Katherine Peake To Be Honored Guest

Katherine Peake, a woman who was instrumental in development of the Quarter Horse breeding program at Cal Poly is the honored guest for the 1979 Poly Royal this Friday and Saturday (Apr. 27-28). Katy Peake, who presently lives in Montecito, donated a band of nine Quarter Horse fillies to the university in 1955, thus establishing a pool of mares for the campus breeding program. The horses have gone on to breed a number of top-dollar working Quarter Horses which have added to Cal Poly’s breeding program.

Mrs. Peake was an assistant in the production of the Walt Disney film, “The Horse of the West,” and writes children’s books, the most recent of which is “The Indian Heart of Carrie Hodges,” published by Viking in 1972. It is a picaresque tale of a young girl growing up in the fertile Santa Ynez Valley during the days of the Old West.

An outstanding array of special events has been scheduled for this year’s Poly Royal, exploring the theme “Poly’s Treasures... Discover Them!” This year’s annual “country fair on a college campus” is once again expected to attract over 100,000 visitors to the campus. Among the activities of a special nature are a horse show, a fencing tournament and demonstration, storytelling for small people, a sportswear fashion show, a tractor pull, an aquacade swim show, two intercollegiate rodeos, open rehearsals of the stage musical, “The Threepenny Opera”, the annual Home Concert and a concert by the Cal Poly Chamber Singers.

The annual open house produced by the Associated Students, Inc. will also include the popular pancake breakfast, a polo game (Cal Poly vs. UC Davis), the Poly 500 Soapbox Derby, music by the University Jazz Band, a barbecue steak luncheon, softball and powder-puff football games, a rugby match, and a carnival staged by students. Booths of all kinds featuring hand-crafted wares by students for sale will be found at various locations on campus. Exotic dishes from around the world will tempt the palates of Poly Royal visitors, as well as food of a more conventional type.

Performances of the annual Poly Royal Rodeo at Collet Arena on campus are scheduled for 7 pm on Friday (Apr. 27) and 2 pm on Saturday (Apr. 28). Tickets bought in advance will cost $5 for reserved seats, $4 for general admission, $3 for students, and $2.50 for children under 12. Reserved tickets bought at the gate will be $6. Tickets are on sale at the University Union ticket desk.

For visitors who have a green thumb or an appreciation of nature’s beauty, a flower show will be presented by ornamental horticulture students. Entries will be judged in six classes and 53 varieties. There is no charge to enter the show, but specimens must be submitted to the flower show chairman at the Ornamental Horticulture Unit by 8 am on Friday (Apr. 27).

This year for the first time the Poly Royal Tractor Pull is sanctioned by the Pacific Tractor Pullers Association. The two-day competition will be held on Friday and Saturday (Apr. 27-28) on the runway of the former campus airstrip. The tractor pull is scheduled for 11 am on both days. The granting of official sanction to the tractor pull will likely increase the number of entries since points toward the statewide championship can be earned. Information on parking and physical security during Poly Royal will be found in other articles in this week’s edition.
Floral baskets available

Say happy spring with a May Basket. The student chapter of the American Institute of Floral Design will be delivering may baskets on Tuesday (May 1) May Day. They are to be preordered by Monday (Apr. 30) and will cost $3 each. They will be made up in little baskets and have yellow and white daisies in them. All profits will go toward the Allen Shackleford Scholarship Fund. For further information or to place an order please call the Poly Plant Shop at Ext. 1106.

Cal Poly alumni plan Dodger Day

The Cal Poly Alumni Association announces that reserved seat baseball tickets at $19 each (including transportation) for the Cal Poly Alumni Day at Dodger Stadium, Saturday (May 26) are available at the Alumni Services office in Adm. 210. The Los Angeles Dodgers will host the Cincinnati Reds in a 1 pm contest. The chartered bus will pick up alumni, faculty, staff, retirees, and friends of the university at 7:30 am in front of Vista Grande that Saturday morning; driving directly to Dodger Stadium and return to campus immediately following the game. For further information contact Steve Riddell (Coordinator, Alumni Services) at Ext. 1261.

Poly Royal security of facilities

All Cal Poly faculty and staff are reminded of the importance of being concerned for the security of university facilities. Poly Royal will begin at 10 am on Friday morning (Apr. 27) and will continue until Sunday morning. As all are aware, the event is basically a student-planned and student-managed activity, but it is also this university’s official “open house” to the general public. With thousands of visitors to the campus, security of facilities and equipment is particularly difficult.

Each faculty and staff member is requested to volunteer to his or her department head to serve for a period of time during Poly Royal within their departmental area to assist in providing the maximum of security for all equipment and facilities. Any suspicious actions, such as “proposed” movement of equipment by other than properly identified and authorized personnel, should be questioned on the spot and reported immediately to the Public Safety Department, Ext. 2281.

As in the past, the university police staff will be working 16-hour shifts during Poly Royal. However, the assistance of departments in providing adequate manpower for each departmental area during the hours when facilities are open to the public will minimize the security risk. When departmental areas are to be closed after Friday and Saturday visitations are concluded, personnel on duty should take special care to see that all visitors are out of the facility before the area is vacated and locked by departmental personnel. We are anticipating that the 1979 Poly Royal will again demonstrate to the public the story of Cal Poly and the effectiveness of a program where students, faculty and staff work together in a cooperative spirit. The assistance of all is very much appreciated.

Faculty promotion announcement date extended

Acting President Dale W. Andrews has advised that the date for announcing faculty promotions has been extended from May 1 to June 1 (or earlier if feasible). This action is being taken due to the uncertainty of the budget and the large number of faculty being considered for promotion.

Legal services available

Ted Hannig (ASI Assistant to the President for Internal Affairs) has made the following arrangements with the San Luis Legal Clinic: 1. Cal Poly students, faculty, and staff, are entitled to a free twenty minute consultation with the law firm. 2. If one desires to employ the clinic to handle a civil legal problem, the hourly rate of $35.00 would apply. This is a lesser fee than the clinic charges its other clients. 3. If the matter is one of criminal defense, including drunk driving, the fee is based upon the offense but, again, less than the clinic charges its other clients. 4. There is no obligation on the part of the individual consulting the clinic to employ the clinic or for the clinic to accept the case.

The managing attorney of the clinic is Rick Rabbin. Prior to managing the San Luis Legal Clinic, he worked as a Deputy District Attorney for 1 Â½ years, thereby becoming familiar with all types of criminal matters. Mr. Rabbin also practiced law privately in Santa Barbara for 2 Â½ years, handling many types of divorce, spousal and child support, personal injury actions, and landlord-tenant matters, among others. The San Luis Legal Clinic is located at 1540 Marsh Street, Suite 1, San Luis Obispo. The telephone number is 543-8850.

Some matters may be handled through a telephone conversation, while others may require an office consultation. The Clinic maintains normal business hours of 8:30 am to 5 pm, however, evening consultations are available if necessary. Please call Ted Hannig at Ext. 1291 for further ASI Group Legal Service Program information.
