 133 lbs. while at El Camino JC, the former State champion at 133 lbs. Johnson and Boa attended Orange Junior College. Both are in the tough Metropolitan Conference which annually amounts state competition.

Yarbrough is from Diablo Valley, the Rustler is from Diablo Valley, and El Camino is from El Camino Junior College.
Sport

"With the fine material we have to work with this year, I feel that the Mustang basketball team stands an excellent chance of winning the CCAA championship. We're not prepared to take a back seat to anybody. These are the words of Coach Chestnut, filling up Mustang basketball coach.

Chestnut traveled California, scoping high school and junior college talent. His main objective was to find players who had been trained in a fast-break type of game. In Chestnut's own words, "it is an ideal situation to be able to recruit those that have been drilled in the type of offensive play you desire to conduct.

"I hope to find a fast-break type of player. This would enable getting the rebounds and consistently breaking down court to a one to one ratio. The advantage of the one in one ratio is that the man with the ball knows where he and when he is going to make his move.

Another ingredient in the fast-break type of offense is that the opposing team will keep two defenders back out of rebound position. This, of course, would give us the advantage of finding the basket. Though we are short of height, we don't have a tall club. Consequently, we will avoid this off-guard on the boards.

Of the many junior colleges visited last year by Chestnut, ten were represented by transfers in the Mustang squad. His expectations for the players in the following descriptions. Chestnut described his new hopefuls as follows: John Hendriksen from the Los Angeles Valley College. Hendriksen is a 6-3 guard, raw-boned type of man.

Another good find was Lynn York, 6'2, from Buttefield College, York, who comes highly recommended by his coach, is a 6'3 high jumper. Harry Simon. 6-5, from St. Bonaventure is a 6-5 forward. Shooting and rebounding strength in Peru's strong points.

Bill Gotham, a lively 5-11 guard, was recruited by Chestnut from the Los Angeles City College. Ben Welton is a 6-2 guard from Cal Poly Pomona. Dennis Frits, 5-11 guard, came from the University of California at Los Angeles, while Dennis Frits, 6-5 guard, was recruited by Chestnut from Pepperdine University.

Fractions are as follows: Joe Black, 6-2, all city guard from Montclair who was an all-scholastic Northern California in basketball last year with a .900 average per game. Bob Latt, a 6-5 wingman, scored a career-high 44 points from Pepperdine High School in San Pedro; Larry Hendricks, 6-2 guard from San Carlos; Larry White, 6-7 center from Downey High School in San Jose; Mike Cameron, 6-8 forward from Pacific Palisades; Paul Harris; 6-7 forward from Cal Poly Pomona; Mark Shaw, 6-7 forward from San Jose State College; Dick Eyerly, 6-3 guard from Cal Poly Pomona.

The judge is Ken Pugh, of the American Horse Show Association. Ten classes have been put for Saturday at 8:30 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Since the show is intercollegiate, competing students will be coming from other campuses, namely Fresno State, Fresno Junior College at Los Angeles, and Cal Poly Pomona.

Ten classes have been placed for the event, including Showmanship in Hand, Western Pleasure, Western Pleasure with Roping, Western Pleasure with Jumping, English Equitation, Western Working Horse, Stock Horse, and Horse Show.

After a heart-stopping 14-7 setback suffered by the Mustangs yesterday against the College of the Sequoias, Coach Ruprecht is saying they will do it again tomorrow as they visit San Fernando Valley State, hoping to get back to winning form after yesterday's heart-stopping defeat. Coach Ruprecht's words are a statement of his belief that the Mustangs will play to win.

The Mustangs' pass defense has allowed just 62 yards per game rushing and an average of 338 yards passing against them. This fact will be key in the upcoming game.

In intramural football play the Mustangs have become the powerhouse of the Monday league scoring 40 points in three games, coming back strong after a loss against Cal Lutheran's JV squad, 14-7. The Mustangs have won consecutive games against Cal Lutheran and the Cerritos College, 2-2 in the second game of the season.

The Mustangs will enter the game with a 1-1 record. Their win came against Cal Lutheran's JV squad, 2-2. Last week the Mustangs were stopped by Cal Lutheran, 1-0, and this week they face San Fernando Valley State, who are coming off a tough game against College of the Sequoias.
