Protesters produce no punches

By Steve Riddell

"The day on this campus has never been more violent with students. There have been fewer angry scenes on this same campus in the past several months."

Greene is New York City's new mayor. He is a natural Democrat who has won several terms in office. He has been re-elected three times before the people of New York City in the past few months.

Greene said that the people of New York City want a mayor who will work for them. He said, "I will work for the people of New York City, and I will not let them down."
