Cal Poly . . . . in the news

Lyle McNeal's (Animal Science) research on old-type Navajo sheep was the subject of an article in the July 2 issue of The Los Angeles Times by staff writer Charles Hillinger. Hillinger spent a day at Cal Poly this spring talking with Dr. McNeal about the research aimed at preserving the sheep from extinction. Dr. McNeal began the study a year ago when arrangements were made to bring eight of the sheep to campus. Wool from the sheep, the first breed to be introduced into North America, was used to weave the old Navajo rugs which have since become collector's items.

Lambs for sale

A Cal Poly student project will have 150 market lambs for sale immediately and over the next three months. These Cal Poly-grown lambs will be sold as whole carcasses weighing 50-60 pounds with prices ranging $1.30-$1.40 per pound, depending on current wholesale prices. Some delivery to local cutting and wrapping services will be available. If interested or have questions about any aspect of these lambs, please call Rob Rutherford at Ext-2410 or 544-5781 (home), or leave a message at the Animal Science Office at Ext-2419.

BARCLAY APPOINTED DIRECTOR ACTIVITIES PLANNING CENTER

Kenneth B. Barclay of the State University of New York at Cortland has been appointed director of the Activities Planning Center according to Acting President Dale W. Andrews. Dr. Barclay, who is presently director of college activities at the New York campus, will begin his new duties Aug. 1. His appointment was recommended by Russell H. Brown (Dean of Students) and a faculty-staff-student committee following an exhaustive nation wide search for candidates.

Dr. Barclay will succeed Robert Walters, who has been acting director of the Activities Planning Center since the December retirement of John D. Lawson, who had been at Cal Poly for 27 years. Commenting on selection of Dr. Barclay, Dean Brown said, "We are pleased to have found an individual of the professional caliber of Dr. Barclay. He will be a positive and valuable asset to the already strong relationship between the Student Affairs Division and the student body at Cal Poly."

Dr. Barclay, received his BA in history from Bowling Green State University (Ohio), an MA in history from University of Massachusetts, and a PhD in higher education from Kent State University (Ohio). In addition, he pursued studies at the Guadalajara, Mexico, campus of University of Arizona. He has been director of college activities and new student orientation at SUNY, Cortland, since 1970. He has also been adjunct assistant professor in the university's Recreation Department, as well as a member of the President's Commission on Program Evaluation and Review of Resources, and the Faculty Senate Executive Committee.

At Cal Poly Dr. Barclay will direct operations of the Activities Planning Center, with responsibility for coordination of the full range of activities and programming. He will also be involved in developing programs to support and encourage leadership and student government.

He is active in a number of professional organizations, including Association of College Unions - International, Phi Delta Kappa national education honorary society, National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and Phi Alpha Theta national history honorary society. He currently serves on the executive committee of the Cortland (N.Y.) Health Systems Council and coaches the Cortlandville Girls Softball team. He also serves on the Financial Committee for the Cortland Special Olympics. He was elected to Outstanding Young Men of America in 1977, and he has presented a variety of professional papers at national conferences, primarily dealing with curricular activities, student leadership, and college unions.

Kenneth B. Barclay

Library change

Effective July 1, the Archives and Special Collections Sections will be officially merged into one department. The new department will be headed by Robert Blesse, presently in charge of the Special Collections Section and Collection Development.

Retirement coffee

Richard T. Hall (Financial Operations) whose service to Cal Poly began in 1967, will retire at the end of July. A reception honoring him will be in the Staff Dining Room on Thursday (July 19) from 2-4 pm. All faculty and staff are invited to come and wish him well in his retirement.
Musical event

An evening of musical entertainment by an accomplished singer-pianist duo from Israel featuring works ranging from late romantic to twentieth century compositions will be featured in a recital on Wednesday, (June 11) at 8:15 pm in the Cal Poly Theatre. Emilie Berendsen-Bloch, considered a leading singer in Israel, will be accompanied by David Bloch on piano. Originally from the West Coast, they were trained at the University of Washington and have been in Israel since 1973.

Bloch teaches at Tel Aviv University and specializes in contemporary music with an emphasis on "ragtime." Emilie Berendsen-Bloch has recently recorded for French Radio and will soon appear with the Dutch National Opera. The performance will include works by various composers including Verdi, Franck, Gershwin, and Ives. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

Outgoing U.S. Mail

Departments are reminded of the outgoing U.S. mail schedule as stated in section 532.5 of the Campus Administrative Manual:

"All outgoing official university mail is metered in the Mail Center if received prior to 4:45 pm, Monday through Friday, and 11:45 am on Saturday. University postage may be used for official university business only." This schedule must be strictly adhered to in order to meet the outgoing mail deadlines of the San Luis Obispo postoffice.

Clang! Clang!

The Cal Poly Alumni Association has arranged for a fantastic weekend excursion to San Francisco with alumni and friends Aug. 25-26. We've planned a fun afternoon at a Giant vs. Cubs day game at Candlestick Park. Joining us at the game are our Bay Area and Sacramento alums. Following the game, we'll proceed to the Hotel San Francisco, near the downtown Civic Center, a few blocks away from the Market Street cable car turnstile and BART station. Once you've checked into the hotel, you are on your own to choose from among the nightlife of Fisherman's Wharf, Ghirardelli Square, or the new Pier 39 attractions. We'll provide you with a visitor's map and restaurant/nightlife guide. The following morning we have reservations for a leisurely two-hour Sunday Brunch Bay Cruise before returning to San Luis Obispo. Join us for an active, but fun weekend.

EXCURSION INCLUDES:
Round trip bus to San Francisco.
Ticket for the Giants vs. Cubs game.
One night's hotel accommodations.
Sunday Brunch Bay Cruise.

The bus will leave from the campus Parking lot across the street from Vista Grande Restaurant on Grand Avenue at 7:30 am, Saturday, Aug. 25 and return Sunday, Aug. 26, at 6 pm. Cost of the trip is $65.00 per person (double occupancy hotel accommodations). Reservations must be made by Aug. 10. For further information contact Steve Riddell or Virginia Thomas at Ext. 1261.

Cal Poly Report copy intended for the next issue should be submitted to Betty Holland, Adm. 125, Ext. 2576, prior to 12 noon on Monday.
