Registration increase pinches pockets, not budget

by Ron Busard

According to the Finance Committee, the budget for next year is going to mean more pocket pinching for the students than ever before. This is due to a combination of factors, including the increase in student population and the decrease in state funding.

The Finance Committee has been working on the budget for several months, and they have come up with a plan that will increase the student fees by 20%. This is a significant increase, and it will have a major impact on the students who are already struggling to make ends meet.

Talcott sees school during flood tour

The Talcott school was one of the many schools that were flooded during the recent rains. The school is currently closed, and the students are attending school in other locations.

Free U sponsors 'Wayzgoose'

The Free University is sponsoring a series of events called 'Wayzgoose'. These events include concerts, lectures, and workshops, all of which are free to the students.

EXPERTS COMMENT

John Prinicipal, Staff Writer

"We're looking forward to the 'Wayzgoose' events. They're going to be a lot of fun, and it will be a great way to bring the community together."

Bill Bond, President

"It's great to see the Free University sponsoring these events. They're going to be a lot of fun, and it will be a great way to bring the community together."

TV asked to film Poly royal fete

The TV station was asked to film the Poly royal fete. The station was happy to oblige, and they are planning to produce a special broadcast about the event.

Nixon dangerous to blacks' hopes—Bond

by John Prinicipal

Bond believes that Nixon is dangerous to the hopes of black Americans. He feels that Nixon is not interested in the needs of black people, and that he is more interested in his own political ambitions.

Bond believes that Nixon is going to destroy the hopes of black Americans. He feels that Nixon is not interested in the needs of black people, and that he is more interested in his own political ambitions.
Mustang Daily

Robert Monagan is waiting no time after assuming the powerful position of assembly speaker. As minority leader, Monagan has fought a long battle to gain the position of Assembly Speaker. His efforts were rewarded as he was elected in the last election.

The position of speaker carries considerable influence and power.

It is to come to no easy surprise that Republican Must...
Faith in Christ is a personal commitment that is often perceived as a private matter. However, a recent initiative on campus this Saturday aims to change that perception. Organized by Campus Crusade for Christ International, the event will feature a guest lecturer in the morning, followed by a discussion on Christianity and its impact on society. The institute will have an interdenominational focus, bringing together practitioners from various religious backgrounds to explore the common ground in presenting the Christian faith and methods of preparing students for a role that involves a personal relationship with Christ.

Picture Contest

The third annual Poly Royal Photo Contest is being sponsored by the Journalism Department. The contest will be divided into two major categories: in class and out of class work. Each of these categories will be broken down into five different specific groups: portait, sports, editorial, miscellaneous, and feature. All entries will be on display in the Graphic Arts Building, room 228, beginning Monday, April 21, at 6 p.m. The contest will be divided into two major categories: in class and out of class work. Each of these categories will be broken down into five different specific groups: portrait, sports, editorial, miscellaneous, and feature. All entries will be on display in the Graphic Arts Building, room 228, beginning Monday, April 21, at 6 p.m.

Canned Heat

SIR DOUGLAS QUINTET

In Concert
April 12—8:00 p.m.—Man's Gym

A Complete Food Market

California Park Grocery

390 California Boulevard

FEE CLIMB MAY CAUSE GRUMBLING BUT BUDGETS WILL BENEFIT

Fee climb may cause grumblings but budgets will benefit...

Evangelism training institute here

Presenting the Christian faith is an important task, and while individual efforts may vary, the University of California at Santa Barbara has taken a proactive step by organizing an evangelism training institute. Organized by Campus Crusade for Christ International, the institute will feature guest presenters in the area of interdenominational evangelism. The institute will host an interdenominational session, which is expected to be a platform for sharing perspectives and strategies on how to effectively present the Christian faith to students and others. The institute sessions will be held in Library 117 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Each day will be charged for materials.

Resolution honors wrestling team

The university division tournament in wrestling, which was held at the University of Texas at Austin this past April, marked the end of a successful season for the University of California, San Luis Obispo wrestling team. The team was honored by the journalism department for its outstanding performance during the season.
Cagers, swimmers receive awards

Mustangs face Titans in first league action

Cal Poly's football team will play California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) action this Sunday. With 10-8, 11-inning triumph over Cal State Hayward at Hayward last Saturday, the team is second in the standings. 'Winning is half as much as winning by a man and a half.'

Mott returns to Africa

Robert A. Mott, head of the Cal Poly Physical Education Department, will travel to Africa on Monday as part of an international educational mission. The mission, sponsored by the U.S. government, will involve interaction with physical education specialists from most of the emerging nations of Africa, and will be a reconnaissance trip to Africa.

Intramural action

Spring intramural programs get underway today. At 12:30, men are scheduled to begin playing basketball in Elston Hall. The Turks, Greeks, Pacific Island Club, America Beach, Creeks Club No. 1 and 2, Troy, the Blazers, and H.P.B. are all participating in basketball action.

The basketball program is in the hands of Coach Bill Harper, with a week of tryouts before competition begins on Thursday.

The baseball team is also in action today when they face off against the Titans at 4:00.

Mustangs face Titans for the first time as both teams begin league play this Sunday. Historic thousands are expected to be in attendance.

To start the Mustangs' second season as the leader of the Mustang football machine by participating in spring conditioning sessions every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m., on the practice field next to the Marv Grey.

Harper will be trying to improve upon last season's 11-3 mark. Presently he has a good nucleus of players who make up the core of his team, and he's trying to put a team together.

Harper asks for candidates

Football begins

Mustang grid candidates for next fall are meeting Coach Joe Harper's second season as the leader of the Mustang football machine by participating in spring conditioning sessions every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m., on the practice field next to the Marv Grey.

Harper will be trying to improve upon last season's 11-3 mark. Presently he has a good nucleus of players who make up the core of his team, and he's trying to put a team together.

Effective for Tuesday nights, followed by Wednesday nights on April 10th, when Harper will be trying to improve upon last season's 11-3 mark. Presently he has a good nucleus of players who make up the core of his team, and he's trying to put a team together.

Intramural action

Spring intramural programs get underway today. At 12:30, men are scheduled to begin playing basketball in Elston Hall. The Turks, Greeks, Pacific Island Club, America Beach, Creeks Club No. 1 and 2, Troy, the Blazers, and H.P.B. are all participating in basketball action.

The basketball program is in the hands of Coach Bill Harper, with a week of tryouts before competition begins on Thursday.

The baseball team is also in action today when they face off against the Titans at 4:00.

Mustangs face Titans for the first time as both teams begin league play this Sunday. Historic thousands are expected to be in attendance.

To start the Mustangs' second season as the leader of the Mustang football machine by participating in spring conditioning sessions every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m., on the practice field next to the Marv Grey.